FROM THE PRESIDENT,
SANFORD VIEDER
"I AM A PROUD MEMBER OF THE ADAT SHALOM COMMUNITY"

We've all chosen to be part of the Adat Shalom community. So, why make the choice to belong to a Jewish community? I think it is because we are looking for a place that is welcoming, a place where we can build meaningful relationships, a place where we are supportive of each other, a place that addresses spiritual yearnings, and a place where we can connect with Jewish tradition. We are looking for a place to call home, a community. When we become part of the community, we become part of something much larger than ourselves. It certainly has been that way for me and for my family.

Membership at a synagogue is not like membership at a country club. It is not "goods for services." We join a synagogue because we believe in supporting Jewish institutions. We join a synagogue because we care about the future of Judaism in our community. We join a synagogue because we understand its importance in standing up to anti-Semitism. We join a synagogue because we are stronger together, as a part of a special community, than we are apart or unaffiliated. We join a synagogue because it's imperative for our future generations to have this wonderful supportive community be there for them. We understand that you may decide not to come to the synagogue much during the course of the year. However, despite how often you participate, it is your

NOT ENOUGH WORDS ABOUT SHEILA LEDERMAN

I was so happy to find out that Sheila Lederman was going to be my assistant when I joined Adat Shalom in 2008. It was not just because Rabbi Nevins raved about her, or that Alan Yost raved about her, or that every person who knew her raved about her. You get the picture.

It was because I had known her and her family when I was in elementary and middle school. Of course her name then was Mrs. Lederman. Adults did not have first names. I was on the same youth league baseball team as one of her sons. She would bring snacks to the baseball games. She was involved in our school. I remember her as a person of great kindness, gentleness, elegance and calm. I never would have imagined that someday I would get to work with her, and even call her Sheila! It only took me about six months before I was comfortable calling her that. Not because of her. She was so welcoming and helpful from the beginning.

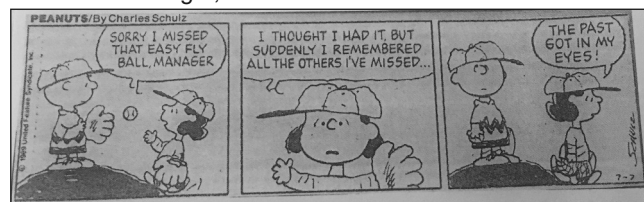

As my assistant, she had all these wonderful qualities and more. She helped so many people who were frazzled and confused, including me occasionally. She made people feel good when they were having a hard time. She solved problems that were very challenging and would have tested anyone's patience. She kept my schedule straight, which by itself would have been praiseworthy. My schedule as you can imagine is complicated. She handled everything with grace, cheerfulness and kindness. I trusted her completely.

I owe so much of my success to Sheila, and am so grateful for having been able to work with her. I wish her only many years of joy and health and happiness with her loved ones and friends in her retirement.

FROM RABBI RACHEL SHERE
BLINDED OR BUOYED BY THE PAST

I love this comic because it is a reminder that the past need not dictate the future. Perhaps cold weather makes you feel sluggish and tired. This year can be different. Perhaps last year's Thanksgiving gathering was fraught with family tension. This year can be different. Perhaps you always fall off the health and wellness wagon during the holiday time. This year can be different. When we allow yesterday's defeats and disappointments to dictate the success or failure of tomorrow, we empower inertia and restrict growth. Rabbi Nachman of Bratslav teaches that the day we are born is the day that God looks at the world and realizes that it can no longer exist without the unique constellation of promise and potential that we are loaded and coded to unleash in the world. This Thanksgiving, let us be grateful for the promise with which we were each created. Instead of blinding us, may the missteps and missed opportunities of the past sharpen our resolve to move forward with strength, resolve and vision.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS
HAZZAN GROSS & FRIENDS CONCERT

I am thrilled that on November 18 at 7:30 P.M., Adat Shalom will present a very special concert: Hazzan Gross & Friends. This concert idea has been on my bucket list ever since I arrived at Adat Shalom a decade ago. Metro Detroit has many amazing attributes, not all of which are unknown to the non-Michigan world. Included in the best of these hidden gems are the vast local music scene and the stellar musicians in our midst. While we are known for originating the Motown Sound and Techno (electronic dance music), and being home to many famous singers and musicians including Aretha Franklin, Stevie Wonder, Smokey Robinson, the Supremes, Bob Seger, and Eminem, there is also the continuing presence of world-class musicians from other musical genres.

