Feeling At Home on the High Holidays

How to have a happy experience at services and at home during the holiday season

Sunday, August 26 at 10:30 A.M. following Meditation and Mindfulness

FROM THE PRESIDENT,
SANFORD VIEDER
*OUR HISTORY, OUR FUTURE

Our great congregation originally came together in 1943. During that time, it was quite common for congregations that were forming to pattern themselves after specific national backgrounds, such as Polish, Russian or Hungarian congregations. Adat Shalom really came together as a result of a geographical need at the time and was originally called the Northwest Hebrew Congregation and Center. It became a place of worship where anybody was welcome regardless of their cultural heritage. The congregation grew quickly and ultimately changed the name to Adas Shalom with the completion of the beautiful new building that was constructed on Curtis and dedicated on March 30, 1952.

As more European Jews filtered into the city of Detroit following World War II, the opportunity to belong to a Jewish congregation without imminent fear and the ability to safely observe their customs and rituals in a synagogue setting took on new meaning. Sadly, so many of these new Detroit Jews had witnessed and suffered the unthinkable. Many had lost their entire families. One of those people was my father, of blessed memory, Cantor Larry Vieder, who joined the clergy of Adat Shalom in 1961.

For my father, like so many other survivors, the synagogue became a very important symbol. It was a beacon of light that proved to the world that Jews mattered. It afforded him an opportunity to rebuild a new life, with a new family. Like so many other survivors, it was that grit and determination to not only rebuild a meaningful life and a prosperous synagogue, but also to assure for generations to come that the synagogue as a symbol

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS
*JOIN THE RHYTHM OF THE DRUM CIRCLE!

On Tuesday, August 7, Adat Shalom will be hosting a drum circle (see additional information on page 4). I believe that this is the first time we have offered such a program. A drum circle is a group of people, each with a drum, bringing the community together through rhythm. The beauty of a drum circle is the spontaneity that ensues from all of the individual rhythmic contributions to the collective beats. The idea came about back in 2013 when Adat Shalom hosted a highly successful regional Songleader Boot Camp conference. One of the sessions was a drum circle, and I have wanted to lead a drum circle event at Adat ever since. The catalyst for doing so was our congregant Deborah Cymerint, who contacted me a few months ago with a similar idea. Thanks to her enthusiastic persuasion and to Hillel Day School for loaning us the majority of the drums, the idea is now coming to fruition. There is a limit to the number of participants due to limited drum availability. We have drums available for 20 people. We can accommodate additional participants who are able to bring their own hand drums. All participants (ages 12 and up) should RSVP to Caren Harwood at charwood@adatshalom.org or call 248.851.5100 ext. 231. Note that you do not need any experience whatsoever with a drum circle or with drumming. There may possibly also be singing! Come join us and let the beats of our drums resonate throughout Adat Shalom. I guarantee smiles on everyone's faces!

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN
*A NEIGHBORHOOD FOR ALL OF US

I loved Mr. Rogers. No other man except my father had such a profound impact in how I approach the world. Fred Rogers saw the best in people, and helped them see it, too. He was not naive. He was strong, but kind, and faithful but open-minded. His voice is needed today more than ever. Here are a few of his teachings.

Many of these quotations are collected in the posthumous volume The World According to Mister Rogers, though they come from various sources, including his many television appearances. They were collected here by Chris Higgins.

1. On Heroes Without Capes

"When I was very young, most of my childhood heroes wore capes, flew through the air, or picked up buildings with one arm. They were spectacular and got a lot of attention. But as I grew, my heroes changed, so that now I can honestly say that anyone who does anything to help a child is a hero to me."

FROM RABBI RACHEL SHERE
*THE MOST FREQUENTLY REPEATED COMMANDMENT

If you had to take a guess, what would you say is the most frequently stated commandment in the entire Hebrew Bible? I'll give you some clues. It doesn't concern how often you pray, how much you give to charity, what you eat or even how you treat your neighbor (although that last one is the second most frequently stated commandment). You might be surprised to learn that the commandment "Do not fear" is stated nearly eighty times in the Tanakh, making this, by far, the most repeated of God's words.

