FROM THE PRESIDENT, SANFORD VIEDER

It seems we just started summer, with its unseasonably late arrival, yet here I am writing to all of you in our August Voice. August is that time of year when we begin all the necessary preparations for celebrating the High Holidays at Adat Shalom.

There is always much work to be done ensuring that the synagogue grounds and the building are looking great and ready for you to come share what we all hope will be the beginning of a very happy and healthy new year! Our new heating and cooling system is installed and working efficiently. Construction on the Rosen and Wiener Family Pavilion is well underway and should be complete in time for late August celebrations.

On behalf of the entire Vieder family, we hope your summer days have been enjoyable, healthy and safe! Looking forward to greeting you all at High Holiday services in September.

B'Shalom,

Sandy

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS L'SHANAH HABAH'AH B'ITALY!

Next summer I am thrilled to be taking part in the Cantors Assembly's "Jewish Musical Journey through Italy" and you are invited! Italy has been a continuous home to Jewish communities for over 2000 years.

These vibrant and diverse communities are comprised of Italian, Ashkenazi, Sephardic, Persian and Libyan Jews.

The 2020 mission dates are June 22 through July 2, and the itinerary includes a nonstop array of fascinating sights and sounds. Some of the highlights:

We begin in Rome and will explore the city's many remarkable landmarks such as Palatine Hill, Castel Sant'Angelo, the Trevi Fountain, the Jewish Ghetto, the Great Synagogue, the Jewish Museum, the Coliseum and the Vatican. The cantors will be featured in two concerts in Rome as well as a late night talent show. After spending Shabbat in Rome, we head to magnificent Florence where we will set out on a walking tour of the city to see Il Duomo, Piazza Santa Croce and the city's museums, as well as a concert with the Florence Jewish community. We then depart for the day to San Gimignano, known as the "Town of Fine Towers," famous for its medieval architecture. There we will also enjoy a wine tasting and a visit to the Archaeological Museum.

The next stop is Ferrara where we will visit the new Museum of Italian Judaism and the Shoah, and walk through the former Jewish ghetto. Next, we head to Venice, the unparalleled, dream-like "City of Water." Here we will experience Doge's Palace, St. Mark's Basilica, Campo Del Ghetto, and the Jewish Museum. We will also be treated to a sunset gondola ride, a visit to the Island of Burano and a concert at the Arsenale.

In my ten years with the Cantors Assembly, I have taken part in two international missions, first to Germany and then Spain.

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN WHAT, US WORRY? A FAREWELL TO ALFRED E. NEUMAN

One of America's great Jewish political and social commentary magazines is coming to an end. Mad Magazine will no longer be printing new stories on a regular basis, though there might be occasional specials. Part of the reason is that print magazines are dropping in sales, but I think it signals a more profound change. We Americans are capable of ridiculing and demeaning those who disagree with us, but because we take ourselves and our opinions so seriously, we have lost the ability to laugh at ourselves.

Mad was founded by William Gaines originally as a comic book in 1952. It became a magazine in 1955. Many, though certainly not all, of the artists and writers, such as Harvey Kurtzman, Al Jaffe and Dave Berg, were Jewish. The very first story was called Goniffs, the Yiddish word for thieves. William Gaines was the son of Maxwell Gaines, born Max Ginzberg, who had invented the comic book itself in the 1930s. Gaines envisioned a publication that would lampoon things like politicians and social trends, and by doing so would point out the flaws in what were often closed-minded and self-satisfied people, people who were potentially dangerous to the vulnerable in society.

Many politicians were obviously very angry at being portrayed in such an unflattering light, and tried to shut down the publication, but Gaines always prevailed. Freedom of the press is more than a right. Our founding fathers understood it as an obligation. Thomas Jefferson knew that the suppression of parody would lead to tyranny. He wrote, "No experiment can be more interesting than that we are now trying, and which we trust will end in establishing the fact, that man may be governed by reason and truth. Our first object should therefore be, to leave open to him all the avenues to truth. The most effectual hitherto found, is the freedom of the press."