Four local vocalists with whom I've formed wonderful friendships over the years will be featured in this concert. Each of these singers could be seen on the greatest concert hall stages anywhere, but luckily for us, they choose to make the Detroit area their home. Each of them have a different voice type: Nicole Joseph is a soprano, Julia Hoffert is a mezzo-soprano (aka alto), Jason Wickson is a tenor, and Glenn Miller is a bass. I am a baritone, so between the five of us, we cover all five major voice categories, thus allowing us to sing a variety of ensemble pieces. Accompanying us will be Kevin Bylsma, one of the most talented pianists in the Midwest. The concert will feature Broadway showstoppers, American standards, operatic arias, and more.

From Michael Wolf

Director of Spirituality and Outreach

Continuing my 5780 theme - the year of Outreach...

You've heard of fashion comebacks (ripped denim, sweatpants, choker necklaces, plaid), there are consumer products that are making comebacks (Polaroid cameras, vinyl records and turntables), athletes who make comebacks and of course witty comebacks ("I'm an acquired taste. If you don't like me, acquire some taste."). And now I'm excited to announce the comeback of Chavurot!

What is a Chavurah?

Chavurot (plural of Chavurah) are informal small groups of congregation members which meet regularly, usually once a month in each other's homes, to create bonds of friendship. Members decide how often they meet, and where and what activities take place. Chavurot are a way for members to create a small community of friends by socializing, learning, doing Mitzvot and celebrating Jewish life together. Chavurot may act as extended family with the sharing of lifecycle events and holidays and may create the beginnings of lifelong friendships. A Chavurah can take the "alone" feeling out of being a new congregation member. It can inject "new life" into being an established member. And it can put "this is where I belong" in every member's heart.

I hope you will be open to learning more about the "how to, what, when, why, and where" coming soon...

Thank you to our Adat Shalom family for supporting the Yad Ezra Yom Kippur Food Drive. Your contributions help to support this very important Jewish community service.

HOPE HOSPITALITY AND WARMING CENTER

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

The Ronald McDonald House Detroit has been serving families from Michigan, the United States, and beyond for 40 years! It is a home away from home for families while their children receive medical treatment in the Detroit area. We support their efforts by providing a delicious dinner. At dinner, Sunday, September 8, we met a mother and her two daughters from Jamaica. The mother and her daughters are all receiving medical care in the metro Detroit area. Their treatment will require them to stay in the United States for a year. How wonderful that there is a warm and nurturing home for them!

Thank you to Marcy Colton, Debbie Cohen, Debbie Portney, Amy Strauss, Marcia Garland and the Bradford family for providing and serving the delicious dinner. Watch for a date in 2020.

BLOOD DRIVE

It was a very successful blood drive Sunday, September 8, 2019. We had 50 people register and collected 55 pints of blood (39 whole and 8 doubles). Although we always stumble a little at the Red Cross "breaks", most of you were processed in under 2 hours. We hope that you were able to enjoy spending time with other Adat Shalom mensches as you patiently awaited the team to process you. I apologize for the pain, but am sure that you felt very good when you celebrated Rosh Hashanah this year, having given of yourselves and helped to heal the world. So THANK YOU for donating.

A special shout out to Phil Elkus, still donating strong at 93 years young!!! Yasher Koach Phil. Thanks to Charm Levine, Renee Lieberman, and Debbie Supowit for managing the canteen (with help from Maddie, James and Claire!). And of course, many grateful thanks to my team - Ruth Zerlin and Marcy Colton for your generosity and hard work.

