How did the Youth United Summer Camp start?

In 2018, a multi-generational, interfaith team from Adat Shalom Synagogue, Anjuman-e-Najmi, First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, Hope Lutheran Church, Muslim Community Mosque, North Congregational Church, Orchard United Methodist Church, Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, St. Gerald's Catholic Church, Tawheed Center, and Trinity in the Woods Episcopal Church provided an opportunity for interfaith youth to explore their values and help others.

Over 60 youth brought new life to nearly every corner of C.A.R.E.S. We welcome additional faith communities to join us in 2019.

Thanks to our Sponsors

Financial support comes from the Presbytery of Detroit's Faith in Action grant as well as a grant from Farmington/Farmington Hills Foundation for Youth and Families.

Why?

Interfaith coalitions have the power to build peace-making bridges. Youth United benefits C.A.R.E.S. (Community Action Resources Empowerment Services) of Farmington Hills, a recently expanded food pantry in the process of becoming a village of hope in our community. With 10.5 acres of property, C.A.R.E.S. offers youth wanting to serve the opportunity to take part in outdoor projects that will make a difference to our area.

As youth make improvements to C.A.R.E.S., they demonstrate the power of treating all neighbors with compassion and dignity.

NOTE: Certification of service hours and recognition from Senator Gary Peter's office available to youth.
