

OK, you know who you are.

You're the one with a computer that hasn't a clue
what you want it to do.

Well, you're in luck because Adat Shalom's smart young techies want to help you with your digital woes* at

Tikkun Adat's
TECH CONNECT CLINIC

Sunday, April 2, 2017 12:30 - 2:30 p.m.

Got questions? Email cmd67@mi.rr.com, or call Jodi Gross, Director of Adult Learning and Youth Engagement, 248.851.5100

To be matched with a tutor, please return the form below by March 23 to Tikkun Adat at Adat Shalom Synagogue, 29901 Middlebelt Rd., Farmington Hills, MI 48334

My/our name (s) _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Chief computer tzores:

Desktop ___ Laptop ___ iPad ___ Smartphone ___ Email basics ___

Organizing files ___ Facebook, social media ___ Pins and passwords ___

Internet searches ___ Preserving photos ___ Programs like Word and Excel ___

Smartphone tips, including apps ___ Other stuff: _____

___ I'd (We'd) like to join you for lunch before we get down to work.

A tax-deductible donation of $5 per person, payable to Adat Shalom Synagogue, is enclosed.

Please bring your passwords and devices with you.

The workshop and lunch are supported by the Harold Dubin Memorial Tikkun Adat Fund.