On Shabbat morning, May 30, 2020, we celebrated the adult students who studied with Rabbi Bergman, Rabbi Shere, Hazzan Gross and Michael Wolf to become B'nai Mitzvah.

Together they studied Hebrew literacy, Jewish rituals, customs, holidays, prayers, chanting and much more.

FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOAN CHERNOFF EPSTEIN

As I am privileged to step into the role as your President for the next two years, it gives me an opportunity to scroll back through my treasured memories of Adat Shalom. Reflect with me now almost 70 years to June 11, 1950, as my dear parents, Betty Marie Spector and Louis Chernoff received marriage blessings from the late Rabbi Jacob Segal. And so, began my family's rich heritage and an enduring relationship with the synagogue.

In 1943, during the worst of times for the Jewish people, 52 Detroiters decided to form the Northwest Hebrew congregation. Three years later and 400 members strong, Rabbi Jacob Segal was hired as their respected leader and teacher. In 1952, the synagogue adopted the name, Adas Shalom, Congregation of Peace, a title that continues today to reflect the character of our members and its guiding philosophy. Rabbi Segal built a Conservative congregation that embraced Jewish learning in a friendly, welcoming and compassionate environment that still identifies us today.

My childhood recollections also included driving to synagogue (when most people walked), observing holiday traditions, and rejoicing in the togetherness of Friday night dinners. How many of you were also as fortunate as me to be sitting with parents in the main sanctuary during the High Holiday services (which was generally not permitted for children)? It allowed me to witness the impressive air of quiet and peacefulness as members listened intently to the Rabbi's stirring and eloquent sermons. His words were often at the heart of our family discussions and the inspiration that seemed to strengthen our faith.

Outside of the home, my Jewish learning path included United Hebrew Schools and confirmation. After one following year of studies, sadly but not surprisingly, my connection took a detour until many years later.

FROM RABBI RACHEL SHERE ESSENTIAL

The phrase "essential workers" has become part of our daily lexicon. "Essential workers," of course, refers to health care workers who have worked on the "front lines" treating patients, grocery store workers who have stocked shelves and made sure that food and toilet paper (hopefully!) are widely available, and a host of other individuals who have continued working outside the house to provide necessary services while so many of us have been quarantined indoors. Enough cannot be said about the courage, self-sacrifice, and determination of our essential workers who have kept society going during these difficult and frightening times.

Using the term "essential" to refer to some people, however, may connote that others who do not fit this category are somehow less important. Nothing could be further from the truth. While some work may be more essential during a pandemic than other work, our Jewish tradition teaches us that we are all essential in the eyes of God.

We recently began reading the fourth book of the Torah, Bamidbar, which is commonly known in English as the "Book of Numbers." Why Numbers? Because in the second verse of this book, God commands

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

In June of 1967, Israel was not even twenty years old, and was threatened with destruction by Egypt and other nations in the area. Israelis knew that no one else would help them. Instead of despairing, they took bold action and not only saved their country, but reunited Jerusalem under Jewish control for the first time in thousands of years.

It is so important to remember the great capacity of the Jewish spirit for optimism and hope in the worst of times. Everyone suffers, but I am always so impressed that we as a people have faced our suffering with courage and ingenuity. Jerusalem reminds us that we always find a way to live meaningfully and that we can get through difficult times.

Here is a beautiful poem by Nell Zier that reminds us of the meaning of Jerusalem throughout our history.

Jerusalem: City of David, City of Gold.

How many nations have ruled you, have trampled your holy streets?

How many swords have pierced your aching soul?

Men have thought to control your future,

to destroy your golden Temple,

to burn your fields of grain, to seal Your Eastern Gate.

No longer would you be a City of the Jews,

no longer would the Shofar be blown,

Now the Jews should find a new land,

this City was no longer their home.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS ISOLATED, YET CONNECTED

The past several months have seemed surreal. Staying at home, only to leave the house for essential purposes, is not something that I think any of us would have believed would ever happen in our lifetime. Yet, this is real. As an optimist, I have truly cherished this time with my family while at the same time being able to connect with my extended family, friends, and the Adat Shalom community via the phone and computer. On the other hand, I fully acknowledge how challenging and even devastating this period of isolation has been for countless people. It's an understatement to say this period has been both bitter and sweet.

