SYNAGOGUE ENGAGES “MILK & HONEY”

A DAT SHALOM IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE that Milk & Honey - Detroit, Inc. has become the Synagogue's new exclusive caterer. The decision was made at the September meeting of the Adat Shalom Board of Trustees. Milk & Honey was given a 5-year contract, effective October 21.

Owned by the Matt Prentice Restaurant Group, Milk & Honey is headquartered at the Jewish Community Center in West Bloomfield. Matt Prentice also serves as the resident caterer of Temple Israel.

All catering will take place within Adat Shalom and will be Glatt Kosher and supervised by the Council of Orthodox Rabbis of Greater Detroit.

Matt Prentice says that he is “looking forward to developing lifelong relationships with the families of Adat Shalom.” He is gratified by catering weddings today for those for whom he did Bar and Bat Mitzvah parties a decade or more ago. “I believe that such life-cycle occasions are some of the most important times in a family's life, and I aim to make the celebration of those events perfect.”

Adat Shalom members can look forward to all new serviceware, Matt noted.

The Synagogue's catering director will be Samantha McCrossin of the Matt Prentice Restaurant Group. Families and outside organizations will work directly with her to plan their events.

To make arrangements for a party or other event, please contact Denise Gallagher in the synagogue office, 248-851-5100, ext. 221 and Samantha McCrossin at smccrossin@mattprenticerg.com.

Adat Shalom wishes to express its great appreciation to the Rosenberg Family - Al & Sarah Rosenberg ז"ל and Jeffrey Rosenberg - for 40 years of dedication and commitment to the congregation and to Al Kovalenko of A&J Kosher Catering for the past four years of service.

MAINTAINING OUR STABILITY

Shortly, you will receive your Synagogue dues statement for the 2011-2012 Fiscal Year. After many years of holding dues level, (the last increase was in 2007), the Board of Trustees has determined that it is time to raise dues.

We do not undertake this step lightly. When we reviewed dues at all Conservative and Reform congregations in metropolitan Detroit, we discovered that our dues were at the bottom of the scale. This, alone, is not a reason to raise dues, but we considered that we provide an excellent "product," and that there is a cost associated with continuing to provide that "product" – We are a full service synagogue, which maintains a pre-school, religious school, and abundant youth group programming, in addition to a high level of adult educational opportunities and wonderful clergy.

I AM GRATEFUL FOR...

I love Thanksgiving, and not just for all the delicious foods, or family and friend gatherings, or even for the Lions game (which they might even win or at least not embarrass us).

I am grateful to live in a country in which we settle political disputes with words, no matter how harsh at times, and with the vote.

I am particularly grateful this year to live in the first country in which Christians, Jews and Muslims have lived together as equals. Throughout history there have been moments, however brief, in which Jews lived peacefully under the control of another religion. People often quote the Golden Age of Spain as a highlight for our people and for ecumenicism. That period may have been significantly better than others, nonetheless Jews lived under the Muslim government. When that government was deposed, we lived under the Catholic one.

OUR ADULT B'NAI MITZVAH CLASS

While these thirteen women may not have publicly celebrated b'not mitzvah at age thirteen, they are more than making up for it now.

Lauren Rosenberg, Danielle Ruskin, Jennifer Weinstein, Debbie Williams, Gloria Wolok, Charlotte Dubin, Nori Rubin, Laura Jaffe, Phyllis Kessler, Wendy Heller-Kippelman, Alison Lee, Sue Lutz and Lezlie Mostyn have been studying with Rabbi Bergman, Hazzan Gross and me for an hour and a half every Wednesday morning since last January. The class will culminate this spring when its members read from the Torah and/or the Haftarah during Adat Shalom's Shavuot service. Course material covers everything from theology to prayer, holidays, Torah/Haftarah reading, history and Hebrew.

Members of the class had the following comments to make about their experience:

"I am continually struck by the relevancy and timeliness of our ancient Jewish texts." (Sue Lutz)

"When I pull into the parking lot now, I say to myself, 'Cool. I can read and understand that Hebrew sign.'" Adat Shalom has

SHABBAT-APPELLA!

