

Thursday, March 7
12 o'clock at Adat Shalom Synagogue

“Michigan Jewish Women Who Made a Difference”
(and a few of the Good Men Behind Them)

Led by Margery Jablin

The presentation features stories of Michigan’s Jewish founding “mothers,” examples of women whose contributions help make Michigan a culturally rich and diverse state, and inspiring stories of women – and men – who made great sacrifices in order to better our world. A variety of historic and modern-day images are used to punctuate the stories of women in business, arts and community.

Free of charge. Open to the community.

You are welcome to bring a pareve or dairy lunch.

Registration is appreciated by March 4 to Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org, 248.626.2153.