In last month's Voice, I wrote about the new experience of praying together on Zoom. It's a remarkable video conferencing platform, allowing countless people to be together virtually. As amazing as the technology is, however, it cannot fully replace being together in the same space. Not hearing sounds from others is uncharacteristic of Jewish prayer. Our prayer is designed to be communal, with congregational responses and melodies as the backbone of the experience.

A minyan — a quorum of ten Jewish people above Bar/Bat Mitzvah age — is required for many prayers. Kaddish is one of those prayers as our sages knew that healing is bolstered by the support of others. In mid-April, our dog Zitro passed away. He was over 15 years old and had lived 5 years with congestive heart failure, so each day we had with him after his diagnosis was a gift. I said Kaddish for Zitro for a month in our ZOOMinyan and found comfort from the recitation of the words and from knowing that I was not alone as I chanted the prayer with others.

LEARNING COMMUNITY NEWS

As I write this article at the end of April, it's fair to say that I have no idea what the situation will be in June or July. That said, I am planning for a robust school year that will engage students, parents, and teachers in authentic Jewish learning. Whether we learn in physical or virtual classrooms, the lesson I've learned is that relationships matter. In my conversations with families, I find that it's the personal connection that enables people to belong. I don't know what our summer plans are yet, but we will be gathering by Zoom until we can be in a room together!

Adat Shalom-Beth Achim Learning Community (aka Religious School) registration is OPEN! If you would like to learn more, send me an email at mser@adatshalom.org and we can schedule a Zoom meeting to answer your questions. Our program begins at age 3 with our acclaimed Pre-K program (Sundays only), and continues through 12th grade with multiple options for teens to choose from - including Nosh & Drash, Hebrew for high school and college credit, Madrichim Teen Leadership, and so much more.

Jewish Learning should be
Joyful - Exciting - Fun - Meaningful - Relevant

At the Adat Shalom-Beth Achim Learning Community, our student-centered approach to learning means that our Pre-K through 12th grade students thrive and grow!

The Mission of Teen Volunteer Corps (TVC) is to combine learning with direct hands-on involvement with an emphasis on Jewish values and empowering teens to create an impact in the Jewish community and Metro Detroit. A teen leadership board plans, promotes and leads volunteer projects.

When the COVID-19 pandemic started, the leaders of TVC, Elisha Cooper, Scott Katz, Jessica Goldberg, Lauren Schostak and Isaac Mintz, wanted to do something to bring happiness into the world, one card at a time. Their idea transformed into this project. The goal is for individuals of all ages and families to create cards to send to members of our community, including (but not limited to): hospital staff, individuals living and working in nursing homes, and school personnel.

FROM SAMMI SHAPIRO

Assistant Director of Education & Youth Engagement
sshapiro@adatshalom.org

This March my husband, Michael, and I welcomed our first child. I have spent my entire adult (and most of my teens) working with children. It is now my distinct pleasure and honor to be able to share in these experiences with my own son. I am excited to start bringing our child to the synagogue for all of our wonderful programming and begin his Jewish education.

While there are a lot of exciting moments to look forward to, we are also entering a new phase of our lives. We brought our son home in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. During this time at home I have had a lot of time to think and while there have been many challenges, we have also had a lot of positives come out of this time.

One of the most important things I've realized is that there is no point in stressing over the pieces we cannot control (which is a major challenge given that I constantly struggle with anxiety). We don't have a choice but to live and survive in this new normal and that includes learning how to take care of a newborn sans physical help from family and friends. This is when I realize how important it is to have the "village" needed to support us and our baby. In order to best help our families I'm sure I will use what I learn as a new, and exhausted working parent, to improve our programs and offerings. I'd like to find out how our education team can make Adat Shalom more meaningful for families:

- What are you looking for (religious, spiritual, social)?
- Do you feel like you know the education team: Melissa, Jodi, and Sammi? Do you want to get to know us better?