I have a plethora of fond memories from my four years living in West Philadelphia during my undergraduate days at The University of Pennsylvania. It may come as no surprise that many of these memories have to do with singing. Penn has a dozen or so a cappella groups, some of which include Penn Masala (the world's first Hindi a cappella group), Pennyo (an all Chinese group), and Off the Beat, the group in which I sang.

The Latin term a cappella literally means "in the manner of the chapel." The term today, however, is synonymous with singing without instruments. (Believe it or not, a cappella was "cool" long before the hit shows Glee and The Sing Off.) Now, Off the Beat is not your typical barbershop a cappella group. Described as a "modern rock coed a cappella group," here's a glimpse of just some of the artists we covered during my tenure with the group: Peter Gabriel, Nine Inch Nails, Weezer, Ozzy Osbourne, Coolio, and Tori Amos. In Off the Beat, singers use their voices to replicate the high soaring guitar riffs, the low resonating bass lines, and even the foot-tapping, head-nodding drum beats, aka "beatboxing." I was fortunate not only to sing with the group, but I also functioned as Music Director and President, and I composed many of the singing arrangements. At the end of every school year, we would head

FROM RABBI YOSKOWITZ

PASTOR, MARTYR, SPY

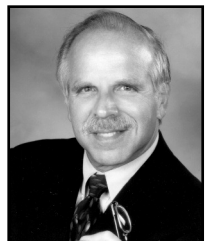

On Shabbat Vayera, read from Shabbat Minchah, November 5 through Shabbat November 12, we read in synagogue about a righteous gentile and about an entire community of evil people.

The righteous gentile, I believe, is King Abimelech of Gerar, who is told by God that he has acted with a "blameless heart" (Genesis 20:6 in Etz Hayim, p. 110), in contrast to the people of Sodom who were destroyed due to their wicked behavior (Genesis 19:4-11, Etz Hayim, pp. 105-106). Not always though is it easy to determine who is a righteous gentile.

One such controversial figure is Reverend Dietrich Bonhoeffer, who died a martyr's death in 1944. A recent biography of Bonhoeffer by Eric Metaxas was the number one best-seller on The New York Times best-seller non-fiction e-books listed in the Sunday, September 25, Book Review Section. The New York Times describes the book tersely as "a biography of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a German pastor and theologian who was hanged for his part in the assassination plot against Hitler."

LUNCHTIME LEARNING

Mondays, November 7, 14 & 21

Shakespeare Writing About the Jews; Jews Writing About Shakespeare

with Rabbi Aaron Bergman

Shakespeare may have been the first writer in English to portray a Jew as a human being, not just as a sinister caricature. Shylock is a difficult character, but so is just about everyone else in Shakespeare's plays. We will look at the world Shakespeare lived in, a world without Jews. We will read passages from The Merchant of Venice and the Christopher Marlowe play that immediately preceded it, The Jew of Malta. We will conclude with an exploration of how a group of Eastern European Jews translated Shakespeare into Yiddish, and how they became among the world's great critics and champions of the Bard.

Lunchtime Learning meets from 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m. You are invited to bring your own dairy/parve lunch. Adat Shalom will offer complimentary drinks and dessert. THERE IS NO CHARGE.

Reservations are requested by the preceding Friday. Call Sheila Lederman, 248-851-5100, ext. 246, or email slederman@adatshalom.org.

See Rabbi's Yoskowitz's message on page 3 for information on this intriguing question, and plan to gather at 5:30 p.m. at the home of Paul Goldsmith.

There is a $10/person fee. Please make your reservation by sending a check to the synagogue.

We're pleased to let you know...

A featured article by RABBI HERBERT YOSKOWITZ has been published in Michigan Jewish History, Fall 2011, Vol. 51. In it Rabbi Yoskowitz discusses the fascinating story of Willard "Bill" Cohodas, a Jewish leader in the U.P. beginning in 1939.