Though Mad might be coming to an end, I hope we learn to value our opinions, but not take ourselves so seriously that we try to destroy those who disagree with us. If not, it will really be time to worry.

FROM RABBI RACHEL SHERE IT'S NOT LOVE: HUMAN TRAFFICKING'S SUBTLE SEDUCTION

Human trafficking is a modern-day form of slavery that is happening throughout the world. While certainly a global issue, many people do not realize that it is also a local issue. In May and June of this year, nearly sixty people were charged with sex trafficking in Michigan. In fact, the FBI ranked Michigan tenth nationwide in arrests for trafficking crimes last year.

On August 15 at 7:00 P.M., Adat Shalom will host a screening of the 2019 film "Ring of Silence," a 90-minute movie based on stories of sex trafficking happening in Michigan and across the U.S. Following the screening, I will be one of several participants in a panel discussion and Q&A session.

From Michael Wolf

Director of Spirituality and Outreach

The Shabbat following Tisha B'Av (the ninth of the Hebrew month of Av) is called Shabbat Nachamu, the Shabbat of Consolation, referring to the opening words of the haftarah, the weekly reading from the Prophets. It is the first of seven haftarot noted for their theme of consolation. Shabbat Nachamu is always paired with Parashat Va'etchanan in which we read the Shema and the 10 Commandments.

In the Book of Exodus, Moshe comes down from the mountain with the tablets (luchot) and sees the golden calf. After contemplating the situation Moshe reacts: he throws the tablets down. How does God respond? According to the Talmud, God says, "Yasher Kochacha that you broke the luchot." Yasher Kochacha literally meaning, "Your strength has been straight." Proverbially patting Moshe on the back, God tells Moshe, you've used your strength for good things, good job breaking the luchot.

In Deuteronomy 6:18 Moshe says to the Israelites, "You will do that which is right and good in the sight of Adonai." The Hebrew for "right" or "straight" is י-ש-ר (Ya-shar). The same word is used in verse 40:3 of the Haftarah: "clear in the wilderness the way of Adonai! Level (make straight) in the desert a highway for our God."

Today we wish someone a yasher koach or yasher kocheich as a way of congratulating them for participating in the service. The traditional response is "Baruch Tihyeh" which means "blessed you should be."

Believe me, I know that some mornings it takes koach (strength) to get to shul, but I hope to see you at minyan so I can greet you and wish you a Yasher Koach!

WEEKLY SHABBAT TORAH STUDY

*The world stands on three things:
Torah, Worship, and Acts of Loving-kindness,
(Shimon the Righteous, Pirke Avot 1:2)*

Torah, also known as the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Hebrew Bible – Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, tells the ancient stories of the Jewish people. These stories touch upon science, history, philosophy, ritual and ethics that involve individuals, families, wars, slavery and more. Virtually no subject is taboo for Torah. Woven into these stories is the unique lens through which the Jewish people have viewed the world and God.

Our Shabbat Torah Study resumes on Saturday, August 3. Join clergy and educators each week at 9:45 A.M. to dig deep into the weekly Torah portion. We conclude in time to hear the Rabbi's sermon.

SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION

LIGHTHOUSE - SOUTH OAKLAND SHELTER- HOUSING THE HOMELESS, JUNE 23-30

We opened our doors to provide a safe home for 34 guests during the week. We had 9 children ranging in age from 1-14. One of our guests had a service dog that also spent the week with us. We plan for months but there are always unexpected needs. We adjust to ensure that our guests feel welcome.

Ilana Woronoff has been volunteering in the Housing the Homeless project at Adat Shalom since she was a young child. She would come with her father and grandfather for the Men's Club barbecue dinner. Ilana continued to work at SOS through the AmeriCorps program. She has devoted countless volunteer hours working every year during our shelter week. Her recent reflections highlight the way in which we can learn from one another.

