FROM THE PRESIDENT,
SANFORD VIEDER
The End of Winter

This issue of the Voice will carry us from March into April, as we move from winter and hopefully into an early spring (if you believe the folklore of Punxsutawney Phil predicting an early spring this year!). The secular calendar gives many people a spring break during this time; a time often used to travel to warmer climates and relax after the cold and busy weeks of the beginning of the year. If you are traveling, I extend to you wishes for safe travels and excellent health as you get away from the daily grind. Once again, many of our Adat Shalom members will be traveling to AIPAC for the annual Policy Conference in Washington DC, March 1-3.

On the Jewish calendar we will be celebrating Purim and, soon after, Passover, two holidays that year after year have us recount both the persecution that Jews have faced and surmounted, and the joy that came from this triumph.

For Purim, please join us in the Synagogue for Megillah Mania on Sunday, March 8 to hear the amazing musician Billy Jonas and his band in concert. You'll also hear some of the Megillah and see our children and grandchildren dressed in costumes, proud to be Jews and happily celebrating a unique opportunity for raucous fun in the Sanctuary. Support the Sisterhood, do a mitzvah and bring joy to your friends and family by purchasing Misloach Manot or a new favorite grogger! The Sisterhood gift shop will once again have many great Judaic gifts to choose from at Megillah Mania with a special display set up for that event. Or bake hamantaschen in your own home (or just buy them at your favorite bakery) because they are delicious and a good excuse to eat a treat (my personal favorite is cherry).

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN
DON'T FORGET JOY

There is so much fear and sorrow in the world, so many concerns about the rising numbers of attacks on Jews and our communities, that people sometimes ask, "is it okay to still celebrate?" I would say that we have an obligation to rejoice in the good moments in our lives whenever we can. One of the most powerful things about the Jewish people has been our ability to find times of joy even during the worst of times.

The Hebrew word for happiness is simcha. This does not mean that we are happy with whatever happens in our lives, because there often are some truly challenging things that confront us. It means the capacity to rejoice in life despite what is happening. It is the sense that our lives always have meaning, and that we can always try to make things better. It means gratitude for what we have, and for the loving people in our lives.

The story of Purim is about the Jews of the Persian empire facing destruction from Haman, the evil advisor of the king, and the indifference of King Achashverosh himself. The people faced an existential challenge. They had permission to defend themselves, but no one else was actually going to help them. This is the time they said, "The Jews enjoyed light and gladness, happiness and honor."

They knew that nothing was guaranteed, but they still decided that even in that moment they were able to find something about which to rejoice. That is why the verse they chanted about light and gladness becomes part of Havdallah. You might think that we should say this at the beginning of Shabbat, the happiest day of the week, but we say it at the end to remind us to celebrate life every day that we can, even when times are tough and uncertain.

May this Purim remind us of the joy that already lives within us.

FROM RABBI RACHEL SHERE
TRAVELING WITH TEENS: ATLANTA

These words of anthropologist Margaret Mead are emblazoned outside the National Center for Civil and Human Rights: "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world."

On a Friday morning last month, nineteen Adat Shalom teenagers visited the National Center for Civil and Human Rights in Atlanta, Georgia where they experienced a simulation of a Woolworth's lunch counter protest and studied Jewish involvement in the Civil Rights Movement and in other human rights movements today.

Later that day, the teens sang Hallelujah in the lobby of a hotel, tried 72 flavors of soda at the World of Coca-Cola museum, watched dolphins play at the Georgia Aquarium, sang the familiar prayers of Kabbalat Shabbat at a Conservative synagogue in Atlanta, and then spent an hour discussing the deep friendship of Martin Luther King, Jr. and Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel.

The staff and students on the trip are deeply grateful to an anonymous Adat Shalom family who made our teen trip program a reality. In addition to all the sites and services, the teens developed deep bonds with each other, the synagogue and the clergy. Adat Shalom's future leaders are being shaped every day and I am grateful for the opportunity to help shape their journey. They are indeed "a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens," Jewish citizens, who I truly believe will one day "change the world."

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS
BILLY'S BACK!