NOVEMBER 4-6 AN EDUCATIONAL WEEKEND FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

On Friday evening, November 4, we will meet the "STORAHTELLING" actors who will be spending the weekend with us to celebrate SHABBAT & HER TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT. We will thrill to the Torah performances of our second, third and fourth grade students, which will take place after Kabbalat Shabbat: Shabbat-Appella (See Hazzan Gross' message beginning on page 3). The Torah play will take place in the Youth Lounge for children and families as our regular Maariv service proceeds in the Shiffman Chapel. Following services and our dramatic entertainment everyone is invited to a family style, "family priced" Israeli Shabbat dinner (with chicken nuggets for the little ones). Dinner is $5 per person. We will eat together and have the chance to enjoy our children's artwork in the Social Hall.

On Shabbat morning, we begin at 9 a.m. with REJEWVENATING YOGA. At 10 a.m. we are celebrating Shabbat with a FAMILY SERVICE FEATURING YOUR STUDENTS AND OUR VISITING "STORAHTELLING" TROUPE. (We will serve juice and a treat from 9:30 to 9:50 a.m. for anyone who gets here before 10 a.m.) At 10 sharp, we begin our morning Tefillah with a rousing cowboy style Modeh Ani. Hazzan Gross has taught everyone that melody, and our K-3 students sing it every Sunday. Students will be called up to lead many of our morning prayers! Our students receive a special bead for their reading bracelets when they participate in any Family Shabbat service. When it comes to Torah service time, our special storytelling guests will provide a Torah reading like none you have ever before seen. In their hands, the Torah truly comes alive! After services we invite everyone to enjoy the kiddush "lunch" that the Adat Shalom Sisterhood provides whenever there is a Bar or Bat Mitzvah with the addition of some extra kid-friendly snacks. There will be two child care rooms open from 10 a.m. until the completion of services. Everyone is welcome in the Family Service, but the content of our "storahtelling" may be challenging for children younger than 2nd grade. Younger children are invited to stay as long as they can and then take a break in our Shabbat play rooms.

On Saturday afternoon our 6th and 7th graders are invited to JOIN JARC MEMBERS FOR A LIGHT DINNER, GAMES AND SCHMOOZING. At the same time the kindergarten and younger family crowd is having the first "SATURDAY NIGHT LIGHTS" of the season, with dinner and ventriloquist Vicki Gasko. At 7 p.m. we all join together for a SUPER HAVDALAH WITH OUR "STORAHTELLING" GUESTS AND HAZZAN GROSS.

ON SUNDAY MORNING, THE "STORAHTELLING" PEOPLE WILL DO A MINITORAH SERVICE FOR THE 2ND - 6TH GRADERS. After school, they will do a workshop for our teachers and any interested adults in the congregation.

I have seen "STORAHTELLING" on many occasions and have always walked away energized and excited. I hope that many of you will be with us and consider joining me in creating a new model of Torah reading that could be done monthly in our junior congregation.

Please be sure that you have responded for our Friday evening dinner. If you have any questions or are interested in helping with any aspect of the weekend, please contact me!

■ MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

Our year began with a strong start and multi-programs every month.

We had Sports Night and a golf outing in September. Thank you to Gary Graff for organizing both events. In October we distributed a snack after Ne'ilah. All of you can thank George Dickstein for organizing the food, Louis Sugarman and the Boy Scouts for passing out the food, and Andy Pass and his Adat Shalom religious school class for sorting and adding stickers to the snacks. We like to look after your stomachs and give you a little nosh on the way home before you really "break the fast." During the month we also met with Rabbi Bergman in the sukkah, with thanks to Joe Wener and Joey Lebovic for organizing the event and feeding us again. We "chilled with the clergy" (Hazzan Gross and Rabbi Shere) at the Library Pub. Thank you to Michael Betman, Aaron Pearlman and Larry Kaplan for organizing and feeding us again. We finished the month with our first book club at the home of Alan Chandross, where Rabbi Shere led us in a book discussion and Alan treated us to great food and warm hospitality.

November will begin with a board meeting and speaker on Sunday, the 6th. We will also revive EUCHRE NIGHT on November 20th. Details are in your flyer.