As we make plans for how to feel safe at home and in public, what will be your new comfort zone? How can we help you feel connected as we make these transitions?

Please email me about these things. The more informed we are, the better we can help make Adat Shalom the place you need it to be. Are you also a new parent and want to set up a Chavurah (a small group within the congregation)? Connect with me and we can start a great group!

CARING COMMUNITY

SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION

Lighthouse-South Oakland Housing the Homeless scheduled for June 21-28, 2020 has been cancelled.

The decision by Lighthouse was made to cancel the Housing the Homeless program rotations for the first time since 1985. Lighthouse is providing emergency shelter using area hotels through the end of June and possibly longer, depending on the status of congregations to safely receive shelter guests. This is to protect the health and welfare of both the clients and the volunteers. Lighthouse is serving more individuals than ever before, expanding emergency shelter over 100%. It is costing $180 per week to provide one shelter guest with a week of shelter services.

I know how committed the Adat Shalom community is in providing a safe environment for the SOS clients. Although we will not be having the guests at our home for the first time in over 25 years, I would like to encourage a contribution to the Hillel Isaac and Rachel Maisel Memorial Housing the Homeless Fund. We will use these funds to make a contribution to offset the costs of the alternative housing that is being provided during this crisis.

We look forward to welcoming the program again next year.

Stay well and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Reflections: 2020 Adult B'nai Mitzvah Class

Growing up, I attended Jewish religious school on Sundays, was confirmed, and graduated. But I never attended Hebrew School or had a Bar Mitzvah. In spite of that, I was always proud to be Jewish; our children had B'nai Mitzvah, as will our grandchildren. My wife, Karen, and I visited Israel for the first time in 2009 and a second time in 2018. Those trips created a connection to Israel and pride in being Jewish beyond what I could ever have imagined. Therefore, as my grandson, Jack, began approaching Bar Mitzvah age, I thought of having one myself. I am so appreciative of Hazzan Gross, Rabbis Bergman and Shere, Michael Wolf, and my warm and fun classmates. They have made the hard work of becoming a Bar Mitzvah so worthwhile and fulfilling. Thank you also to all the family and friends who've been able to attend, making this day even more special.

Allen Amber (Avraham ben Chaim v'Tzirel)

I entered the B'nai Mitzvah class because I wanted a way to deepen my relationship with Judaism. I was so fortunate to get to participate in such an amazing learning opportunity. Being in the adult B'nai Mitzvah class significantly increased my confidence as a Jewish adult. My Hebrew has improved drastically, and the lessons with Rabbis Bergman and Shere were always very interesting and insightful. I would like to thank all of the clergy, especially Michael Wolf and Hazzan Gross for making sure that we had every chance of success and all of the support we needed.

Zakia Galambush (Zakia Malka bat Avraham v'Sarah)

When I was growing up, very few women went to Hebrew school and Bat Mitzvahs were not allowed for women. When my youngest daughter had her Bat Mitzvah, I studied Hebrew every Sunday morning with Leslie Hubert and sang Anim Zemirot at her Bat Mitzvah service. Unfortunately, I did not keep up with the Hebrew and lost most of what I had learned. Eleven years later, I joined the B'nai Mitzvah class to have my own Bat Mitzvah, which is something I wanted to do for many years. It has been difficult but very rewarding. I enjoyed working with the clergy and the other students in my class. I am grateful for Hazzan Gross, Rabbi Bergman, Rabbi Shere, and Michael Wolf's tutelage. I am proud to become Bat Mitzvah at Adat Shalom and appreciate everyone who has helped me achieve this milestone in my life.

