Healing from Loss

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT CONTINUES AUGUST 11 AT 10 AM

"Healing from Loss" is a warm, non-judgmental environment in which to explore personal issues arising from the grieving process. It is designed especially for those experiencing pain and loneliness from the death of a loved one, seeking a Jewish answer to living meaningfully with loss, looking for the solace of fellowship with others suffering from grief. The group is facilitated by Rabbi Rachel Shere and Ruby Kushner, M.S.W.

A new session will begin in the fall on Sunday, September 29. "Healing from Loss" is open to the community at no charge.

If you have questions, please email Rabbi Shere at rshere@adatshalom.org.

FROM RABBI SHERE

A FRIENDLY VISIT

RABBI SHERE

During my senior year at Andover High School, I volunteered regularly at the Fleischman Residence. It was one of the greatest and most rewarding aspects of my life at the time and remains so to this day. The Torah teaches, "You shall rise before the elderly and show respect to the aged" (Leviticus 19:32). As a rabbi, I have the privilege to visit Fleischman, Hechtman, Danto and other senior residences in our community. I especially like to go on Friday to make friendly visits and wish people a good Shabbes. I learn so much from these visits and always come away feeling enriched by the stories people tell me and life lessons they convey.

If you or a loved one are living in a nursing home or an independent or assisted living facility, please make sure that Adat Shalom is aware so that we can be in touch with you. Please give us your information by calling my assistant, Caren Harwood, at 248-851-5100, ext. 231, or emailing me at rsHERE@adatshalom.org. I particularly like visiting before the High Holidays and I look forward to hearing from anyone who would like to connect with me during the summer or in the New Year. Shana Tovah from our family to yours.

FROM HAZZAN GROSS

A NEW MACHZOR FOR A NEW YEAR

HAZZAN GROSS

This High Holiday season we will be using a new machzor entitled Maḥzor Lev Shalem. Introduced in 2010, Lev Shalem is the culmination of many years of development and combines the traditional machzor elements with some new material and new characteristics. Here is a glimpse of what you will find:

Lev Shalem contains all of the fundamental Hebrew prayers associated with the High Holidays. While the majority of the content of the prayer services found in Lev Shalem is similar to our previously used Harlow machzor, there are some differences. For instance, there are some piyyutim (liturgical poems) incorporated that originated from the Sephardic and Italian Jewish traditions. There are also some piyyutim of Ashkenazic origin that were not found in the Harlow machzor. Another subtle difference is the appearance of the Hebrew text. A special font was created specifically for this machzor, which I find appealing and easy to read. Another pragmatic characteristic of the Hebrew text is that many of the prayers that are customarily sung by the congregation are printed in a bold font.

One major difference in Lev Shalem from our previous machzor is the translation. The prayer texts are presented in an accurate English translation which upholds the integrity of the Hebrew texts, while still maintaining a poetic flow for accessible reading and comprehension. A specific thing of note is that Lev Shalem does not assign God a gender.

Another unique attribute of this machzor is the commentary that occurs throughout the book. This commentary pro-

FROM RABBI BERGMAN

THE MACHZOR: TEACHING US HOW TO LIVE

RABBI BERGMAN

The name of the daily Jewish prayer book is siddur, which means order. It reflects our hope of getting through our day in a good and healthy way, and our desire for our lives to be calm and predictable. It is the book for who we are now, or more accurately, who we think we are now.

The name of the High Holiday prayer book is machzor, which means to return, to go back to where we started, back to true natures. Jewish tradition says that each of us has a pure soul, a soul that can never be tainted or ruined. This means that we have a tremendous capacity to do good, and the same capacity to do harm. We have the ability and the responsibility to choose.

We often forget this during our very busy everyday lives. The Torah reminds us that we can choose good. The machzor teaches us how.

The words of the machzor allow us to reflect on our lives calmly and openly. You do not have to say every word of the book during services. I don't. Find one or two passages or even sentences that move you or challenge you and remind you of your great potential to live in a happier and better way. Find the words that allow you to forgive yourself and at least begin the process of forgiving others. All these possibilities are in the machzor.

This is one of the reasons I am so excited about our new machzor. Aside from the more inspiring and inclusive translations of the prayers, there are many readings that express more contemporary thinking. It celebrates our place in the history of prayer. It makes a great source for preparing for services, but also for reading during them. Anything that returns you to your true and good self is appropriate. In fact, that is the entire point of these days of potential and possibility.

Ruth, Rina, Shira, Ariel, Rikki and I wish you all a year of sweetness and joy.

FROM RABBI YOSKOWITZ

REFLECTING ON THE FUTURE

"Summertime and the Livin' is Easy" are the oft-sung words of "Porgy & Bess." The summer season brings a slower pace, sunny skies and relaxed living. For me, summer is a time for reading and reflecting, too.