We have many events in December: We will prepare and serve a LATKE LUNCH for the synagogue and religious school on Sunday, December 11th. That same day we will transport 6th grade religious school students to several local nursing homes to sing and spread a little Chanukah cheer. We will finish December and the secular year with MOVIE NIGHT at 7 p.m. on December 24th. Go out for your Chinese food, and then join us for popcorn and a free movie. What better way to enjoy the end of the secular year than with a free movie at the synagogue.

You should all have received your Men's Club dues statements. Our dues are still only $36 per year, and we have a lot to offer both to the men of our synagogue and to the synagogue as a whole. Please send in your dues so that we can continue to offer very inexpensive and diverse programming to help make Adat Shalom the welcoming place that it is.

I hope to see you all soon at some of our events.

– Bobby Blum, President

NOVEMBER IS SUCH a busy month for Sisterhood members. We have so much in store for all of you. Mark your calendars for the following events:

✂ Sisterhood is proud to be a sponsor of the JEWISH BOOK FAIR. At 1 p.m. on Thursday, November 3, we will co-sponsor a lecture by author Karen Bergreen on her edgy new thriller Following Polly. Bergreen is a Harvard-educated lawyer turned novelist. She uses her quick wit and fierce intelligence to create an entertaining mystery and social satire. A comedian as well, Bergreen has appeared on Comedy Central and Law & Order. You will enjoy her presentation at this free event. Plan to attend and support Sisterhood.

Adat Shalom

✂ I hope that you have all received your HAZEL BINGO invitations and have already sent in your RSVP cards. We are looking forward to a fun filled evening of dinner, games and super prizes. Anyone 18 years or older is welcome. Please join us for this great evening on November 10th.

✂ November 29th is our PAID UP MEMBERSHIP DINNER. Our guest speaker that evening will be Debi Weinstein, from I've Gotta Get Organized, Inc. Please watch your mail for more details for this evening. As long as your Sisterhood dues are paid, this evening is free!

FROM ELISSA BERG, DIRECTOR, EDUCATION & YOUTH

NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH that moves at breakneck speed in our classes. There is so much to do!

Our sixth graders are each making a yad on November 2 that they can use when they read Torah. Our third graders will begin creating their own Havdalah sets together with parents on November 13. Also on November 13, our K-5 students will experience their first all-school Israel educational program. We often see these creations on Bar/Bat Mitzvah morning. On November 20, our fifth grade families will be treated to a performance of the moving stories created by their children about mitzvah heroes in their own families. We have no school on Wednesday, November 23 and Sunday, November 27 because of the Thanksgiving break. We do, however, have a SUPER SHABBAT TORAH STUDY FOR KIDS on November 26 at 10:30 a.m. The topic is Siblings (as in Jacob and Esau or...those in our own families) Second through sixth graders are invited to read, sign, act and snack with us on the 26th. We'll have a lot of fun! And, I've left the best for last:

– SHABBAT & HER TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT–

One of my goals for this new year is to create wonderful opportunities for families to celebrate Shabbat with their Adat Shalom friends. To that end, please join us on November 4, 5 and 6 for "Shabbat & Her Technicolor Dreamcoat," an educational weekend for the whole family! Shabbat can be celebrated in many ways. Our "borrowed metaphor" for that entire Shabbat can be the "technicolor dreamcoat." To help us create a warm Shabbat feeling, join us dressed comfortably (casually) and in bright colors. Everyone has received invitations.

PLEASE TURN BACK TO PAGE 4 TO LEARN ALL THE DETAILS.

Education & Youth

Havdalah is such a magical time, separating the holiness of Shabbat from the rest of the week. I realize that at Adat Shalom we all celebrate Shabbat in different ways; for some it is a time to come to shul; for others it is a day to be home and be together; and yet others celebrate in different ways. On November 5, we will have a wonderful opportunity to come together as a community for Havdalah. You may remember this program as "Saturday Night Lights."

SATURDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

We will have dinner, entertainment, Havdalah and lots of fun together. There will be time to be together as a whole community, but also just for the little ones to run and play free in the Muscle Room. Hazz'n Dan will lead Havdalah, so any of your little ones enrolled in our Early Childhood Center will be familiar with it from Monday mornings. Please join us! We will be waiting for you...

