FROM THE PRESIDENT,
SANFORD VIEDER
A NEW YEAR – NEW CHALLENGES

As we approach the Yamim Noraim, it represents an opportunity for all of us as Jews to evaluate what we have endured, accomplished and lost in the last year, while perhaps formulating personal plans for the coming year. It is always amazing to me how our summer months fly by all too quickly. I hope that all of you had a very pleasant summer with great memories and some quality time to relax with friends and family.

Preparations for the High Holidays at Adat Shalom are in full gear. Our clergy are hard at work to ensure that all of our holiday offerings are not only complete but meaningful. The choirs are rehearsing in preparation, maintenance staff are busy sparkling things up and our magnificent synagogue building is undergoing final completion of the new Rosen & Wiener Family Pavilion in addition to completion of the final energy efficiency updates.

If you have not recently attended the concluding services for Yom Kippur, I hope you will make every effort to return to Adat Shalom for that incredibly meaningful service, which offers you the opportunity to approach the Aron Kodesh with your family members for personal prayers, thoughts and wishes. It is truly one of the best religious services of the year. I look forward to greeting all of you personally over the holidays and certainly at the Aron Kodesh during our Ne'ilah service at the conclusion of Yom Kippur!

On behalf of the entire Vieder Family, we wish you a very happy, healthy and prosperous Jewish New Year ahead.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS
SELICHOT

Summer has gone by in a blaze of glory and it's hard to believe it's September already. The fall season is emblematic of change. The weather slowly turns, the foliage undergoes a beautiful metamorphosis, students begin a new year of school, and last but not least, the High Holidays are upon us with the Jewish New Year. A dominant theme of the High Holidays is forgiveness. It is such an essential aspect of this time of year that there is an entire service called "Selichot" devoted to it. Selichot falls on the Saturday night which precedes Rosh Hashanah. (Note that on years like this one when the first day of Rosh Hashanah falls on a Monday or Tuesday, Selichot is then held on the Saturday night prior to the one immediately preceding Rosh Hashanah.) Selichot literally translates to "forgivenesses" but the term refers to any prayers of repentance. Selichot prayers also focus on God's benevolence and compassion, and include the well-known prayer referred to as The Thirteen Attributes ("Adonai, Adonai, El rachum v'chanun..."). The collective Selichot prayers mirror the content found on Yom Kippur. Therefore, the theme of forgiveness functions as bookends of the High Holiday season.

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

There is a wonderful thing that used to be very helpful in relationships and politics, something that allowed people to speak to each without humiliating or insulting the other. That thing, which appears to be long gone, is a filter.

I have never seen people so unfiltered in their conversations. Instead of saying, "I don't agree" they go straight to hate and anger. Politicians are the worst at this. It has been a long time since our leaders have encouraged us to hate other people.

Unfortunately, I see this angry and abusive language in so many family and friend relationships, too. It is getting so bad that some people say that we should not listen to what a person says, but only look to what they do.

I think this is a dangerous approach, and one that Jewish tradition has never accepted. Words matter. If they didn't, why bother praying, why say blessings, why tell our stories? They have power. A leader's hateful words can create fear and terror in vulnerable populations. A parent's words of rejection to a child can create a lifetime of pain and separation.

In Jewish tradition, humiliating and denigrating people is considered a form of bloodshed. We are all created in God's image. Hateful and racist speech desecrates God's image and insults God, no matter who says them.

FROM RABBI RACHEL SHERE
FROM LIGHT TO LIGHT

Over the summer, fifty educators from around the state of Michigan and the Midwest came to Adat Shalom as part of a program hosted by the Holocaust Memorial Center. The educators who attended this seminar came from communities without much of a Jewish population. Because Michigan legislation, since 2016, has mandated Holocaust education in all public schools, these educators were concerned that many of their students' first exposure to Judaism would be pictures of tattooed Jews behind barbed wire. This seminar, sponsored by The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights (TOLI), is built around teaching about the Holocaust through the lens of educating about Judaism as a whole. It is important to TOLI that the week of learning both begin and end "with light." This is why the educational seminar began and concluded at Adat Shalom, where the teachers learned and saw firsthand the way Jewish communities thrived before the Holocaust and continue to thrive today.

I was honored to meet with these educators on both visits. The meetings with them were informed by an extraordinary memoir I recently read by Holocaust survivor and acclaimed psychologist Dr. Edith Eger, entitled The Choice: Embrace the Possible. In this bestselling memoir, written at the age of ninety, Dr. Eger says, "We have the possibility within us to find meaning in suffering and turn it into an opportunity to discover within us something that we never thought was possible. I have no time to hate because if I would hate, I would still be a prisoner. When we seek revenge, even non-violent revenge, we are revolving, not evolving."