"The men, women, and children who participate in Lighthouse's rotating shelter program (SOS) are just people. They like to sleep in, they like cream and sugar in their coffee, they are people. Throughout this past week, they have included me in their SOS family, they learned my name, and had patience with me as I learned their names. We worked together on a puzzle, we experienced the fun of magic, we learned that pancakes warm up surprisingly well in the toaster oven. Whenever you have the opportunity to get to know someone different from you, take advantage of it!"

It takes many people to make this week run smoothly. Thank you to everyone who volunteered to make breakfasts and lunches, drive in the morning to ensure that clients got to work on time, carried mattresses, did laundry, and visited at dinner with our guests. Without each piece of the puzzle we could not have successfully completed our work.

Overnight Shomers: Ilana Woronoff, Michael Hepner, Rabbi Shere, Reuben Rickman, Alan Gallatin, Charmley Levine, Jeff Supowit, Marcia Garland, Dennis Phillips, Charlotte Dubin, Alan Yost, Debbie & Steve Portney.

Community Supporters: Neal Zalenko, Ron Charfoos, Nino Salvaggio, Johnny Pomodoro's, Meijer, Busch's, Sam's Club, Better Maid Snack Foods, Awrey Bakery, Robert & Joan Chernoff Epstein, Fred Lenter, Bake Station, Harvard Row Kosher Meats, Marcia Schneyer, Sue & Lee Lutz, Andrea Rogoff, and Domino's Pizza.

Dinner Sponsors: Andrew Pass, Sisterhood, Amy Goldfaden & Larry Eilender, Men's Club, Otis and Betman families, and Alan Gallatin.

And of course we couldn't do it without...Sam Lahr, Dontaye Brown, Marvin Brown, Rabbi Bergman, Hazzan Gross, Rabbi Shere, Alan Yost, Jodi Gross, the Youth Volunteers, and Melissa Ser.

Your time and financial support ensure that we can continue to make this commitment to our community. Your support of The Hillel Isaac Maisel and Rachel Maisel Housing the Homeless Fund throughout the year is greatly appreciated.

Sisterhood

On behalf of Sisterhood leadership and the donor committee, we would like to thank the volunteers and committee members who worked so hard on our Donor Day program this year and all of you who attended and supported us with your purchases from the wonderful vendors.

On May 8, the second annual Women's Wellness Program was held at Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital. It was a collaboration between the Sisterhood of Adat Shalom and Adult Learning, Hadassah Greater Detroit and Henry Ford Hospital. The topic was about gaining insight into the cause of headaches and learning strategies for overall good health. It was an extremely informative evening which also featured a cooking demonstration and yoga techniques for reducing stress. There was a delicious lite vegetarian dinner and everyone left with some great recipes. We look forward to next year and future collaborations with Hadassah.

Going forward, we will be calling our Sisterhood meetings SIM (Sisterhood Informational Meetings). The opening meeting is on Sunday, September 15, 2019 at 9:30 A.M. It is important that Sisterhood members attend as we will be discussing many issues including our future involvement with Women's League, the life membership situation, the future direction of Sisterhood and the development of a board.

The 2019-2020 Fall Membership drive is starting and we are requesting that Life Members contribute annually a minimum of $18 to help defray the rising costs of the Sisterhood Kiddush Program.

Enjoy the summer. We look forward to seeing you at our opening meeting!

MEN'S CLUB

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS... BY JOEY LEBOVIC

Who joins the Men's Club? Many can state specific reasons they joined, but my explanation is that most members participate to help enable a key Men's Club objective: bringing "religious, cultural, social, educational, charitable and recreational activities and programs" that help make Judaism more meaningful to our congregants. Plus, it's also fun to volunteer in support of the religious school and nice to get to know fellow congregants that you see in the building.

Do you have to be a Men's Club member to attend events? Most of our events are open to any congregant, while there are a few reserved for members only. We strive for a calendar appealing to a range of cohorts. I encourage you to attend an event/program that you and your friends are drawn to or come alone and meet people with similar interests.