– Debi Banooni, Jewish Family Educator

UPCOMING FAMILY EVENTS

Family Education programs are endowed in memory of Oscar Cook and in honor of Jeanette Cook

SATURDAY NIGHT LIGHTS - November 5

Families with children in kindergarten and younger (older siblings welcome) are invited to join us for dinner, ventriloquist Vicki Gasko, Havdalah and playtime. No charge.

EXPLORING GOD'S CREATION THROUGH SCIENCE

Friday, November 18

Four year olds in our Early Childhood Center will come together with their families for an experience in creation revolving around science. The two can mix!

HASHEM SHELI - Sunday, December 4

Parents celebrate their 1st graders' names, their origins, and meanings.

For more information or to reserve your place, contact Debi at 248-626-2153

EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

ADAT SHALOM EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER is proud to be one of 10 Jewish schools to receive a grant from the Kellogg Foundation to launch parent-teacher dialogues around Ellen Galinsky's book, Mind in the Making, the Seven Essential Life Skills Every Child Needs. This book takes an in-depth look at child development and through research and practical experiments explains the stages of growth in a way that will help you better understand parenthood and childhood. Rabbi Shere and I are working with Jen Weinstein, who will chair this endeavor along with our teachers. This will be a true collaboration among the synagogue, families and staff to ensure the benefits of this incredible gift that we have received.

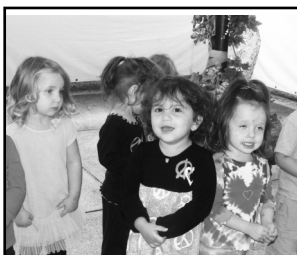

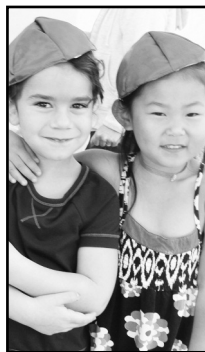

You may become part of our learning community by joining fellow parents and teachers in our Mind in the Making book club. Our kickoff evening will take place on Tuesday, November 22, at 6:30 p.m. Babysitting will be available, if needed. We will look at each of the book's seven chapters throughout the course of the year. We have a limited supply of books, which will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis.

This is an exciting opportunity to build a learning community with our children's best interests at heart, which is what we believe in everyday. Please let me know if you would like a copy of the book and if you will be joining us for our first discussion on November 22. We look forward to hearing from you.

We are very pleased to welcome the new members who have joined the congregation since November 1 of last year. We were happy to meet and greet many of them during the High Holidays and during Sukkot. Prior to Rosh Hashanah, new families received flowers, a complimentary machzor, and an Adat Shalom information packet.

We hope to see all of our new members many times this year and invite them to take part fully in the wealth of programming Adat Shalom offers.

BARON'S OFFER TO BAR MITZVAH FAMILIES

Baron's on Orchard Lake Road has made an offer to B'nai Mitzvah families who need a break this year due to the economic crisis in Michigan. Baron's will enable families to purchase Bar Mitzvah suits at actual cost, saving a meaningful amount.

Baron's is closed to the public. Its primary business is selling wholesale to stores and tailor shops. In order to take advantage of this special opportunity, families should ask Barry Lippitt, our Coordinator of Bar/Bat Mitzvah Instruction, to provide a letter with the boy's name and the date of the Bar Mitzvah. The letter must be provided to receive this discount, which is available through December 31, 2011.

RONALD McDONALD HOUSE...On Sunday, November 13th, we will prepare and serve dinner for families of children who are hospitalized at Children's Hospital in Detroit and are staying at the local Ronald McDonald House. Dinner usually includes baked fish, salad, lasagna, dessert, and drinks. If you and your family would like to help out, you can prepare or donate a portion of the meal and/or you can help deliver and serve the meal. This is a great activity for the whole family. If you would like to participate, email Deb Lapin at lapes321@sbcbglobal.net.

YAD EZRA DELIVERIES...On Sunday, October 2nd, we made our first delivery of groceries for the New Year. Thank you to Bobby and Natalie Blum, Charlotte Dubin, Paul Goldsmith, Ken Podell, Ross Podell and Marcia Fishman. Natalie Blum is our new coordinator of this important mitzvah project. Natalie, daughter of Tracey & Bobby Blum, has been delivering Yad Ezra groceries since she was five years old. Natalie graduated from the University of Michigan and will be attending medical school. Thank you Natalie!