Adat Shalom Israel Bonds Drive

First Day of Rosh Hashanah
Monday, September 30

Adat Shalom members have always felt a strong commitment to partner with Israel in the development of the land that represents both our heritage and our future. Once again, we strongly urge you to support the State of Israel by investing in Israel through Israel Bonds. Your investment will help ensure that Israel's economy continues to grow despite the multitude of threats facing her in the region and internationally.

Please make your selection on the tab card enclosed in your Israel Bonds mailing and bring it with you when you attend services on Rosh Hashanah Day 1, or return it in the envelope provided. Duplicate cards will be available in the synagogue lobby preceding services.

Continuing Our Investment in the Future of Adat Shalom Synagogue

$36	$72	$180	$250	$360	$500	$1000	$1800	$3600	Other - Please contact me
I (we) pledge to Adat Shalom Synagogue's Yom Kippur Appeal the amount indicated by the tab folded above.

Rabbi Jacob E. Segal z"l and Cantor Larry Vieder z"l identified the synagogue as the home of the Jewish people. Proudly, Adat Shalom is our home.

Adat Shalom's accomplishments reflect, in large part, your investment in the welfare and growth of that "home". As a result of your generosity in recent years, we have been able to replace the chairs in the Social Hall, install environmentally sound LED lighting throughout the building, resurface and replace driveways, parking lots and concrete walkways, make improvements to the decorative, acoustical wall paneling in the Main Sanctuary, and in August we will install a new sound system. During the course of our 75th anniversary year, we replaced all the original heating and cooling equipment and completed an energy efficiency envelope project to assure significant utility cost savings.

This year, we once again ask you to do a special mitzvah on behalf of Adat Shalom. The cost of these necessary infrastructure replacements from the original 1972 equipment was in excess of $1.5 million, which primarily came from our unrestricted endowment funds. It is imperative that we regrow the endowment funds to assure ongoing interest growth that will ensure we have a balanced operating budget each fiscal year.

All members will receive a Yom Kippur Appeal tab card in the mail. Please remember to bring it with you when you come to services on Yom Kippur Day, Wednesday, October 9. We strongly encourage you to be part of guaranteeing our future by making a meaningful monetary contribution toward this year's Yom Kippur Appeal.

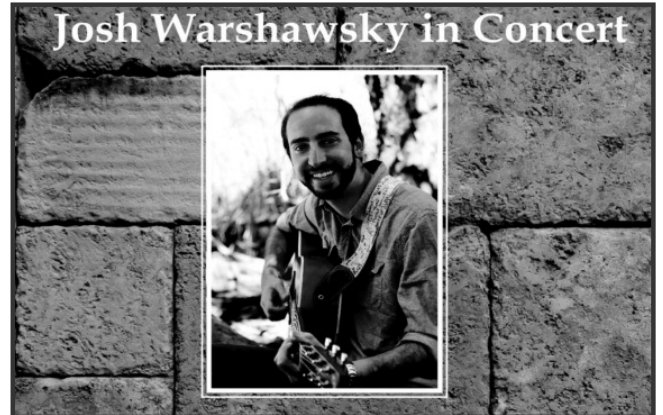

Purchase of Lulav and Etrog

If you would like to purchase a lulav and etrog through the Synagogue, please contact Denise Gallagher, 248.851.5100, ext 221 to place your order. The fee is $45.

Family Education programs

of Jeanette & Oscar Cook

What do you get when you mix seeds, ice cream, and love? You get a Grand Playdate. At the end of July, we partnered with PJ Library for the Grand Playdate celebrating PJ Library's 13th year in Michigan. Grandparents and guests brought their little ones to Sweet Spots for an early ice cream treat and a picture with a princess and superhero. They received gifts and planted seeds to remember the importance of strong roots and passing our traditions from generation to generation. To receive more information on PJ Library, or to register, please go to pjlibrary.org.

Working together with other congregations and agencies in our community is an ongoing interest of ours at Adat Shalom in many departments. We look forward to more partnership and intergenerational opportunities in the coming year.