Can anyone co-chair an event? Absolutely. I recommend you co-chair any event that is meaningful to you. Your ideas and active participation in planning are key to the successful execution of the programs you want our Men's Club to provide.

When is the Steak & Sports Night Dinner with a speaker? This popular program is on Wednesday, September 18. Please watch for the flyer for details.

As always, feel free to contact me at jlebovic@ameritech.net with any questions. I look forward to meeting you at one of our upcoming events.

Adat Shalom Syngagogue: A Welcoming Community Nurturing the Jewish Soul for Generations to Come

By Jackie Issner, PhD

My husband and I both grew up at Adat Shalom, and we are proudly raising our boys here, a place that feels like home to each of us. We feel grateful that we belong to this welcoming and loving community. Micah, our 5 ½ year old son, confidently walks these halls like he owns the place, because his comfort level with the staff, Rabbi Bergman, Rabbi Shere, Hazzan Gross, and members has always been high. He and our younger son, Hudson, have been coming to synagogue consistently since their brises, and Micah told me recently that he loves coming to services (especially with his nana and papa). My boys have loved Parent-Toddler classes, Shake Rattle & Twist, PJ's & Stories, and Tot Shabbat, and I always look forward to these programs so I can spend quality time with them, see their smiles, nurture their Jewish identities, connect with other parents, and fill my own soul. We sing several of Hazz'n Dan's songs before bed and make up our own versions to the songs, too. Through family volunteer opportunities such as Housing the Homeless, my husband and I have been able to teach our sons the concept of Tikkun Olam; I see their hearts open so fully when showing kindness to others, and I often tell my boys they are becoming "the menschiest mensches."

Personally, I have deepened my connection to Adat Shalom and Judaism as I continue to become more and more involved. I have been on the Adat Shalom board for 7 years, and I recently represented our synagogue as an OnBoard fellow in a leadership development program. Through my time on the board and as a fellow, I have been able to appreciate all the strengths within our synagogue, and I'm thrilled by the openness of the staff and clergy to adapt to the changing needs and desires of our unique generation. If you have an idea, pitch it, and let's work together to make it happen! For example, when I joined the board, I inquired about the feasibility of doing yoga at synagogue. Almost immediately, Rabbi Rachel Shere and yoga instructor Mindy Eisenberg created Soulful Yoga, an incredibly meaningful and spiritual Shabbat morning experience that nurtures the mind, body, and soul. Through Soulful Yoga, I have become part of an intimate community where I feel understood, inspired, comforted, and motivated. I treasure my special relationship with Rabbi Shere; I look for any opportunity to connect with her, learn from her, and develop relevant programming together. Speaking of collaborative programming - Stay tuned for monthly Sunday morning parenting programs infused with Jewish learning.

I want to wrap up with a Hebrew folk song that I learned about while I was in Israel with my OnBoard cohort this past February. "We have come to the land to build and be rebuilt in it (i.e., When you build, you are built)." Engagement is transformative; the more you engage in meaningful experiences, give of yourself, and connect with others, the more you are changed in beautifully unexpected ways.

THE LEARNING COMMUNITY

JEWISH FAMILY EDUCATION

Family Education programs are endowed in memory of Jeanette & Oscar Cook

Thank you to everyone who joined us at the Detroit Zoo last month for Shabbat. It was a wonderful celebration of all of God's creations as we marked Shabbat with friends, song, and the sounds of nature all around us! While we will be taking Shabbat on the road from time to time, we look forward to celebrating with you at Adat Shalom throughout the year.

We aren't ready to say goodbye to summer just yet. Friday, August 16, Shabbat in the Sun will be celebrated at Adat Shalom. Rabbi Rachel and Hazz'n Dan will lead us in story, prayer, and song as we welcome Shabbat on the Adat Shalom playground. I hope that you will be able to join us.