One of my favorite authors is the renowned psychiatrist, Dr. Elisabeth Kübler-Ross. Having authored hundreds of books and scholarly articles on death, dying and living a life of meaning, her last published words were:

The sole purpose of life is to grow. The ultimate lesson is learning how to love and be loved unconditionally...All the hardships that come to you in life...are an opportunity to grow, which is the sole purpose of life...It is very important that you do only what you love to do. You may be poor, you may go hungry, you may live in a shabby place, but you will totally live. And at the end of your days, you will bless your life because you have done what you came here to do... Dying is nothing to fear. It can be the most wonderful experience of your life. It all depends on how you have lived.

The upcoming High Holidays give us the opportunity to look inward and reflect upon our lives. I don't believe that any of us is here by accident; there is an important reason why each of us is in the world at this time and in this place. Fear, however, can rob us of the opportunity to live the fullest expression of our lives. There is a quotation, often attributed to Mark Twain, which reads, "I have lived a long life and had many troubles, most of which never happened."

As we add Psalm 27 to our daily prayers this month, let us take its opening verse to heart: "God is my light and my strength. Of whom shall I fear?"

Offering you nourishment for your mind, body
& spirit

Let's break down why I love JEWISH SUMMER CAMPS.

1. JEWISH – you are living Judaism – not just learning about it. However, we should never dismiss the learning – understanding the “why” can make Judaism more meaningful.
2. SUMMER – nicer weather, a break from school – but hopefully not from learning.
3. CAMP – a safe place to learn to be independent, make friends, build community and have fun.

This August, you don't have to go to some faraway camp to live Jewishly, to continue to learn while having fun, and to make new friends! Join us at Minyan, and/or contact me so we can set up a time to learn together.

HOUSING THE HOMELESS

It was a busy time preparing for our guests from the South Oakland Shelter (SOS). Most of us assume that the need for emergency shelter decreases during the summer months. However, with warming centers closed for the season, the need increases for SOS. This year we experienced severe heat and were happy to offer our guests a chance to “chill” on Saturday. They could stay at the syngagoue and were grateful for this day inside. It was the right thing to do.

We welcomed 32 guests during the week, including 4 family units with 9 children, ranging in age from 1-15. One mother, with four children, would get up at 3:30 a.m. to leave at 4:30 a.m. She would drop the children off at two different daycare sites so that she could arrive at work at 6 a.m! This is never easy but imagine that you are staying in a different site every week. Our guests were appreciative of all that we did for them to make their stay comfortable. On a positive note, two of our guests exited to housing during the week. This is always the goal of the SOS.

This year magician Fred Letner performed and we also introduced karaoke. Fred included the audience in his act and everyone loved it. One of our guests summed it up this way, “Sometimes it’s just good to laugh.” Bingo was an old favorite and everyone won a gift card.

We could not have done it without all of our many volunteers and supporters. Beds were picked up and made, lunches assembled, and early morning breakfast served. Over 300 pounds of laundry were done. People helped out at the last minute and made things happen. Special transportation needs are always difficult to plan. Volunteers stepped in at a moment’s notice and got people where they had to go. These efforts help them get closer to their goal of independence.

Your time and financial support ensures that we can continue to make this commitment to our community. Your support of The Hillel Isaac Maisel and Rachel Maisel Housing the Homeless Fund throughout the year is greatly appreciated.

YAD EZRA, SUNDAY, AUGUST 26 - 10:45-NOON

Once again we will be delivering groceries to homebound recipients of Yad Ezra services. This is an activity in which the whole family can participate. Groceries are pre-packed and directions are provided. It only takes about an hour but without this service the people would be unable to get groceries.

We are looking for someone to coordinate this program. Responsibilities are to coordinate dates (4) for the year and to arrange for drivers. Many people participate regularly. Give me a call if you might consider this.

Jackie Issner (2nd from left) shared, “It was a very meaningful experience volunteering Sunday evening (June 24) at the annual Adat Shalom “Housing the Homeless” project with my OnBoard Leadership crew.”

OnBoard is a leadership development program that is partnering with the Metropolitan Detroit Jewish community. OnBoard provides training and preparation for highly motivated and committed lay leaders who are representing a wide array of Jewish organizations. Over the course of 16 months, the 24 OnBoard fellows attend a series of skill-based seminars, receive mentoring and personalized Jewish study, and create valuable projects which are all designed to strengthen the organizations and help secure a vibrant Jewish future.