In June, I reflected on milestones and memories as I celebrated another Bar Mitzvah anniversary. With gratitude, I once again chanted the first of three special Haftarat which precede Tisha B'Av. As I chanted the magnificent words of Jeremiah 1:1-2:3, I reflected on how meaningful it is to chant words that have endured and sustained our people for 2700 years.

Jeremiah taught us that Judaism is a journey to a better future. Yes, we must remember the past (Jeremiah 2:2), but we must look to the future. On the second day of Rosh Hashanah, we chant the Hebrew words V'Yesh Tikvah L'Acharitech. There is hope for your future, declares Adonai: Your children shall

SISTERHOOD TORAH FUND

HOLD THE DATE:

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

Sisterhood is planning a very exciting event for this year's Torah Fund supporters. Plan to join the women for brunch at the Michigan Design Center in Troy for a fabulous morning at the "Baker Showroom." A delightful program is on tap with designer Susan Winton-Feinberg, ASID, owner of Walter Herz Interiors, Inc.

Torah Fund Chairpersons Shelly Perlman, Sharyn Gallatin, Harriet Dunsky and Jennifer Weinstein look forward to greeting you at this outstanding event, which will help ensure our legacy to future generations of Conservative Jews by providing rabbis, cantors, educators and administrators for day schools and synagogue schools, as well as social work scholars and professional and lay leader researchers. Your Torah Fund contribution strengthens and perpetuates Conservative/Masorti Judaism throughout the world.

Watch for your invitation to the Torah Fund Brunch. If you have questions, please call the Synagogue office.

provides historical insight, context and interpretations which provide the reader with alternative ways to approach the High Holiday prayers. Many of these prayers are found throughout the calendar year (e.g., on Shabbat), but many are specific to Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

One last feature of Lev Shalem is that it is infused with English readings. These readings are not only educational and theological, but also meditational and spiritual, and are intended to complement and enhance the prayer experience. Contributions come from a wide range of sources, among them Chasidic folk tales, Abraham Joshua Heschel, Martin Buber, Elisabeth Kübler-Ross, and the Zohar.

I'd like to conclude this brief overview of our new machzor with this thought. While food satisfies the belly (and some say the

HOUSING THE HOMELESS XVII JUNE 30 - JULY 7

It was a busy time preparing for our guests from the South Oakland Shelter. It was a huge undertaking: planning three meals a day, shopping, arranging transportation and trying to anticipate the needs of 30-plus individuals. We are grateful that our Adat Shalom community continues to volunteer their time and effort to help us make our guests feel welcome and well taken care of. Your contributions to the Hillel Isaac Maisel Housing the Homeless Fund provide monetary support for this important project. Watch for more details about the week in the September VOICE.

RONALD McDONALD HOUSE SUNDAY, JUNE 2

On the Monday before our scheduled Sunday dinner we were advised that the dinner preparation guidelines had been changed! We could no longer bring in food made at private homes and had to cook at the Ronald McDonald House. Deb Lapin quickly re-organized the group, and a delicious meal was prepared for the families staying at the house. Thanks to the Bradford, Olender, Colton, Hepner, Lusky and Randel families for their enthusiasm, generosity and flexibility. Our next Ronald McDonald date is Sunday November 3.

YAD EZRA DELIVERIES SUNDAY, MAY 19

Thanks to Martha Zinderman for organizing the delivery of groceries to homebound recipients of Yad Ezra. They are so grateful for our kindness. Working with Martha that morning were: Evva Hepner, Charlotte Dubin, and Steven, Aaron and Ian Zinderman.

PREPARATIONS FOR 2013-2014 ARE IN HIGH GEAR at the Adat Shalom-Beth Achim Learning Community, where our primary focus is the individual student and his or her needs. We operate according to the precept in Proverbs: "Educate a child according to his path, and even when he is old he will not stray from it" (22.6). We know that there is a different path for every learner, and that even on the same path, different learners travel differently. If you have not yet registered your child or grandchild for classes, there is still time.

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE 2013-2014 ACADEMIC YEAR

PARENT-TODDLER CLASSES: The Parent-Toddler class is especially designed for children aged 16 months to 30 months. This class takes place from 9:45 to 11:15 a.m., Sundays, Mondays, and Fridays. The indoor playground, our Muscle Room, will be open for your use following the class. (Other programs, like Shake, Rattle & Twist, are also designed for this age group).

SUNDAY MORNING PRESCHOOL for 3s and 4s: Hands-on activities, music, art, special time with the clergy, and more will round out our fully bilingual (Hebrew & English) classroom. Children who will turn 3 by November 1, 2013, and are toilet-trained are welcomed to join our class! Free for members.