We have a very special Purim treat this month. The Billy Jonas Band is returning to Adat Shalom for a fantastic family concert on Sunday, March 8, at 11 A.M. Billy was first here in 2016 and delighted us with his unique style, catchy melodies, and charming personality.

Billy has a repertoire of funky folk music, suitable for young and old, and catchy Jewish music with powerful, pertinent messages. What really sets Billy apart from other performers are two things — first, how he engages his audience to participate, and second, his choice of instruments. Billy is a guitarist, but he is also an industrial percussionist. He takes everyday household objects and uses them as his drum set. As examples, the bass drum is a giant rain barrel, the cymbals are pans, the snare is a bucket, the hi-hat is an Altoid tin. Billy's music has won numerous awards and you might even have heard his music on the radio, but don't miss this special opportunity to experience him live!

From Billy's website: "Throw out the rules when the Billy Jonas Band hits the stage! It's a musical conversation... a sonic celebration ... a splendiferous gathering of old and young, because at a Billy Jonas Band show, the ensemble is... everyone!" For more information, visit billyjonas.com

There are many great things about Purim! Purim lends itself easily to family togetherness. Try framing your activities around the four mitzvot of Purim:

1. Reading/listening to the Megillah (Mikra Megillah) -- The Megillah is read on March 9 in the evening (at Beth Ahm) and March 10 in the morning (at B'nai Israel).
2. A festive meal (Seudat Purim) -- host a festive meal with friends or family. Try out a fun theme or go straight for your favorite party foods. Have kids help make table decorations, or parts of the meal.

Start the party at Purim-Palooza featuring the Billy Jonas Band and stay for the carnival on Sunday, March 8 at Adat Shalom.

3. Sending Gifts (Mishloach Manot) -- work together to create gifts for your friends and neighbors. The kids can do so much of this on their own! It'd be great to really let their creativity shine.
4. Gifts to the poor (Matanot L'evyonim) -- take time together to help those less fortunate, whether it's going through the spare change and discussing as a family which organization to send the money to or setting up a time to go volunteer somewhere meaningful to your family. Better yet, why not do both?!

One really easy thing I love to do at this time of year is to host a hamantaschen-making party. I take my favorite recipe for dough, and make a ton of it, invite friends and family over (I ask that they bring either a favorite filling or creative filling), then we roll out the dough, cut out circles, fill, fold, and bake. It's so much fun to chat and laugh and try new things. This is also perfect for kids who will have a blast putting together different fillings and getting messy. These are great to eat throughout the week or to send in mishloach manot. Why not try something new?

We can help you fulfill these mitzvot. Need something great for your mishloach manot? Try filling one of our great mugs with your home-baked hamantaschen (see below). Are you looking for a great connection to another family? We can help with that too! All you need to do is contact Melissa Ser or me and we will be happy to talk with you about how we can help you feel connected and at home here.

LEARNING COMMUNITY NEWS

I recently had the opportunity to have two intense experiences back to back. First, I attended the annual Jewish Educators Assembly conference and our board meeting; I then went with a cadre of Adat Shalom teens to Atlanta to explore Social Justice and Jewish Identity.

At the JEA conference, we explored ways to implement Social Emotional Learning; I then traveled to Atlanta and did just that, with the support of my colleagues Jodi Gross, Rabbi Shere, and Michael Wolf. On Shabbat, I led a team-building game and Torah study with our teens, focusing specifically on group dynamics and social emotional learning – connected to the Exodus from Egypt.

Imagine standing at the shore of the Sea of Reeds, surrounded by other members of your community - old and young - and looking ahead into the vast expanse of water before you. Life to this point has not been easy, but you know what to expect each day. Now, though, about to cross the Sea into freedom, everything is new and uncertain. You might be both frightened and excited at the same time. You turn to the person next to you to offer some comfort, but what do you say? You don't know what's coming either, and you don't know that it will be alright.