Sisterhood of Adat Shalom’s 2018 Spring Outreach Luncheon

The Sisterhood welcomed their guests from Kadima, JARC and JVS for the annual Spring Outreach luncheon. Co-chairs Phyllis Pilcowitz, Lisa Shiffman and Sheila Tyner planned a delicious lunch, a creative art project and the much anticipated singing and dancing led by Hazzan Daniel Gross and accompanied by Dan Shere. Joining them were a group of Hillel student ambassadors who helped throughout the afternoon.

Sisterhood

The Sisterhood of Adat Shalom Synagogue is looking forward to the 2018-2019 year. Our goal is to have more women in our congregation join and become involved in the Sisterhood. We'd like to bring the women of Adat Shalom together. This coming year, we have an exciting calendar of events starting with our opening membership meeting on Sunday, September 16, 2018 and our annual Paid-Up Sisterhood Membership Dinner on Wednesday, November 14, 2018.

In addition to these two events, we will be continuing our very popular Rosh Chodesh Study Group throughout the 2018-2019 year, celebrating the new moon and focusing on self renewal. The program is a very special one led by Rabbi Rachel Shere and enjoyed by women of all ages and interests. We will also be continuing the Sisterhood Knitting Circle on Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. These dedicated Sisterhood members make scarves for Heart 2 Hart Detroit and preemie hats for the March of Dimes and the National Council of Jewish Women. If you're a knitter, we'd love to have you join and help with this very worthwhile charity.

If knitting is not your forte, we have a Sisterhood Spring Outreach luncheon, where we partner with Hillel student ambassadors to welcome guests from Kadima (the non-profit mental health organization offering residential and therapeutic services to children, adolescents and adults with psychiatric, behavioral and emotional disorders), JARC and Jewish Vocational Services to serve them a lovely lunch at Adat Shalom. The Sisterhood also sponsors a Book Club throughout the year, provides a full kiddush every Shabbat, maintains the beautiful Sisterhood Gift Shop featuring many one-of-a-kind items, gorgeous jewelry, kippot, housewarming gifts, Seder plates, kiddush cups, Bar and Bat Mitzvah gifts etc...and supports The Women's League for Conservative Judaism and Torah Fund. If you are interested in joining our Book Club, volunteering to make or serve kugels, or volunteering in the gift shop, please don't hesitate to contact us. The year is capped off with our Sisterhood Donor Luncheon in May, featuring a nationally recognized speaker, author, or filmmaker, unique boutiques and a beautiful catered luncheon in our Social Hall. We are an inclusive Sisterhood and we so look forward to welcoming you.

MEN'S CLUB

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS... BY JOEY LEBOVIC

As a member of Adat Shalom for many years, I am very excited about becoming the new President of the Adat Shalom Men's Club. I truly believe that the Men's Club plays a central role in building a strong and vibrant Adat Shalom community. The Men's Club has over 150 members, ages 18 and above, and provides programming designed to appeal to congregants of all ages - adults, couples and even families. I have found that many of these programs are a great way to meet and get to know people in smaller group settings, helping people feel a part of the community, and often leading to new lifelong friendships.

This year, in addition to many tried and true activities, we have developed new programs for the growing number of younger men joining our shul. Kick off the Jewish New Year by joining us for Sunday in the Sukkah to meet some of the guys and to hear shul president Sandy Vieder talk about what's new at Adat Shalom. Then on October 17 come to Steak and Sports Night with a local sports talk radio personality to get the inside scoop on many of our local teams and athletes. Later this year attend Bagels with Bergman, Hangin' with the Hazzan, and Guys' Night Out in Downtown Detroit.

The Men's Club also supports many events for congregants of all ages, and important services to the community-at-large. These include staffing youth and family picnics, sponsoring Hebrew Literacy classes (Wednesdays beginning Sept. 12) and the Yom Hashoah Essay Contest, and running popular events like the Daddy-Daughter Dance and Dinner & Movie on Christmas Eve.

So please plan on attending one of our upcoming events, and feel free to contact me with any questions or if you would like to learn more about the Men's Club of Adat Shalom and how you can get involved.

are endowed in memory
of Jeanette & Oscar Cook

As we prepare to say goodbye to summer and hello to a new year, we are excited to kick off Shabbat Rocks: Family Edition on August 24. This is a moving, musical and inclusive Friday night service led by our clergy. All are invited to welcome Shabbat together: young children, teens, adults, families and individuals. Bring a picnic meal if you would like to stay for Shabbat dinner (see page 2 for details).