KINDERGARTEN THROUGH 7TH GRADE: Children study with our experienced and dedicated faculty on Sundays (K-6), Mondays (7), and Wednesdays (2-7). Kindergarten and First Grade continue to be a gift of free Jewish education for Adat Shalom members. Our clergy are actively engaged in the classes, visiting regularly, teaching different units, and leading programs and communal prayer.

8TH THROUGH 12 GRADERS take part in a community high school program called ATID, the Alliance for Teens in Detroit. On Monday evenings, teens come together to learn with the clergy and educators of the participating Conservative synagogues in one serious and engaging core class. Additional elective offerings will take place during the week throughout the community; a December mini-mester Symposium on Israel will give students and parents the chance to learn together. The fall semester and winter Israel-focused mini-mester (September through December) take place at Adat Shalom and the spring semester (January through April) takes place at Shaarey Zedek.

EXPANDED HEBREW IMMERSION:

All students in grades K-5 will experience Hebrew Immersion this coming year, on a weekly basis.

NEW HEBREW LOUNGE: Our brand new Moadon Ivrit, Hebrew Lounge, allows self-paced Hebrew acquisition. Any students who need extra help, or who need a faster, slower, or self-paced setting, attend the Moadon Ivrit, which simultaneously accommodates students at all ranges of the learning spectrum. The room is staffed by a licensed social worker and a number of Hebrew tutors and teacher assistants. Students succeed at their own pace, with the goal of reaching or surpassing the benchmarks set forth in the Hebrew curriculum. An Opening the Doors specialist, part of a program of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit, works with students on a one-to-one basis both in the Hebrew Lounge and in the classroom.

FAMILY LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES: Coordinated with the new curriculum, family education programs incorporate different types of learning opportunities: parent-only learning with clergy or educational staff parallels what is happening in the classroom, and parent-child learning offers a new topic in a hands-on way. Congregation-wide learning opportunities bring the community together to learn something new periodically throughout the year.

PARENT EDUCATION: Melton Foundations of Jewish Family Living is a brand new curriculum for parents that provides a thought-provoking encounter with the core values of Judaism. The curriculum, taught by Ruth Bergman, brings to life the master stories from our traditions and the profound messages they convey. This learning experience for adults will provide an opportunity to bring the Jewish conversation home to share with children. Foundations will be piloted at Adat Shalom and will meet ten times over the course of the school year. Any parents (individuals or couples) with children in Pre-K through 3rd grade are welcome to register. Materials fee.

ADULT EDUCATION: A full program of adult education includes evening Supper Series lectures, weekday Lunch and Learn programs, Shabbat Torah study, and weekday and weekend classes on a variety of topics taught by clergy and educational staff, as well as visiting lecturers and SYNergy speakers. A full schedule of this year's offerings will be available by late August.

COLLEGE, GRAD SCHOOL & YOUNG ADULT OUTREACH

- Is your son or daughter starting college this fall?
- Is he/she moving to a new place in the fall?
- Did he/she graduate from college last May?
- Do you want your student to stay connected to Adat Shalom?

If you answered YES to any of these questions, help us reach out to your student or young adult.

Throughout the school year our rabbis visit Michigan universities in hopes of connecting with your son/daughter. With the help of parent volunteers, Adat Shalom sends your student Chanukah and Pesach "goody" packages and email messages from our Rabbis.

In addition, Adat Shalom wants to connect with young adults (20-30s).

We appreciate it if you have already given us your son/daughter's contact information last year. Nevertheless, each fall we update our database and kindly request your help by completing the tear-off form below or emailing the information to Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org. If your student/young adult has not moved, please let us know that as well. Thanks.

KUDOS: Mazel Tov to Daphne Logan for being selected as part of the first cohort of the PeerCorps Detroit Mentor program. Teen mentors will be trained in understanding connections between Judaism and Social Justice. PeerCorps is affiliated with Repair the World and the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit.

KEEPING HALEY'S MEMORY ALIVE

Each spring, classmates of Haley Nathan ז"ל meet to perpetuate the garden they created in her memory at Adat Shalom in the spring of 2010. That year, Haley, then 11, lost her life to cancer after a very courageous 5-year struggle. The garden was designed to perpetuate Haley's love of nature and butterflies. Lauren Novick has written, "Haley truly inspired us to be the best we can be and to live life to the fullest."

Haley was the daughter of Emily & Stuart Nathan and the sister of Andrew, 15, and Ally, 10. The perpetuation of the garden has become part of the Adat Shalom - Beth Achim Learning Community's curriculum for 7th graders. Haley's former classmates, who worked on the garden on Sunday, June 2, are now 9th and 10th graders.

- 2013 SYNAGOGUE SLUGGERS -

Once again Adat Shalom is proud to have two softball teams playing in the Men's Club Intercongregational Softball League

Adat Shalom #1 (photo above) is turning into one of the stronger teams in the league, led by manager Larry Kaplan.