Carol Greenfield (Shira Bailka bat Levi v'Sora)

In the 1960s, most Jewish girls did not have the opportunity to have a Bat Mitzvah. My parents had a kosher and traditional home where they gave me and my siblings a love for Judaism for which I am eternally grateful. My parents were members of Congregation Shaarey Zedek. I attended from nursery school through high school graduation. When I was thirteen, I was shy. The idea of standing in front of the congregation chanting from the Torah or leading prayers in the adult service was intimidating so I was glad that I didn't have a Bat Mitzvah. My parents, encouraged by the synagogue, sent me to Camp Ramah for two summers. In high school I joined a USY chapter. When I was 15, I participated in a Shaarey Zedek service for girls, called Consecration. The ceremony was near the holiday of Shavuot. The girls all wore white dresses and we carried flowers. For the ceremony we learned parts for a cantata. We received prayer books which I carried in my wedding bouquet 44 years ago when I married my husband, Eugene. Times changed and Jewish girls who were thirteen as well as women began having B'not Mitzvah. I saw my sisters and my sister-in-law as well as many friends celebrate their B'not Mitzvah as adults. Two years ago when Adat Shalom started an Adult B'nai Mitzvah class, I decided to join. I really appreciated studying with Hazzan Gross and learning the Torah and Haftarah trope. I've also enjoyed the classes offered by Rabbi Shere, Rabbi Bergman, and Michael Wolf. The experience has enhanced my Jewish identity and I'm very happy to finally celebrate my Bat Mitzvah.

Anne Greenstein

Chana Shayna bat Chaim Moshe v'Esther)

I would like to thank Rabbi Bergman, Rabbi Shere, Hazzan Gross, and Michael Wolf for all the help they gave me in preparing for my Bat Mitzvah. I want to dedicate this occasion to the memory of David z"l and Anna z"l Tchor (my beloved Zaydee and Bubbie) who were founding members of Adat Shalom (Northwest Hebrew Congregation). My Zaydee instilled in me the love for Judaism and Adat Shalom. Finally, but most importantly, to my parents, Herbert z"l and Florence Tchor z"l Miller, thank you for giving me the beautiful Jewish home and education I had when growing up. You will always be my inspiration.

Joanne Miller (Chana Rivkah bat Tzvi HaKohen v'Tzipora)

I had my first adult Bat Mitzvah 30 years ago. I was not permitted to have a Bat Mitzvah when I was 12 or 13 years old because girls and women were not allowed to be called to the Torah. So what made me want to repeat the experience and have a second adult Bat Mitzvah some 30 years later? A lot has happened in my life in the past 30 years. I don't have the responsibilities that I had at that time of taking care of young children and elderly relatives. I have more time to devote to my own spiritual needs. One tragic event was the passing of one of my dearest friends, Sharon Orechkin Horowitz, of blessed memory. She shared the Bimah with me 30 years ago when we both had our adult Bat Mitzvah and was my classmate in Hebrew school when we were little girls. I saw this as an opportunity to honor her memory and to have her accompany me in my heart on my continuing journey to explore my Jewish identity. I wish to thank our wonderful clergy who have taught us and guided us on our quest for knowledge. Without them, this whole experience could not have been fulfilled.

Linda Rosenbaum (Esther Leah bat Nissan v'Rivka)

Being a graduate of Hillel Day School gave me my love for Jewish learning. Spending many summers as a camper and staff member at Camp Ramah gave me my love for living Jewishly. I always felt the desire to become a Bat Mitzvah even though it wasn't customary for girls in the '60s and '70s. I put this desire aside for a long time because raising five children who pretty much followed in my footsteps (Hillel and Ramah) became my priority. After retiring last year from teaching, I was surprised to see that becoming a Bat Mitzvah was the first thing on my bucket list! I have enjoyed learning with the clergy and am so grateful for their weekly teachings. I have been inspired to take many more classes during this process and am so proud to call myself a "lifelong learner" of Judaism.

From Your Sisterhood Co-Presidents ...

As I sit in front of my computer to write the article for this edition of The Voice, I was reminded of how this should be the article in which Cindy, Geula, and I would be thanking chairpersons and the many volunteers that donated so much of their time and efforts into making Donor Day such a successful event for Sisterhood. Hopefully, that thank you will be written this fall.

Instead, with the changing times, our thank you goes out to every member of Sisterhood, all congregational and Sisterhood members and their guests who have attended Sisterhood functions this past year, and all those who have volunteered or worked with our Sisterhood to plan, organize, cook, serve, and facilitate our events and our weekly Kiddushes. We are just three of the women who want to keep Sisterhood the "Heart" of our Synagogue community! Without your cooperation and assistance, the goals of Sisterhood could not be achieved.