The service will be offered again throughout the year. Weather permitting we will gather outside. As it gets colder and darker we will congregate indoors at an inspiring location in the synagogue. Please contact me to register if you would like to join us. I hope to see you there.

In greeting 5779, we are preparing a variety of learning and discussion opportunities. It is our goal to offer different experiences to meet the needs of different people. Once the High Holidays arrive, you will continue to have choices. You can attend a traditional service, meditation, parent-toddler and so much more. Tickets are required for the traditional High Holy Day service, the others are open to the public. Please turn to page 12 for a list of High Holy Day services and experiences.

LEARNING COMMUNITY NEWS

I'm writing this Voice article from Chicago, where I learn with 40 colleagues from around the world at the Mandel Teacher Educator Institute (MTEI). As we reach the midpoint of our two-year process of learning how to be better purveyors of professional development for our faculties, I am excited for the possibilities that this coming year will offer our teachers. At MTEI, design theory is at the core of what we do, and I've been hard at work coming up with a process of learning for our teachers. In the coming year, our teachers will be investigating our curriculum and exploring new ways to put Israel at the forefront of our learning, across the grades and subject matter.

Registration Reminders

Please check in with the office if you have not yet submitted your deposit for the coming school year or if you are registering a new student.

PATHWAYS FOR TEENS / דרכי נוער / DARCHEI NOAR

Register your 8-12 grader for Nosh & Drash or check out one of our amazing paths for teen learning & engagement.

Check our website for more details or contact Melissa Ser at 248.626.2153.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

The Teen Volunteer Corps (TVC) program combines learning and direct hands-on involvement. It is focused on values and empowers teens to have an impact and be involved in the Jewish community and Metro Detroit. A teen leadership board creates, and leads projects, and recruits volunteers.

The Adat Shalom TVC gathered on Sunday, June 24 to help prepare for Housing the Homeless and to work in Haley's garden.

For his Eagle Scout Project, Jared Perlman, a TVC participant, Nosh & Drash student and a madrich, built two benches to go on each side of Haley's Garden. One bench is a "Mensch Bench," (a buddy bench), and the other is in memory of Haley. The benches were dedicated on Sunday, June 24.

Adat Shalom Israel Bonds Drive

First Day of Rosh Hashanah
Monday, September 10

Adat Shalom members have always felt a strong commitment to partner with Israel in the development of the land that represents both our heritage and our future. Once again, we strongly urge you to support the State of Israel by investing in Israel through Israel Bonds. Your investment will help ensure that Israel's economy continues to grow despite the multitude of threats facing her in the region and internationally.

Please make your selection on the tab card enclosed in your Israel Bonds mailing and bring it with you when you attend Rosh Hashanah Day 1, or return it in the envelope provided. Duplicate cards will be available in the synagogue lobby preceding services.

I (we) pledge to Adat Shalom Synagogue's Yom Kippur Appeal the amount indicated by the tab folded above.

Adat Shalom's accomplishments reflect, in large part, your investment in the welfare and growth of our synagogue. This year, our 75th anniversary year, we once again ask you to do a special mitzvah on behalf of Adat Shalom.

Rabbi Jacob E. Segal z"l and Cantor Larry Vieder z"l identified the synagogue as the home of the Jewish people. Proudly, Adat Shalom is our home and we will be directing this year's funds as a down payment on our next 75 years.

As a result of your generosity in recent years, we have been able to replace the chairs in the Social Hall, install environmentally sound LED lighting to provide high energy efficiency throughout the building, resurface and replace driveways, parking lots and concrete walkways, and make improvements to the decorative, accoustical wall paneling in the Main Sanctuary.

All members will receive a Yom Kippur Appeal tab card in the mail. Please remember to bring it with you when you come to services on Yom Kippur Day, Wednesday, September 19. We strongly encourage you to be part of that future by making a monetary contribution toward this year's Yom Kippur Appeal.

Sukkot begins Sunday evening,
September 23.

If you would like to purchase a lulav & etrog through the Synagogue, please contact Denise Gallagher, 248.851.5100, ext 221 to place your order. The fee is $45.

2. On Sharing Responsibility

"We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.' Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes."

3. From a PSA Following September 11, 2001

"If you grew up with our Neighborhood, you may remember how we sometimes talked about difficult things. There were days ... even beautiful days ... that weren't happy. In fact, there were some that were really sad.