A Way Into Our Synagogue History

Adat Shalom wasn't born yesterday, you know.

- Know what was going on at Adat Shalom in the '60s and '70s?
- Were you, a relative or friend of yours confirmed there in the '50s?
- Ever hear one of Rabbi Jacob Segal's sermons back in the day? Want to read one of many?

Well, wonder no more because hundreds of synagogue and member-related documents dating from 1934 to 1995 can be perused in the Jewish Community Archives Collection at the Reuther Library of Wayne State University.

The Adat Shalom collection has resided in the Archives since 1997 and is accessible at reuther.wayne.edu/node/2184. There's yet another option: Visit the Archives for yourself (M-F, 10 A.M.-4 P.M.). The Reuther Library, on the Wayne State campus, at 5401 Cass Ave., has a treasure trove of historical Jewish community material.

And if you want to talk to an expert, it's Robbie Terman, director of the Leonard N. Simons Jewish Community Archives, located at the Max M. Fisher Federation Building in Bloomfield Hills, 248.203.1491.

Robbie also leads the Friends of the Archives, which holds a number of events that help those searching for family histories. Check out the local Archives website at jewishdetroit.org/archives and enjoy the search!

And Speaking of Local History...

How about enjoying a FRIENDS virtual tour of 1940s-1960s Northwest Detroit, led by Margery Jablin 11:45 A.M. Wednesday, December 11 at Adat Shalom?

Presented in partnership with the Michigan Jewish Historical Society, the program follows the move from old Hastings Street into the more modern Northwest Detroit neighborhoods, where Jews initially faced restrictions. The growth of the area came with housing, retail shops, schools and synagogues – and with them the first and second generations of American Jews.

You're welcome to bring a pareve or dairy lunch. To reserve a seat, contact Margery at mjablin@yahoo.com, or Jodi Gross at jgross@adatshalom.org. There's no charge to attend although a donation of $5 will be welcome.

Wanna Go to the Movies?

Adat Shalom FRIENDS who love a good movie will head back to the theater on Sunday, November 10. If you'd like to join them for the next film – yet to be selected – you'll also be invited to join in the lively discussion to follow, hosted this month by Judy and David Goldis.

Announcement of their movie choice, including time and location, will be sent via email a week before the show. To add your name to the FRIENDS list, send your name(s) and email address to dlebovic@ameritech.net.

LEARNING COMMUNITY NEWS

My younger brother and I used to wake up early on Thanksgiving morning to watch children's television before the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade started. But the Thanksgiving morning I remember the most wasn't because of the floats or the giant balloons. On Thanksgiving morning 1983, Sesame Street aired the episode in which everyone learns that Mr. Hooper, the long-time grocer of the neighborhood, has died. The producers intentionally broadcast the episode on Thanksgiving morning -- in a time before VCRs and streaming -- because they knew parents would be home to sensitively discuss the topic with their children. Indeed, this episode is still one that I use today when teaching children about life and death; it strategically ends with a newborn baby joining the Sesame Street family. (You can find it on YouTube under "Sesame Street - Goodbye, Mr. Hooper").

Time Magazine notes that "When Will Lee, the actor who played store owner Mr. Hooper on the Street, died of a heart attack in December 1982, the show's producers decided not to just write him out with an easy story line. Instead, they incorporated his death into the script. In a poignant scene broadcast on Thanksgiving Day in 1983, nearly a year after Lee's death, Big Bird struggles to grasp the concept that he won't see his friend again. By treating the subject gracefully but directly, the show helped shape the way its young viewers could cope with a delicate, painful topic."

Big Bird asks, "Why does it have to be this way? Give me one good reason!" and Gordon answers, "Big Bird, it has to be this way ... just because."

The month of November begins on the 3rd of Cheshvan, my father's tenth yearzeit. This Voice article is dedicated to the memory of Mendel ben Simcha haLevi, Marvin Bernstein, "just because."