Looking to the future, this is the time when we start planning for the coming year. We hope to have a 2020-2021 Sisterhood Calendar of Events soon. Once this information becomes available, we will put it in The Voice and email it to our members. If you have any ideas for new events or clubs, please let us know by calling or emailing us. We would love to hear from our membership. You can reach us at:

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS... BY JOEY LEBOVIC

The Men's Club calendar year ends on June 30 which means my time as club president is nearly over. I want to thank the Men's Club Executive Committee, Board of Trustees, program chairs and other volunteers that contributed their time, ideas, and energy to support our club for the past two years. It's been great getting to know many of you better both in person and via Zoom. There is no doubt the success of our programs is directly a result of your dedicated engagement.

When I joined the Men's Club about 20 years ago, Jeff Supowit was president. Many other dads like me with kids in religious school joined, and friendships formed between new and longtime members. I enjoyed the comradery enough to serve on the Board and Executive Committee. My plan is to stay involved for years to come by helping deliver our programs. I hope more men will choose to experience the comradery of a club that supports our religious school and congregation through religious, cultural, social, educational, charitable and recreational programs.

This pandemic has temporarily changed our approach to providing meaningful and important programs. Through creative thinking and technology we converted some programs to a virtual format and added a few new ones to support our congregants. I know incoming Men's Club President Lon Zaback is looking forward to holding annual favorite programs like Steak & Sports Night in person again. I congratulate and wish Lon continued success.

Thanks again for an enjoyable two years,

Joey Lebovic

They were truly enjoyed by all of the Deparment's employees. We appreciate your support and are proud to serve and protect our friends at Adat Shalom Synagogue."*

Yasher Koach to Shayla Mostyn. As Shlichah in charge of programming for her BBG chapter, she took the (pre-Coronavirus) planned JARC Bingo night virtual. "Ruach volunteers wrote down and called out a letter and number, then showed it to the camera for the residents to see and mark down. To our surprise we had 14 homes and a ton of people playing, during that hour we played 3 games and nobody wanted it to end."

We welcome you to follow Rabbi Bergman's blog <https://rabbiaronbergman.com/>, Hazzan Gross's YouTube Channel (and one for the kids), and stay in touch with Rabbi Shere on Adat Shalom's website, Facebook page and through the emails we are sending to the congregation.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tribute Contribution

ADAT SHALOM'S tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set an $18 minimum price for tribute cards.

We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes, marking lifecycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support. Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please visit our website www.adatshalom.org/donate.php or call the office at 248.851.5100.

Tributes received by the 1st of the month will appear in the following month's VOICE.

If you would like information about how to establish a fund, please contact Executive Director Alan Yost.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Book of Remembrance 5781

During the High Holy Days it is an honored tradition at Adat Shalom to recall our beloved relatives and friends who are no longer with us. Our annual Book of Remembrance is a meaningful way for you to keep the memories of those you love alive through the spirit of tzedakah. The book is used during the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret, Passover, and Shavuot, as well as for meditation and prayer in your home.

To honor our past and help secure our future generations, please complete the form on our website at:

adatshalom.org/BookofRemembrance, call the synagogue office, or complete and return the form that was mailed to your home, no later than July 21, 2020.

Adat Shalom Synagogue lovingly recalls the Yahrzeits of the following people in the months of June and July.

JOAN CHERNOFF EPSTEIN

On January 28, 1984, Robert (Bob) Epstein and Joan Chernoff received marriage blessings under the chuppah from Rabbi Efry Spectre. With the Adat Shalom sanctuary illuminated, there was a feeling of comfort and familiarity which reaffirmed my bond as I walked down the aisle towards Bob. The continuity of l'dor vador.

My relationship with the synagogue blossomed as my daughter Meredith and I began parent-toddler classes under the supervision of Dotty Levitsky, who directed one of the finest nursery programs in the community. All three of my children, to this day, have art projects, menorahs and afikomen covers still proudly decorating our home.