After a deep discussion about what to say to someone else, one teen remarked: "We'll get through this together." Indeed, we don't always know what to be prepared for. We cannot always say "it's going to be alright." We can, however, get through it together.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

Thanks to a generous donor family who financially made the trip possible, the teen trip to Atlanta, Georgia was an amazing adventure. Teens learned about Israel at the Center for Israel Education, explored the World of Coca-Cola, and the National Center for Civil and Human Rights, celebrated Shabbat at B'nai Torah Congregation and most of all, they had fun together. The trip was one of the many opportunities for teens to continue to strengthen their connections to Adat Shalom, Rabbi Shere, Michael Wolf, Melissa Ser and I, as well as build a community among themselves.

The teens shared...

I love this trip so much! I had a great time here in Atlanta. I will certainly go on next year's trip and will continue to attend the trips until I can't anymore. This was the best experience I've ever had in like 6 years. Thanks so much for this special trip.

- Josh Novak, 8th grade

There are not many places that I feel comfortable embracing my Jewish spirit while feeling comfortable and having fun. I love the staff, teens, and experiences on these trips so much. I've never felt anything like the way I feel when I'm with these people.

- Amanda Kolin, 11th grade

This trip was so important and impactful for me, for many different reasons. Not only is it a fun and exciting weekend to make new friends, it also allows me to connect with my Judaism and explore new places in the country! I've been going since 8th grade and look forward to it every year!

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS... BY JOEY LEBOVIC

Based on very positive feedback from participants of our first Men's Club Retreat, this program will become an important addition to our calendar for many years. I would like to thank Rabbi Bergman, Hazzan Gross, Michael Wolf, David Shevrin, Perry Ohren, Jaron Friedman & the Adat Shalom Staff for creating such an invaluable day.

Next up on our calendar: (online registration and flyers at adatshalom.org/adat-shalom-events/)

Hangin' with the Hazz'n on March 18 will include "football bowling" at On the Dunes.

Daddy Daughter Dance on March 22 at Congregation Beth Ahm, with co-sponsorship from JFamily/PJ Library.

Father & Sons Craft Party on April 26 is another new event based on your feedback.

Adat Shalom has 2 teams in the Men's Club Softball League on Sunday mornings May through August. Our managers are working on rosters now so let them know if you want to join or be a substitute. Flyers are online.

As always, feel free to contact me at jlebovic@ameritech.net with any questions. I look forward to meeting you at one of our events.

SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION

Hope Hospitality and Warming Center, December 25-28, 2019

In December we served dinner to 60 men and women at Hope Hospitality and Warming Center in Pontiac. They were at capacity each night with a maximum of 60 guests. Although the center opens at 7 P.M., many people line up early to ensure admittance. Once the center is at capacity they cannot allow any more to spend the night. Many have spent the day outside so they are very grateful for a warm place and a hot meal. We were very lucky this year because the weather cooperated. There was no fighting snow and ice to get there. Our dinners were applauded every night. Thank you to Dan Dunsy, O'Brien's Crabhouse, for the delicious smoked turkey dinner, with all the fixings, on Christmas night. A special thank you to Harriet and Robert Dunsy for sponsoring Christmas dinner.

We had a lot of volunteers that made the preparing, serving and clean-up go smoothly. Thank you to Shelley Gach, Alan Droz, Glen Ceifetz, Marcia Garland, Paul Goldsmith, Linda Levy, David Otis, Sam Simko, Melanie Corlin, Christopher Sica, Andy Pass, Michael Hepner, Sara Braverman, Rachel Kelmenson, Michael Kelmenson, Margery Jablin, Clara and Jack Pesis, Laurie and Fred Leeb, and Cathy Halliburton. A very special thank you to Debbie Cohen. She is the co-chair of the program and works so hard to make sure that we meet the needs of the clients.

The newly formed group, Serve and Be Served, served dinner on Thursday night. Thanks to the leadership of Debby Portney, Steve Portney, Steve and Amy Dunn, Richard and Nancy Barr, Ari and Beth Brandvain and Beth Goldstein and Barry Rosen for serving dinner to the guests. Watch the Voice for up and coming events of Serve and Be Served.

On Volunteer Day, 60 lunches were prepared, toiletry kits assembled and blankets made and delivered to Hope. Thank you to the Kolin family for taking them to the center.