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE...October 24th was the kickoff of MARVELOUS MONDAYS at the Friendship Circle's Weinberg Village. In this life-like village, the volunteers role-play various positions in the community. Visitors to the Village are school age special needs students who practice everyday life skills. These skills are so very important in the development of independence for these students. Volunteers are needed in every area of the Village to insure the most meaningful experience for the participants. We especially need volunteers during the winter months, when many of our regular participants are out of town. Come once and you'll be hooked. Please contact Leslie Magy at 248-723-6542 (h), 248-514-4179 (c) or lesliemagy@gmail.com.

This summer, Bonhoeffer scholar Professor Geoffrey Kelly spoke on "The Cost of Christian Discipleship for Dietrich Bonhoeffer" at Chautauqua, New York. When action was requested from Israel's Yad Vashem to designate Reverend Bonhoeffer as a "righteous gentile," much controversy in the Jewish community ensued.

Who was Bonhoeffer? Was he a "righteous gentile"? Why was he so controversial? These are some of the questions I will address in the first 5772 Supper Series offering, now in its seventeenth year in Metro Detroit. Reverend Bonhoeffer was a man of great courage. Those of you who have met him either through his writings or through writings about him are likely never to forget him. If you decide to participate in the November 6 Supper Series program, or to read about Reverend Bonhoeffer, please let me know if you think that he was a "righteous gentile." He was a giant of a man, but was he a "righteous gentile," as well?

Did his defense of "Christians of Jewish origin" sometimes highlight his lack of similar vigorous defense of Jews who did not convert? Was this "righteous" behavior?

BEFORE YOU KNOW IT...

ANNUAL BOOK DRIVE DECEMBER 1 - DECEMBER 30

Please donate new books for pre-schoolers and early elementary age children. The books will be donated to various literacy programs. Each book will carry a bookplate explaining that the book is a gift from Adat Shalom. Unwrapped books, in plastic bags for their protection, may be placed in drop-off boxes in front of the main office and the religious school office. Monetary donations will also be accepted to purchase books.

HOPE HOSPITALITY & WARMING CENTER DECEMBER 25 - 28, 7 P.M. - 10 P.M.

Hope Hospitality is a safe overnight center for the homeless in Pontiac. Without this center, many of the guests would be staying on the streets and at great risk. This year we will be responsible for four nights, including the registration of the guests, making a warm and filling meal, and cleaning up. We need 8 - 10 volunteers over the age of 18 each night. Volunteers will carpool to the center. WE NEED YOUR HELP! Our congregational partners are not able to help this year, so we are "going it alone." Please call Evva Hepner, 248-798-7673, if you are able to help.

ADAT SHALOM YOUNG ADULT GROUP

Last month saw the end of the high holidays as well as a Sukkot event at the Motor City Moishe House, a program of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit for young Jewish adults who live in Detroit's Midtown Neighborhood. It was great to plan an event with Moishe House, and we hope to be able to get together again soon!

Come the beginning of December, we have a Shabbat lunch planned at the home of Shana & Allen Weiss. The lunch will be on Saturday, December 3rd. Young Adult Group members will soon receive details - so long as they are members of the Young Adult Group email distribution list. If you know of someone who isn't yet a member of our email list, please have him/her join by emailing: youngadultgroup@adatshalom.org. We look forward to keeping everyone apprised of all upcoming events!

We have plans in the works for the remainder of November/December, so keep your eyes and ears open. If you or anyone you know has any ideas for events going into 2012, we welcome all suggestions!

We invite all young adults to join us on Facebook (search for Adat Shalom Young Adult Group). We look forward to having new members join us at our upcoming programs.

- Beth Rodgers, Young Adult Group Chairperson

FROM RABBI BERGMAN

I agree that these periods of time were far safer for us, but I think we have to be careful not to romanticize them. At no point were we full and equal members of those societies.