We are pleased to welcome Israeli Shinshinim to Adat Shalom this year! The Shinshinim Young Ambassadors Program brings recent high school graduates from Israel to our community. Young, fun, engaging representatives of Israel, the Shinshinim are here to bring Israel into our lives through programs, activities, and lectures throughout our educational programs. We will get a glimpse into what it means to grow up in Israel by learning about youth movements, current events, Israeli music, Hebrew slang, shared society in our region in Israel, how the Shinshinim's friends and families celebrate the holidays, and much more. When they return home to begin service with the Israel Defense Forces, Shinshinim carry a deeper understanding of global Jewish peoplehood and what it means to be part of the Jewish community outside of Israel. Shinshinim (or Shin-Shin in the singular form) is a Hebrew acronym for Shnat Sherut, meaning "year of service."

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

Teens Make a Big Impact

In August, our teens had an amazing opportunity to volunteer at Youth United Interfaith Service Camp to help C.A.R.E.S community center in Farmington Hills. The mission of C.A.R.E.S. is to offer comprehensive support services for individuals and their families in and around the Farmington Hills area that are in need or have limited access to everyday necessities due to insufficient financial resources or family instability. C.A.R.E.S. offers needed support in the areas of food, clothing, job education and training as well as access to other community and county support services – all on one campus.

Our teens joined 130 other 6th to 12th graders and adult volunteers from churches and mosques in the area. The teens loved spending the week cleaning and painting fences, cleaning out old buildings, creating original pieces of art, building beds for a community garden and constructing and painting a new produce cart that will eventually be used to sell produce grown at C.A.R.E.S. Jessica Goldberg and Elijah Appelman, both seniors in high school, Sammi Shapiro and I represented Adat Shalom on the Youth United planning committee. Melissa Ser, Sammi Shapiro and I had the pleasure of working with professionals and volunteers from other communities of faith to implement and lead along with teen leaders throughout Youth United. We look forward to continuing the relationship with our neighbors and new friends.

College Connections: Our Rabbis visit Michigan universities throughout the school year, treat students to coffee or dinner and enjoy the opportunity to stay connected. Thanks to parent volunteers, Adat Shalom also sends care packages before Chanukah and Pesach. Help us help your child stay connected to Adat Shalom.

Each fall I update our database and kindly request your assistance. Please complete the tear off below or email the information on it to me at jgross@adatshalom.org. If your student/young adult has not moved, please let me know. Thanks!

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 5:00 - 7:00 P.M.

We will be preparing and serving dinner at the Ronald McDonald House located in the Detroit Medical Center. This home-made meal will be a comfort to the families whose children are hospitalized in the area. It provides all the comforts of home when these families need it the most. This is an activity for the whole family. Contact me if you can help.

The Detroit location was the 11th house and opened in 1979. There are now more than 300 Ronald McDonald Houses around the world.

YAD EZRA KOL NIDRE FOOD DRIVE

The annual Yad Ezra food drive is Tuesday evening, October 8, 2019. A truck will be parked outside of the main entrance for drop-off food donations. In addition, in the synagogue lobby there will be a place for your monetary donations.

Yad Ezra opened its doors in 1990 with the purpose of providing kosher food to needy families. Initially this was 250 families, however, this number has since grown to 1300 families. Yad Ezra distributes 1,100,000 pounds of food annually. Most importantly, they treat their clients with dignity, respect and compassion. Let's continue to support their efforts.

As you look into your heart as the New Year begins may you discover a new sense of possibility, a new belief in the gifts you have to share, a new connection to the people around you, and a renewed commitment to your faith and your dreams. L'Shanah tovah tikateivu v'teichateimu. May you be inscribed and sealed for a good year.

To Your Good Health

What happens if you, a family member or friend is back from the hospital and no one is up to preparing a Shabbat dinner?

Why, of course, you call upon Adat Shalom's best chefs to help out! Our volunteers are terrific at that. In July and August, for example, meals were provided by Marcia Garland, Nancy Handelman, Charmley Levine, Rena Tepman and Sarah Waldshan.

To arrange for a get-well meal, call the synagogue office at 248.851.5100. They'll pass it on or put you in direct touch, whichever you prefer.

Got Computer Tzures?

Don't despair! Adat Shalom's amazing teen troubleshooters will be on duty once again, Sunday, October 27 from 12:30 till 2 P.M.

These teens are smart and they're patient, so prepare to join them for lunch ($5 per person if you'd like to dine) and enjoy the free tutorial for whatever ails you and your iPhone.

You'll get a flyer in the mail, but save the date now. It's the best deal in town!

Sisterhood

Think About Becoming a Member of Sisterhood

With summer winding down and the fall season approaching, we are all preparing to usher in the Jewish New Year. The Sisterhood of Adat Shalom has started planning events for our New Year, the upcoming 2019-2020 calendar year.