Our Adat Shalom Beth Achim Learning Community classes resume on Sunday, September 8. On Sunday, September 15, I will be leading a family program for all of those enrolled in our Pre-Kindergarten class. School begins at 9:00 a.m. and then we will all come together for a hands-on learning experience at 10:30 a.m.

If you have a child age 3-4 who is not currently registered, please join us. This is a great opportunity to explore our program and see if your child might enjoy a few hours of fun, Jewish learning and playing each week. We look forward to a year full of strength and knowledge.

L'Shalom,

Debi

LEARNING COMMUNITY NEWS

Mandel Teacher Educator Institute

Over the past two years, I have been honored to learn with 39 other educators at the Mandel Teacher Educator Institute (MTEI). As a graduate of the 8th cohort of this incredible program, I have logged a total of 24 full days (that's the equivalent of a camp session!) learning, laughing, dreaming, and growing as an educator and leader. This has been an incredible professional development opportunity, and I'm excited about sharing new ideas and strategies with the Adat Shalom faculty, our students, and my colleagues in the community. I am grateful to Adat Shalom for supporting me as I participated in this program, and I look forward to continuing to work with my colleagues and mentors through MTEI Alumni programming, and to putting theories into practice here at home.

Back to School Update!

It's August, and that means books are being ordered, classrooms are being organized, and pencils are being sharpened! All we are missing is you and your children! It is quiet in the halls before school begins, but this is actually our busiest time of the year. It's when we can plan amazing family education programs, develop curricula for special programs like our Better Together program, and making sure that all of our students are registered for classes! There is so much information on adatshalom.org/education -- and if you'd like to schedule a time to speak or meet with me, please let me know.

Classes begin the week of September 8

In June I attended the Center for Israel Education's (CIE) Workshop in Atlanta, GA with 80 Jewish educators. Throughout the five-day conference I learned from experts about the past, present, and future of Israel. I also had the opportunity to work with a coach and a cohort of educators and directors of supplemental religious school programs. In these meetings we discussed and planned how to incorporate the intricate history and vibrant culture into our classrooms.

I am excited to begin to incorporate the CIE curriculum with the upper grades (5-7). We will explore topics about the Zionist history, the people and places that make Israel unique, the Jewish state, and more. The learning will be guided and end with hands-on and exciting projects for the students to work on throughout the year. Learning about and feeling connected to Israel is critical for our students and will ultimately help keep our students engaged and active in their education as they mature to adults.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

The Teen Volunteer Corps (TVC) make a difference at Adat Shalom and out in our community.

On Memorial Day, teen volunteers, under the direction of Jodi Gross and Steve Hagerty placed American flags on the graves of our veterans interred at Adat Shalom Memorial Park Cemetery. We thank them for their commitment and dedication in honoring their memory.

TVC volunteered to set up for our guests from the South Oakland Shelter in June.

Adat Shalom Israel Bonds Drive

First Day of Rosh Hashanah
Monday, September 30

Adat Shalom members have always felt a strong commitment to partner with Israel in the development of the land that represents both our heritage and our future. Once again, we strongly urge you to support the State of Israel by investing in Israel through Israel Bonds. Your investment will help ensure that Israel's economy continues to grow despite the multitude of threats facing her in the region and internationally.

Please make your selection on the tab card enclosed in your Israel Bonds mailing and bring it with you when you attend services on Rosh Hashanah Day 1, or return it in the envelope provided. Duplicate cards will be available in the synagogue lobby preceding services.

2019 Yom Kippur Appeal

Continuing Our Investment in the Future of Adat Shalom Synagogue

$36	$72	$180	$250	$360	$500	$1000	$1800	$3600	Other - Please contact me

I (we) pledge to Adat Shalom Synagogue's Yom Kippur Appeal the amount indicated by the tab folded above.

Rabbi Jacob E. Segal z"l and Cantor Larry Vieder z"l identified the synagogue as the home of the Jewish people. Proudly, Adat Shalom is our home.