Well, we've had a lot of days like that in our whole world. We've seen what some people do when they don't know anything else to do with their anger.

I'm convinced that when we help our children find healthy ways of dealing with their feelings--ways that don't hurt them or anyone else--we're helping to make our world a safer, better place.

I would like to tell you what I often told you when you were much younger: I like you just the way you are.

And what's more, I'm so grateful to you for helping the children in your life to know that you'll do everything you can to keep them safe and to help them express their feelings in ways that will bring healing in many different neighborhoods."

4. On What We Do

"What matters isn't how a person's inner life finally puts together the alphabet and numbers of his outer life. What really matters is whether he uses the alphabet for the declaration of a war or the description of a sunrise--his numbers for the final count at Buchenwald or the specifics of a brand-new bridge."

5. On Looking for the Helpers

"When I was a boy and I would see scary things in the news, my mother would say to me, 'Look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping.' To this day, especially in times of 'disaster,' I remember my mother's words, and I am always comforted by realizing that there are still so many helpers--so many caring people in this world."

6. On Helping

"I hope you're proud of yourself for the times you've said 'yes,' when all it meant was extra work for you and was seemingly helpful only to somebody else."

7. On Pain

"There is no normal life that is free of pain. It's the very wrestling with our problems that can be the impetus for our growth."

8. On Accepting Our Feelings

"There's no 'should' or 'should not' when it comes to having feelings. They're part of who we are and their origins are beyond our control. When we can believe that, we may find it easier to make constructive choices about what to do with those feelings."

9. On "Disabilities"

"Part of the problem with the word disabilities is that it immediately suggests an inability to see or hear or walk or do other things that many of us take for granted. But what of people who can't feel? Or talk about their feelings? Or manage their feelings in constructive ways? What of people who aren't able to form close and strong relationships? And people who cannot find fulfillment in their lives, or those who have lost hope, who live in disappointment and bitterness and find in life no joy, no love? These, it seems to me, are the real disabilities."

10. On Facing Sadness and Anger

"Confronting our feelings and giving them appropriate expression always takes strength, not weakness. It takes strength to acknowledge our anger, and sometimes more strength yet to curb the aggressive urges anger may bring and to channel them into nonviolent outlets. It takes strength to face our sadness and to grieve and to let our grief and our anger flow in tears when they need to. It takes strength to talk about our feelings and to reach out for help and comfort when we need it."

of our resolve as Jews and the strength of Judaism, would stand as a critical piece of society that could not be eliminated, burned or destroyed. My father spent his entire lifetime building, promoting and safeguarding our congregation and what it stood for. To this end, the new name of Adas Shalom (which means Congregation of Peace) had very deep meaning.

As we fast-forward to the present, it is easy to see that our congregational culture and mission has genuinely been retained and upheld from its original roots. While much has changed over the 75-year history of the congregation, we have always remained true to the original vision. Our basic cultural fabric and goals remain the same. Adat Shalom continues to be an open, welcoming and inclusive congregation to many different types of people with different cultural heritages. While we continue to conduct traditional daily minyan and Shabbat services in a warm, friendly environment, we also offer a wonderful variety of alternative services and programs to celebrate the Jewish holidays and Shabbat. Our roots and traditions are steadfast, yet we do so in a contemporary fashion and our amazing clergy are always striving to innovate to meet the needs of our members. There is truly something to offer for every age and every generation of the families that collectively make up this great congregation.

Despite our remarkable history, it's important that we keep our eye on the future to ensure that what was started in 1944 continues to have the proper foundation, commitment and financial security for the next 75 years. We are at a critical juncture where we need to capture the imagination and commitment of the next generation of Jewish leaders to ensure that a symbol of Jewish solidarity and permanency remains as a bright beacon in our community. We must continue to move forward in our contemporary interpretations of Jewish life, while respecting our heritage and the deep roots that the founders of this synagogue worked so hard to plant. It is critical that we intrigue the next generation to help build upon the mission, traditions, spiritual exploration, cultural growth, education and friendship that make Adat Shalom what it is. We must meet the needs of our next generation to ensure our future.

Maggie Leff, the recipient of the 2018 Jay Yoskowitz z"l Israel Scholarship, with Rabbi Bergman, Hazzan Gross, Rabbi Yoskowitz and Rabbi Shere.
