

Winter: Breaking Taboos through New Approaches to Death and Dying

Tues. August 15th, 2017 | 7-9 PM

Adat Shalom Synagogue
29901 Middlebelt Rd,
Farmington Hills, MI 48334

For Further Questions, please contact
Marla Schloss at marla.schloss@hazon.org

Join Adat Shalom Synagogue, Hazon, and Henry Ford Health Service on Tuesday August 15th, from 7-9 PM, for a panel discussion on how we can transform the dying process to be a more normal and healthy experience for loved ones and ourselves.

Our panel features: Rabbi Rachel Shere, Jim Kraft - the Director of Advance Planning and Pastoral Care at Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital, and Lia Farber - a conscious aging consultant.

Eating for Health Through the Seasons of Life a Summer Series

Tue July 25th 7:30-9:30 PM
Temple Beth El
"Spring: Healthy Eating for Young Families"

Wed. August 2nd 7-9 PM
with the Well at Local Kitchen and Bar
"Summer: Eating for Body and Mind for Young Professionals"

Tue. August 8th 7-9 PM
Congregation Sha'arey Zedek
"Autumn: Food for Healthy Living after 50"

Tue. August 15th 7-9 PM
Adat Shalom Synagogue
"Winter: Breaking Taboos through New Approaches to Death and Dying"

Join us for our Summer Series!