Our religious school received a grant from the Better Together program of the Legacy Heritage Foundation, allowing for 9 programs with residents at the Fleischman Residence. The students and residents paired up and will spend each program together building a relationship. Sunday, October 6, they made sukkah decorations. A "great feeling" was reported in the room!

BEING A POSITIVE JEWISH ROLE MODEL

Our Learning Community (aka Hebrew school) has an amazing cohort of teens who choose to continue being part of the Adat Shalom community on a weekly basis after their B'nai Mitzvah. Beginning in the eighth grade, teens may volunteer or work within the school as a Madrich or Madricha, a teacher or office assistant. While gaining valuable life and work skills, teens participate in regular trainings to learn how to best assist the teachers and their students. Our Madrichim are positive Jewish role models who also work with students one-on-one in Hebrew reading, help students on assignments, lead activity stations or games, and much more. Part of building community in our classrooms is showing younger students that Jewish learning and engagement continues after becoming a Bar or Bat Mitzvah -- and having teens in the classroom makes this message come alive. In addition to being part of our Madrichim program, many of these teens volunteer with the Teen Volunteer Corps, attend Nosh & Drash, go on our teen trips, and/or are enrolled in Hebrew Class with EMU.

I have the pleasure of mentoring and empowering these dedicated Madrichim: Elyssa Biederman, Ethan Biederman, Rebecca Chynoweth, Alyssa Diskin, Megan Diskin, Elijah Fox, Izzy Fox, Rose Gallatin, Ben Gamily, Zoe Golan, Jessica Goldberg, Ryan Goldberg, Elena Hirsch, Scott Katz, Amanda Kolin, Josh Kroll, Ella Lewis, Maya Lewis, Jonathan Manela, Jordan Manela, Sara Martin, Shayna Mouradian, Josh Novak, Nicole Rapp, Sasha Smolitsky, Dayna Starr, Shana Wasser, Max Weinraub, Maya Weisberger and Claire Wolfe.

COLLEGE CONNECTIONS:

Our rabbis visit Michigan universities throughout the school year, treat students to coffee or dinner and enjoy the opportunity to stay connected. Thanks to parent volunteers, Adat Shalom also sends care packages before Chanukah and Pesach. Help us help your child stay connected to Adat Shalom.

Each fall I update our database and kindly request your assistance. Please complete the tear off below or email the information on it to me at jgross@adatshalom.org. If your student/young adult has not moved, please let me know.

Sisterhood

We are so excited to announce that the Sisterhood Membership Drive has been very successful. Our roster is updated and we are working to add more members. We had our opening meeting on Sunday morning, September 15, which was well attended. We discussed our upcoming schedule, made sure chairwomen of past committees were still available to chair and had members volunteer to assist with the committees.

These committees include, but are not limited to, Kiddush, kugel ordering, making and serving on Shabbat, Knitting Circle, Book Club, the Spring Outreach luncheon, Rosh Chodesh programming, overseeing the Celia Schwartz Scholarship Fund, honey sales, flower sales and other fundraising and social programming. We will continue to provide a lovely Kiddush on every Shabbat, sponsor the Rosh Chodesh study series celebrating the new month, have more joint programming with Hadassah and the Beth Achim Learning Community and of course, continue to be at the heart of the synagogue.

There will also be some big changes. In an attempt to make Sisterhood accessible to all, we will be lowering the cost of Sisterhood for those under 40 years old from $40.00 to just $18.00 annually.

We are also adding some new programs! Tuesday, November 12 the acclaimed local author Hollie Gyarmati, author of the book The Mother of All Makeovers will be speaking at our fall event. Hollie, a mother of two sets of twins and one single all within five years, has a unique take on life and motherhood. She will offer help on finding a less is more approach, figuring out what's important, getting organized, making your own home work better for you, freeing up more time and reducing stress. We're excited to have her tell her story, give guidance and sign her book for you.

Additionally, we are looking forward to having local artist-in-residence, Gail Rosenbloom Kaplan, teach a class on hamsa making. This winter you'll have an opportunity to create your own unique hamsa with Gail's guidance. We also are beginning to plan another collaborative program with Hadassah of Greater Detroit. We can't wait to have you join us!

