8:45 p.m. Maariv & Chanting of Eichah
(Lamentations)

Tisha B'av, the ninth day of the Hebrew month of Av, marks the destruction of the first and second Temples, as well as a variety of other tragedies throughout Jewish history. This special service is marked by somber melodies, the chanting of the Book of Lamentations, and other liturgical poems.

In our sadness, many choose to sit on the floor, and it is a custom to avoid leather and to fast, among other observances.
