Rabbi Herbert Yoskowitz

presents a 3-part series on “How the Events of Years Ago are Impacting the World”

2017 is a major anniversary year for many “earth-shattering” events in world and Jewish history. In 1917, the Balfour Declaration was issued. Recently the Palestinian Authority demanded an apology from Great Britain for issuing that Declaration. In 1947, the United Nations cast a vote which favored the founding of a Jewish state. Twenty years later, the 1967 Six-Day War was fought and the desired destruction of Israel was thwarted by the courageous men and women of Tzahal-the Israel Defense Forces.

Come learn with Rabbi Yoskowitz how these events of 100, 70 and 50 years ago are impacting the world in general and the Jewish people in particular at this very moment.