Adat Shalom #2 (see below) started off slow this year but is getting better each week and will hopefully hit its stride during the playoffs. Adat Shalom #2 is managed by George Dickstein.

No matter how many wins and losses, both teams are having a lot of fun playing softball on Sunday mornings, which is the name of the game.

ELI JENSEN AWARDED YOSKOWITZ ISRAEL SCHOLARSHIP

ELI WAS PRESENTED WITH HIS SCHOLARSHIP CERTIFICATE ON THE Bimah by Rabbi Shere, Rabbi Yoskowitz and Hazzan Gross.

ELI JENSEN has been awarded Adat Shalom 2013 Jay Yoskowitz י"י Scholarship for study in Israel.

"Being chosen to receive the scholarship is such an honor," said Eli. "The money I am receiving from this scholarship will go toward my participation in Habonim Dror's Workshop program. In addition to interacting with Israeli youth that are my age, I will be working with underprivileged youth for four months, and participating in a peace seminar at Neve Shalom (Oasis for Peace) in Israel.

"During my time in Israel I will also be going on a trip to Poland to learn about the youth resistance movement. From the Workshop program I hope to build a stronger Jewish identity and open my eyes to worldly issues. Upon my return I plan to be a Madrich (counselor) at Habonim Camp Tavor because I feel that Jewish camping is such an important part of youth education.

"When I attend Michigan Tech in the fall of 2014, I plan to be an active participant in the joint Michigan Tech/Northern Michigan Hillel programming. I look forward to reporting back to you and the congregation about my experience."

Mazal Tov to Eli, who graduated this past spring from Groves High School. Eli is the son of Rachel and David Jensen.

Past recipients of the Jay Yoskowitz י"י Scholarship are: Rina Bergman, Erin Gellis, Brian Pesis, Max Farkas and Samuel Zerlin.

WE'VE GOT MAIL!

We were pleased to see this complimentary email, which was sent to Jessica Chesley, Adat Shalom Catering Sales Manager for Epic Kosher Catering.

Dear Jessica:

I am the Development Director at Frankel Jewish Academy in West Bloomfield, MI. Epicurean Group is our caterer of choice for large fundraising events. We have used the Epicurean Group to cater a 375 person lunch that had a one hour time constraint and various guests who had special requests for gluten free meals. The staff was professional and quick in serving the guests a most delicious meal that the guests still talk about.

For our next event, the staff went the extra mile in creating a strolling dinner and dessert reception for our school's milestone. The chefs at the food stations were attentive to the guests and served 180 people in under 50 minutes before the presentation. When the guests came back, the Epicurean Pastry Chef had built a tower of desserts on slabs of polished granite to highlight the celebration. Once you decide on the Epicurean Group, it will be first class and you can relax; they take care of all the details for you.

— Annie Chi

return to their country (Jeremiah 31:17 - See Machzor Lev Shalem, p. 113). This message reinforces the examples and messages of other great Jewish leaders who preceded Jeremiah.

When Abraham's wife Sarah dies, he planted the seeds for a Jewish future in the Land of Israel by buying the first Jewish plot of land in Hebron, where he buried her remains. Then he initiated finding a wife for their son Isaac to ensure continuity of Jewish family life in Israel. Abraham built for the future.

Moses gathered the Jewish People and reviewed their forty years in the desert. Then he delivered prophecies about the Jewish horizons in the future. We will chant these messages from the Book of Deuteronomy in the synagogue in August and in September.

With that in mind, I will share insights that I learned this summer about Kol Nidre, about the Book of Jonah, and about repentance at our Adat Shalom Lunchtime Learning sessions in August. During our sessions on Jonah, I will reflect on my memories of Irwin Alterman ז"ל as he chanted the words of this book on so many Yom Kippur afternoons at Adat Shalom.

This summer when "the livin' is easy," I hope that you will take time to read, to reflect and to join my clergy colleagues and me as we share our insights and those of our tradition with you during the Jewish month of Elul. Perhaps our studies will help us to feel closer to God, to each other, and to the inner core of our beings.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tribute Contributions

ADAT SHALOM'S tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set a $10 minimum price for tribute cards, on par with other area congregations. Prayer Book Fund contributions are $36 for the daily Sim Shalom Prayer Book, $50 for the Shabbat Sim Shalom Prayer Book, and $50 for an Etz Hayim Chumash.

We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes, marking lifecycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support. Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please send the following information to the Synagogue office:

1. Name of Fund
2. Occasion: (In memory of ... In honor of ... Speedy recovery to ... (Please print names.)
3. Name(s) (first & last) and address of person(s) to be notified
4. Your name(s) & address
5. Check for $10 per tribute

We will process your tribute and mail it promptly.

To make a tribute online, go to: www.adatshalom.org/donate.php