Good News for the Tech-Troubled

Help is on the way at noon, March 29, when the teens of Tech Connect will lend a hand with another of their iPad life-saving sessions. Before they head off to college, Teen Volunteer Corps Tech Connect co-chairs Elisha Cooper and Benny Shaevsky will assist Adat Shalom folks with their computer tzuves. And Elisha and Benny never fail. To sign up for the session, contact Jodi Gross, Director of Adult Learning and Youth Engagement, 248.626.2153.

Haggadah Treasures

Margery Jablin and Jeannie Weiner, chairs of the Adat Shalom FRIENDS Day Trippers, have a big day in store for lovers of rare Judaica. Some 3 dozen haggadahs selected from the remarkable collection of the late Adat Shalom president Irwin Alterman, will be on display at the University of Michigan's Shapiro Undergraduate Library Wednesday morning, March 25, when the Day Trippers will be in Ann Arbor for the special showing. Luncheon will follow the event.

Jeannie and Margery will meet participants at Adat Shalom at 9:15 A.M. before leaving in cars for the 10:30 presentation. They want attendees to know that everyone must be able to walk 3 - 4 blocks from the Ann Arbor parking area to the library. To sign up, email Margery at mjablin@yahoo.com or call/text at 248.730.0963.

Hey, Film Lovers

Adat Shalom FRIENDS are marking their calendars for the next movie date, Sunday, March 22. They'll welcome new participants who email their names to dlebovic@ameritech.net. A week before the showing, all who sign on will learn the film, locale and time. After the movie, a lively review (with snacks) will take place at the home of Jan and Rob Goldfarb. And for those who like to plan ahead, the next dates will be May 17 and July 26.

Food Lovers, Too

FRIENDS who enjoy outings with the Restaurant Group invite others to join them for their next dining adventure by calling Linda Levy at likol@aol.com or 248.553.9351.

Serve and Be Served

A new group is forming at Adat Shalom, called Serve and Be Served. This is a Chavurah group of 50 and 60 year olds who will be meeting for an evening of service and fun (eating and drinking together) approximately 4-6 times a year, mostly on Thursday evenings.

The pilot project was with a small group who met for dinner at a restaurant then served dinner at Hope Hospitality, a warming center in Pontiac, over the Christmas week.

The next event will be Thursday, March 12 at C.A.R.E.S. in Farmington Hills. The group will meet there at 6:30 P.M. for an hour of service (preparing dinner kits and working in the clothing room) followed by a vegetarian/dairy dinner from 7:30-9:00 P.M.

The cost is $72/couple ($36/person), of which approximately half will be a donation for the food we are providing the clients of CARES. If you are interested in joining this group and would like to attend the CARES event, please contact Debby Portney at debbyportney@gmail.com

Scholarships Offered at Adat Shalom

Matthew Scott Doren z"l Memorial Jewish Summer Program Scholarship

The Synagogue is pleased to offer, once again, the Matthew Scott Doren z"l Memorial Jewish Summer Program Scholarship, established by Naomi and Martin Doren z"l in memory of their beloved son Matthew.

This annual scholarship in the amount of $1,000 is open to students entering 7th through 12th grades. The scholarship can be used for attendance at any approved Jewish summer experience program for camping, travel to Israel or study in Israel. The scholarship will be awarded based on financial need. Applicants must submit an essay on "Why a Jewish summer experience would be personally meaningful and rewarding." The winner of the scholarship will be determined by a committee consisting of Naomi Doren, her daughter Cheryl Copley, and members of the Adat Shalom Clergy.

Interested applicants from the Detroit Metropolitan Jewish community should forward their essays for consideration to Executive Director Alan Yost. Essays are due by Friday, April 17.

VOTE: FOR YOUR VOICE IN ISRAEL

Between now and March 11, 2020, American Jews will have the opportunity to vote online for the Jewish future in Israel and around the world.

Make sure your point of view is represented in the next World Zionist Congress. When you vote, you will be able to choose from over a dozen slates representing diverse political beliefs, religious denominations and cultural traditions. Those elected from the United States will join delegates from Israel and around the world at the 38th World Zionist Congress in October 2020, the international "parliament of the Jewish people," to make decisions regarding key institutions which allocate nearly $1 billion annually to support Israel and world Jewry (including the World Zionist Organization, Jewish National Fund and the Jewish Agency for Israel).