We mailed our tri-fold brochure in the early part of August to all of the women of our congregation as our way to kick-start our Membership Drive. This brochure highlights upcoming programs, events, activities, and clubs, which Sisterhood takes an active role in sponsoring. It also contains information about how to become a Sisterhood member, the membership form, and the dues tier.

If you have not already done so, please take a moment to consider becoming a Sisterhood member. There is something for all ages and interests planned throughout the year. We are the HEART of Adat Shalom and need all your support. If you have mailed in your Membership form, on behalf of your Co-Leadership Team, we thank you.

For more information about Sisterhood, please call or email Judy Rudy at 248.701.1832 or judy.rudy@att.net.

On behalf of the Sisterhood of Adat Shalom Co-Leadership team, we wish you and yours a very Healthy and Happy New Year. May we all be inscribed in the Book of Life!

2019-2020 Opening Sisterhood Informational Meeting

As they say in sports, we have made it through our Rookie Year! We now have a better idea of what it takes to make the Sisterhood of Adat Shalom the HEART of our Synagogue. It takes teamwork, membership volunteers devoting time and effort, hours of planning and implementation, and financial support.

The key component that makes all of this work is COMMUNICATION! We are planning four Sisterhood Informational Meetings, now referred to by the acronym SIM, for the 2019-2020 calendar year.

Our first meeting will be SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2019 at 9:30 A.M. at the Synagogue. Bagels and coffee will be served. It is imperative that Sisterhood members plan to attend.

Four major issues requiring discussion are:

- ~ Selecting/Volunteering for a Committee Chairperson Position
- ~ Selecting a Board of Directors
- ~ Whether we financially continue our affiliation with Women's League For Conservative Judaism
- ~ Kiddush Funding

We need to hear from our membership! We need you at this meeting! These are issues which need to be addressed by all of us since they affect our role as a Synagogue affiliate.

Please RSVP to Judy Rudy at 248.701.1832 or email judy.rudy@att.net.

We thank each and every one of you for your support to Sisterhood during our 75 years of existence!

Sisterhood of Adat Shalom Roster Information

MEN'S CLUB

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS... BY JOEY LEBOVIC

The Executive Committee (EC) of the Men's Club meets about 8 times per year to "conduct business" – that includes formulating policies and assisting the President in Men's Club operations/planning. The Board of Trustees (BOT) is composed of the EC and up to 20 elected or appointed members. The BOT meets 6 times per year to vote on items related to the management of the Men's Club. I really appreciate the brainpower each EC/BOT member expends to help improve our club in support of Adat Shalom and thank them all for their efforts. Please join either team if you are supportive of maintaining a strong club.

I want to highlight several new/revised events on the 2019-20 calendar based on EC/BOT and membership feedback. Details will be posted in the near future:

- ~ Veteran's Brunch (a continued local Men's Clubs event)
– November 10
- ~ Men's Shabbat Retreat with Rabbi Bergman – January 11
- ~ Hangin' with Hazz'n Gross – March 18
- ~ Father & Sons Event in April

In June the BOT voted to end our affiliation with FJMC (Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs) and focus more resources on local events. We will still participate in their Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle program.

As always, feel free to contact me at jlebovic@ameritech.net with any questions. I look forward to meeting you at one of our events.

Jewish War Veterans of the USA
Department of Michigan

A Jewish Voice for Veterans, a Veteran's Voice for Jews
www.jwv-mi.org

Dear Veteran,

When you served your country as a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, you joined the many members of our faith who have protected this Nation, beginning with the American War of Independence through the Global War on Terrorism. It is our military version of L'dor V'dor - from one generation to the next. For that service, regardless of where, when or for how long, I thank you and our Nation thanks you.

Remarkably, the general community is largely unaware of our long and distinguished service to this Nation. The Jewish War Veterans (JWV), America's oldest Veteran Service Organization, chartered by Congress in 1896, was specifically formed to counter the "Big Lie" that Jews did not fight to preserve our Nation. JWV exists to educate everyone about our special contributions as Veterans and combat the re-telling of that lie and other anti-Semitic tropes, to advocate for the needs of all Veterans, and to strengthen and celebrate the ties that bind all service members and their community.

Membership in the Jewish War Veterans is not restricted to wartime service in combat. It is open to almost all Jewish members of the Armed Forces honorably serving or discharged, whether in combat or not. A form of membership is also available to family members and friends who wish to make a difference in our community and ensure that no Veteran or Veteran's family member is forgotten. With membership comes an opportunity not only for fellowship and camaraderie, but also for continued good work through educational, service, and volunteer activities in the greater Detroit area, throughout the state of Michigan, and nationally.