Wherever my journey has taken me, the synagogue's devotion to our heritage, learning and commitment to Israel remained consistent and strong under Rabbi Spectre z"l, Rabbi Nevins, Rabbi Pachter, Rabbi Yoskowitz and Cantor Vieder z"l. Now under the superb clergy Rabbi Bergman, Rabbi Shere and Hazzan Gross, their brilliance, wisdom, humor and voices resonate deeply within us as we have recently transitioned to spiritual learning and observance entirely in our own homes. They are supported by an exceptionally dedicated and collaborative synagogue staff, who provide dynamic programming, outreach, engagement, and commitment all with an abundance of warmth and smiles.

Our clergy and staff are the richly woven, colorful fabric of our synagogue life. Now they have given us lifelines to keep us closer, to keep us connected without physically being present during these challenging times. Your laptops, iPads, and cell phones allow us to see each other, listen, be heard, and participate more frequently, sometimes in comfortable clothes.

While the present might not be what the late Rabbi Segal would have ever imagined, we are resilient enough to honor him in the future by continuing his past legacy and the foundation of Adat Shalom.

Journey with me, as I help preserve memories for future generations.

Joan Chernoff Epstein

On June 11, 1950, Rabbi Jacob Segal officiated at the marriage of Joan's parents, Betty Marie Spector and Louis Chernoff.

RABBI BERGMAN

You were left without music - only with dark,
No songs were heard singing - no candles gave light,
You were left without joy,
Only the crying of the mourners was heard.

For two thousand years, you sat there, alone,
Waiting, waiting - forgotten, forlorn,
Weeping tears of despair, lamenting,
"Where have all My children gone?"

From the great Temple in Heaven, an awesome Voice was heard,
"Oh Jerusalem, oh Jerusalem, no longer shall I wait;
Now, stand back and see what I shall do!
I am bringing your children Home,
they shall again possess their land;
Watch them build Your cities strong,
Taste their new sweet wine,
Listen to their voices shouting My Song,
'This is the City of G-d.'

Again, their music will fill your ears, their dancing will make you glad,
My People shall remain there forever, Jerusalem,
For I have restored their land."

HAZZAN GROSS

The comfort of the recitation, however, was diminished by the isolation I felt without the real presence and voices of others to bolster my words. I am grateful, though, for the opportunity to still say Kaddish as it is reminiscent of a formative experience from my youth.

My father passed away at the age of 52 when I was 14 years old. I said Kaddish every day for a year, however, for most of those days, I said Kaddish alone before I went to bed. I am not sharing this with you in order to garner pity, but rather for you to know that saying Kaddish was a way for me to feel connected to my dad. Now, when I'm asked if it is okay to say Kaddish alone or without a minyan, I share my experience from when I lost my dad. I explain that ideally, one should say the prayer with others, but if it is not possible to be part of a minyan, then there is nothing wrong with reciting the words alone, especially if they provide comfort.

During these unprecedented times, it has been very moving for me to witness people finding comfort from the virtual presence of others. I feel as if our souls are more connected since we have not been able to be together with our bodies. May the glue of our tradition continue to connect us even when we have to remain physically disconnected.

RABBI SHERE

Moses to count the numbers of the Children of Israel. God, however, uses very specific language when instructing Moses in how to take this national census. "Lift up the head of the entire Israelite community...listing the names...head-by-head." Moses was not merely to count, but to "lift up the head" of each person and to call that person by name, signifying that every member of the community has a unique, God-given role to play and is of the utmost importance.

While "essential workers" in our community and around the world have led the way with their bravery and service, we must also remember that every person is essential in the eyes of God and we are all essential to one another; we need this message now more than ever.

COMPLIMENTARY ADAT SHALOM SYNAGOGUE MEMBERSHIPS

Did you know that all adults
under the age of 30 are welcome to a complimentary Adat Shalom membership?

After the age of 30, until age 35, there is a reduced rate. This is a great opportunity for your children living in the metropolitan Detroit area to be a part of the Adat Shalom family.

All you need to do is let us know their name(s) and address.

Your synagogue is eager to have