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS... BY JOEY LEBOVIC

The Men's Club provides members of Adat Shalom camaraderie through social, cultural, service, and educational programs. It's a great way to get involved in helping our synagogue provide the warmth and friendly atmosphere usually associated with smaller synagogues.

COMMUNITY-WIDE VETERANS DAY BRUNCH

On Sunday, November 10, at 10:00 A.M., Adat Shalom will be hosting a brunch honoring military veterans.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Rabbi Emeritus Herbert Yoskowitz is the guest speaker. He will share, "How and Why a United States Army Jewish Chaplain was Designated as Chaplain of the Year," reflecting on the positive relationships he nurtured with the Christian majority and the Jewish minority while in the service.

Chaplain Yoskowitz's success in initiating and planning a 'Christian-Jewish Dialogue Series', [in written words which accompanied the award] "promoted better understanding and good will, not only at Fort Riley, but also with the people in the civilian community."

The event is free for veterans and veterans' spouses or widow/ers of Adat Shalom, B'nai Moshe, and Beth Ahm. Brunch will follow the 8:30 A.M. morning service. Adult (non-veteran) $10, children (4-12) $5. Help the Men's Club provide spiritual kits (Prayer book, Tanach and Kippah) for Jewish servicemen. The cost of one kit is $10. Any donation is gratefully accepted. Make checks payable to: Men's Club of Adat Shalom and send to 29901 Middlebelt Road, Farmington Hills, MI 48334.

The event is co-sponsored by the Men's Clubs of Adat Shalom Synagogue, Congregation Beth Ahm and Congregation B'nai Moshe. For more information call Adat Shalom at 248.851.5100.

Chaplain (CPT) Herbert Yoskowitz receives the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service as Jewish Chaplain at Fort Riley, Kansas. Making the presentation is Chaplain (COL) Willis W. Wessman, Post Chaplain, during a ceremony held May 20, 1971 at Fort Riley, Kansas.

membership and your generous giving that is paramount to support the institution and ensure that we are represented as Jews in our community and the world. There will come a time when you really need the synagogue. Perhaps not this year, but the next. And you know what? Because you were there for Adat Shalom, Adat Shalom will be able to be there for you!

We are blessed to have you, our congregants, who have steadfastly been the backbone and the source of our Adat Shalom community. As a result of your commitment, underlying everything we do is a set of values and beliefs, a sense of connection, and a belief that Jewish continuity matters and that transmitting Judaism to the next generation is important. Like family, we're here to help each other celebrate happy times and lifecycle events. And we're also here to help and support each other in times of sorrow or tragedy.

The High Holidays are the time in which we reflect on the past year and renew our spiritual attachments. We also renew our commitments to ourselves, our families, our friends, our synagogue, and our community. Now is indeed the time to renew our commitment to Adat Shalom. What we have here is truly special – Adat Shalom provides a safe haven from the pressures of the world and a way to infuse your life with the richness of Jewish affiliation and community not found any other way.

This is your synagogue. This is your community. With your help we will be able to carry on the fine traditions that have been established by those who have come before us. Our children, grandchildren and great grandchildren are depending upon all of us to ensure the ongoing continuity, stability and community of Adat Shalom.

I am extremely grateful to the outstanding leadership of our clergy, professional staff, maintenance staff, affiliate leadership and lay leaders, who dedicate so much time and effort to making Adat Shalom one of the very best conservative congregations in the country. Our future is one of great hope and promise. Our future is bright because of all of us that come together to create our community!

There's no need to go to the Fox Theater or the Detroit Opera House in order to hear some of the greatest singers of our time. Just come to Adat Shalom on November 18 to witness extraordinary singing right here within our own beautiful sanctuary!

I encourage you to support the Hazzan Gross & Friends concert as a sponsor and avail yourself of some special perks, including premium seating and a post-concert afterglow with all of the performers.

For more information on ticket purchases and donor opportunities, see page 12 or visit adatshalom.org/hgfriends.