Vote online or at table/computer that will be set up during the Purim Carnival. More information about the 13 slates running in the 2020 US Election for the 38th World Zionist Congress and other information, <https://azm.org/elections>

לימוד Limmud Michigan is a full day of Jewish learning at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, on Sunday, March 22. Participants choose their own classes and explore their connection to Jewish ideas and traditions. For registration and information: www.limmudmichigan.org. Adat Shalom is a community sponsor.

Rabbi Bergman welcomed a panel of local leaders from the community to Adat Shalom for a discussion on antisemitism and security concerns.

The Jay Yoskowitz z"l Israel Scholarship Fund

Adat Shalom is offering college students a scholarship opportunity for study in Israel. The Jay Yoskowitz z"l Israel Scholarship Fund will provide a scholarship of $1500 for a semester of study at a recognized Israeli university or at the Conservative Yeshiva.

The month of March has many other activities and opportunities at Adat Shalom. The annual Women's Spirituality Retreat is scheduled for March 20 - 22. Our Men's Club also has two great events including Hangin' with the Hazz'n on March 18 and the annual Daddy Daughter Dance on March 22. We end the month with Shabbat Rocks on March 27. Of course, please take a look at the calendar toward the end of the Voice for even more great learning opportunities and other social events.

However it is that you celebrate Purim and spend your upcoming weeks, I hope you will take some time to join us at Adat Shalom and celebrate the triumph of the Jewish people over adversity with us. In today's world, it is vital that we all enjoy the spiritual and religious freedoms afforded to us and make use of our magnificent synagogue!

B'Shalom,
Sandy

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tribute Contribution

ADAT SHALOM'S tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set an $18 minimum price for tribute cards.

We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes, marking lifecycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support. Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please visit our website www.adatshalom.org/tributes/, call the office at 248.851.5100 or send the following information to the synagogue office:

1. Name of Fund
2. Occasion: (In memory of ... In honor of ... Speedy recovery to ... (Please print names.)
3. Name(s) (first & last) and address of person(s) to be notified
4. Your name(s) & address
5. Check for $18 per tribute

We will process your tribute and mail it promptly.

Tributes received by the 1st of the month will appear in the following month's VOICE.

If you would like information about how to establish a fund, please contact Executive Director Alan Yost.

Introducing Myself to Adat Shalom Synagogue

Davey Rosen,
Rabbinic Intern

I believe the synagogue is more relevant than ever. While people can have more access to information than ever before in human history, studies show people are feeling more isolated and fragmented from each other. The synagogue is the place where Jews can come together to cultivate a sense of awe and be our authentic Jewish selves. Based on my experience, I think Jews often want to belong and be part of the Jewish community, and in particular a synagogue, but they aren't always sure if they're welcome. Due to that challenge, I'm incredibly excited to learn from the diverse Adat Shalom community. As an Academy for Jewish Religion (AJR) rabbinic student (ajrsem.org) I'm required to complete 4 trimesters of field placement. It doesn't have to be in a synagogue but I sought out Adat Shalom to learn from its clergy who are passionate about serving the Jewish community through tradition and innovation.

I love Jewish summer camp. The unique Jewish time and space can foster Jewish self-confidence and lifelong friendships. But the summer always ends. And I loved working at U-M Hillel. The diversity of students on campus demanded that we, the Hillel staff, create diverse programming with students as our partners, both in the building and across campus. But college students eventually leave, and my goal was for students to graduate with the confidence to make adult Jewish decisions.

Jewish summer camps and Hillels are incredibly valuable for our community, but they are finite experiences, summers end and students graduate. Shuls are tasked with being the Ner Tamid, the eternal light, shining for all generations. Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel explains in God in Search of Man that Judaism is an answer to humanity's ultimate questions. I believe shul is the place to ask the ultimate questions and to find answers in the ongoing Jewish narrative.

I hope to hear your story soon, and for you to get to know my wife Jillian, VP of Community Investment at the Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation, our kids Elah and Jonah, 5 and 3. I'm looking forward to sharing my passion for finding modern spiritual relevance in Torah and learning together during a three-part Lunchtime Learning series in March.