Adat Shalom's accomplishments reflect, in large part, your investment in the welfare and growth of that "home". As a result of your generosity in recent years, we have been able to replace the chairs in the Social Hall, install environmentally sound LED lighting throughout the building, resurface and replace driveways, parking lots and concrete walkways, make improvements to the decorative, acoustical wall paneling in the Main Sanctuary, and in August we will install a new sound system. During the course of our 75th anniversary year, we replaced all the original heating and cooling equipment and completed an energy efficiency envelope project to assure significant utility cost savings.

This year, we once again ask you to do a special mitzvah on behalf of Adat Shalom. The cost of these necessary infrastructure replacements from the original 1972 equipment was in excess of $1.5 million, which primarily came from our unrestricted endowment funds. It is imperative that we regrow the endowment funds to assure ongoing interest growth that will ensure we have a balanced operating budget each fiscal year.

All members will receive a Yom Kippur Appeal tab card in the mail. Please remember to bring it with you when you come to services on Yom Kippur Day, Wednesday, October 9. We strongly encourage you to be part of guaranteeing our future by making a meaningful monetary contribution toward this year's Yom Kippur Appeal.

Purchase of Lulav and Etrog

If you would like to purchase a lulav and etrog through the Synagogue, please contact Denise Gallagher, 248.851.5100, ext 221 to place your order. The fee is $45.

RABBI SHERE (continued from page 3)

We deliberately picked the date of the screening, August 15, because it is the Jewish holiday of Tu B'Av (the 15th of Av). Tu B'Av is a day that celebrates love and is often called the "Jewish Valentine's Day." Many women who have been victims to human trafficking say that the traffickers initially recruited them with a perverse seduction that often happened right under the eyes of parents, teachers and friends.

Edee Franklin is a Jewish woman and founder of Sanctum House, the first long-term recovery program and safe home in Michigan for victims of human trafficking. Upon opening Sanctum House in 2018, Edee said, "It's in my DNA. As Jews, do we still not carry the scars of slavery from all those generations ago? I've learned through my Jewish heritage and my own slavery to drug addiction that no one should be a slave to anything or anyone."

This Tu B'Av, I encourage you to attend the screening of the film "Ring of Silence" and join us in conversation about how we can work to put an end to human trafficking in our state and in our country. This is surely one very important step we can all take to work toward a world where all God's children are afforded the opportunity to live lives of dignity, purpose and love.

For more information about the screening of "Ring of Silence," please see page 5.

They were both memorable experiences, where we explored the countries' rich histories and cultures. Our trip to Italy will not disappoint. The icing on the mission's cake is that throughout the trip we will have riveting lectures by Stephen Berk, Professor of Holocaust and Jewish studies at Union College in New York. Just his presentations alone are worth the price of the trip! I am so excited to experience Italy with my cantorial colleagues and I hope that you will consider joining us. For more information, including pricing, a full itinerary and pre/post tour options, please visit <https://secure.ayelet.com/CA2020Italy.aspx>

Join Hazzan Daniel Gross & the Cantors Assembly for A Jewish Musical Journey through

ITALY Rome | Florence | Venice
June 22 — July 2, 2020

For over two thousand years, Jewish communities have existed in Italy. Our ancestors settled here during the pre-Christian Roman era and, through periods of prosperity and times of persecution, have held a continuous presence until today. We'll explore these roots and routes – historic, religious and, of course, musical! Join us as we sing, study, sightsee and celebrate together in inviting, intriguing Italy.

On our adventure together we will...

- Delight in Jewish Music with an operatic Italian flare, featuring the soaring voices of the Cantors Assembly.
- Explore Italian history through a Jewish prism, with scholarly presentations by noted scholar Prof. Stephen Berk throughout.
- Enjoy a gondola ride through Venice, visit Rome's old Jewish Ghetto in the Trastevere area, tour the gorgeous Duomo of Florence...and so much more!