If you are already a member, thank you, not only for your service, but also for your commitment to the organization. Please ask your fellow Veterans to join you at the next Department or Post event. Feel free to share with him or her your copy of The Jewish Veteran, to learn more.

If you are not yet a member, please contact us by email (membership@jwv-mi.org), telephone (248-855-5085), or visit our website (www.jwv-mi.org). Better yet, come pay us a visit at one of our monthly meetings (3rd Sunday of each month, 10am at Temple Shir Shalom).

Sincerely,

Dr. Edward H. Hirsch
Colonel, US Army Special Forces (Retired)
Commander, Jewish War Veterans of the USA, Department of Michigan

HAZZAN GROSS

Adat Shalom and our partnering Metro Detroit congregations will gather together at Congregation Beth Ahm for a community Selichot service on Saturday evening, September 21. Prior to the service, there will be a musical program featuring a special guest, Rabbi Josh Warshawsky. I encourage you not to miss this evening as I am a big fan of Rabbi Josh and his music!

May you find great meaning in the special prayers of this most sacred time of year. My best wishes for a happy and healthy 5780. L'shanah tovah!

RABBI SHERE

When educators incorporate voices such as Dr. Eger's into their teaching about the Holocaust as a whole, students have the opportunity to apply what they learn to the challenges inherent in today's world. As Jews, one lesson we are always working to teach the world is Vayehi erev vayehi boker – After night comes day (Genesis 1:5). After darkness comes light; we will never allow evil to have the final word.

COMPLIMENTARY ADAT SHALOM MEMBERSHIPS

Did you know that all adults under the age of 30 are welcome to a complimentary Adat Shalom membership?

After the age of 30, until age 35, there is a reduced rate. This is a great opportunity for your children and their friends living in the metropolitan Detroit area to be a part of the Adat Shalom family.

All you need to do is let us know their name(s) and address.

Your synagogue is eager to have your children as members.

From Michael Wolf

Director of Spirituality and Outreach

Rosh Chodesh Elul falls on August 31 and September 1 (whenever there are 30 days in a Hebrew month, we observe Rosh Chodesh for two days). Elul is the 6th Hebrew month, the month that precedes the High Holy days. Some say that the Hebrew letters that comprise the word Elul – aleph, lamed, vav, lamed – are an acronym for "Ani l'dodi v'dodi li," a verse from Song of Songs that means "I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine." Most often interpreted as love poetry between two people, the phrase also reflects the love between God and the Jewish people, especially at this season, as we assess our actions and behaviors during the past year and hope for blessings in the coming year.

Several customs during the month of Elul are designed to remind us of the liturgical season and help us prepare ourselves and our souls for the upcoming High Holidays.

1. Blowing the shofar

Traditionally, the shofar is blown each morning (except on Shabbat) from the first day of Elul until the day before Rosh HaShanah. The sound is intended to awaken the soul and kick start the spiritual accounting that happens throughout the month.

2. Reading Psalm 27

It is customary to read Psalm 27 each day from the beginning of Elul through Hoshana Rabbah, which is the last day of Sukkot.

3. Visiting loved ones' graves

Elul is also a time of year during which Jews traditionally visit the graves of loved ones. This custom not only reminds us of the individuals on whose shoulders we now stand and helps us honor their memories, but also prompts us to think about our own lives and the legacies we will leave to others – kind words spoken, comfort offered, love given and received – which take on added meaning as we enter the High Holiday season.

4. Reflecting

It also is a month during which we are encouraged to study and take time for personal reflection around our actions of the past year and to seek forgiveness from those we have wronged or with whom we otherwise have "missed the mark" in our interactions and behaviors.

This is why most of the sins that are mentioned during the High Holidays have to do with the way we use our words. Very few of them are other actions. Our sages understood that the most dangerous part of the human body was the tongue, that is why God put it in an enclosure.

People will always find things to disagree on. No matter what issue seems to be the most important today, something new will emerge tomorrow. The question is whether we want to be able to maintain the relationships we say we value. We need leaders whose words bring out what is best and most noble within us. We need to find the words to make our friends and family feel valued even when we differ.

Our words need to bring sweetness to the world, like the apples and honey of Rosh Hashanah, and not feelings of discomfort, like the fast of Yom Kippur.

May we create a new year of sweetness and joy for everyone.