In America, we are full partners in society, answerable to no other religion. The same is true for every other religious, ethnic or cultural group. No one may prevent others from living freely and pursuing their lives as they see fit. The founders of our country may not have written the Constitution with divine inspiration, but they were the first to make a truly free society possible.

My prayer is that the spirit of democracy which infuses America becomes an inspiration for the whole world, with members of each religious group living peacefully with each other, not under each others' domination. That will be an achievement for which we can be truly grateful.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

With the increase, our dues level will still be lower than comparatively sized Reform Temples and Conservative Synagogues in the Detroit Metropolitan area. Based on our annual expenses and in consideration of all membership units, our dues would need to be $2,226 per member account for each of the current 980 member accounts. After much consideration, the new base dues will be $2,150. Although we have been fortunate enough not to need to rely fully on membership dues to balance our budget and pay our operational expenses, the money received from dues is significant in that regard.

We look forward to continuing to build a solid and financially stable base for our future. Thank you for your continued affiliation with Adat Shalom.

accomplishments on a professionally produced CD. And every year our CD would receive national recognition from RARB (The Recorded A Cappella Review Board) and CASA (The Contemporary A Cappella Society), winning multiple awards in such categories as Best Arrangement, Best Recorded Song, Best Solo Voice, etc.

So why am I telling you about this?

Marty (as in Liebman, our spectacular Resident in Sacred Music) and I will be taking the beautiful melodies we sing regularly on Kabbalat Shabbat and turning them into a cappella arrangements. This is slightly ironic because every Friday night service, with the exception of our special Shabbat Rocks service, already is a cappella. This time, however, we will have some clever arrangements of the prayers accompanying our congregational singing.

Joining me on the bimah in Adat Shalom's version of Il Divo, will be the sweet singing Dan Shere, the musical genius Marty Liebman, and the human subwoofer, Jeffrey Maisels. Please don't miss this opportunity to add your own voice to this special event which will take place on Friday evening, November 4, at 6 p.m. You may even hear a beatbox or two...

“This year, I followed along in Rosh Hashanah services – both days – for the very first time.” (Wendy Heller-Kippelman)

“I have been at Adat Shalom for many moons. My kids all celebrated their b’nai mitzvah here, yet I have never felt the sense of connection to the synagogue or to the clergy that I do now.” (Lauren Rosenberg)

“It was a magical moment when I discovered I could read my son’s books from Hillel Day School. He is so proud of me.” (Jennifer Weinstein)

“This class is giving me the opportunity to have the b’nai mitzvah experience that my brothers had and children are having. It is a milestone in my Jewish life.” (Lezlie Mostyn)

COLLEGE STUDENT & YOUNG ADULT OUTREACH

- Is your son or daughter starting college?
 - Is he/she moving to a new location?
 - Did he/she graduate from college last May?
 - Do you want your student to stay connected to Adat Shalom?
- If you answered, YES, to any of these questions, help us reach out to your student or young adult.

What is our Undergrad and Post-College Outreach Program? Throughout the school year our Rabbis visit Michigan universities to connect with your college student and bringing him/her a “taste from home.” Thanks to parent volunteers, Adat Shalom also sends “goody” packages for Chanukah and Pesach.

In addition, Adat Shalom wants to connect with young adults (20-30s). Adat Shalom sends them holiday packages and invitations to participate in the Young Adult Group at Adat Shalom (See page 10).

We appreciate having received your student’s contact information last year. Nevertheless, each fall we update the database and kindly request your help by completing the tear off below or emailing the information on the tear off to Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org. If your student/young adult has not moved, please let us know. Thanks!

The Poetry of Prayer

WITH LYNNE GOLODNER
AND RABBI RACHEL SHERE

Tuesdays, November 1, 8 & 15
7:30 p.m.

A look at Jewish prayer through new eyes with author and entrepreneur Lynne Golodner (formerly Schreiber) along with Rabbi Rachel Shere. In three sessions, we will look at the language with which we pray and understand how both Hebrew and English can be poetic and inspiring – not just required religious reading. By the end of this class, you may try your hand at constructing your own poetic prayer imbued with your own personal meaning and inspiration.
