FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOAN CHERNOFF EPSTEIN

As a young child, August was a month that was always filled with sunshine, outdoor activities, vacations and fun. And September was a time of new beginnings for me. New friends, new teachers, new classrooms, new experiences... but in this world of sheltering in place and social distancing, our August and September are sure to look different this year. Where have our yesterdays gone?

We have spent much of our spring and summer adapting to our new normal. Our days have been spent at home while we look for ways to fill our time. We have been physically distant from our loved ones and it has given us the time to reflect on how we can improve the lives of those we love.

It is very appropriate that the month of Elul is a time for reflection. It is a time to look back at the past year and to envision our hopes for change and improvement in the New Year. The new normal may have prevented us from "punim to punim" or "face to face" physical experiences, but fortunately, we have all managed to stay "virtually" connected.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS KADDISH POWER

There are certain changes that occur to the liturgy during the Aseret Y'mei T'shuvah, "The Ten Days of Repentance" period that lasts from the beginning of Rosh Hashanah until the end of Yom Kippur. One change that I'd like to focus on occurs within the Kaddish. There are four forms of Kaddish that are found within the synagogue liturgy: Kaddish Shalem (Full Kaddish), Chatzi Kaddish (Half Kaddish), Kaddish Yatom (Mourner's Kaddish), and Kaddish D'Rabbanan (the Rabbi's Kaddish). All four forms undergo the following simple, yet profound, change during the High Holidays – in the third paragraph, the word l'eila is repeated.

L'eila means "higher" and in this context it is the description of how our praise to God, the essence of Kaddish, supersedes all other prayers. During the High Holiday season, we double this word in order to magnify the essence of the prayer. However, by adding an additional l'eila, we then need to make a second change to the words that follow it. On other days, the wording is l'eila min kol, but on the High Holidays it is l'eila l'eila mikol. Notice that the two words min kol ("from all") become contracted to the one word mikol, which has the same meaning. Why is this? The answer lies in the use of gematria, the association of words and meaning with Jewish numerology.

First, let's lay the groundwork of the explanation. Kaddish is the ultimate expression of praise to God which is to be recited with others. The second paragraph congregational response of confirmation, Y'hei shmei raba m'varach l'alam ul'almei almaya ("May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever") is seven words long, containing twenty-eight Hebrew letters. Likewise, the very first verse of the Torah, B'reishit bara Elohim et hashamayim v'et ha'aretz ("In the beginning God created heaven and earth") is also seven words long, containing twenty-eight Hebrew letters. This striking coincidence of the identical number of words and letters provides a strong connection for the creation of the bond between ourselves, our community and God.

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

I really miss being together with all of you. I came to Adat Shalom in 2008 because I really liked the people I already knew, and I have stayed because of them and all the lovely people I have met during these years. You are all an important part of what makes our community the fulfillment of the name our founders gave to our synagogue many years ago, a congregation of peace and wholeness. Even when we disagree with each other, we still treat each other with respect, dignity, and kindness. That does not happen everywhere.

I love seeing us fill the building with events, services, and programs. I am even happy when the lobby is filled during my High Holiday sermons. It means that people are connecting with and enjoying each other's company.

It makes me sad that we have not been able to be together like this for what seems like an interminably long time, and that it is not clear when we will be able to do so. In Jewish tradition, saving lives is our ultimate value, one that supersedes even spiritual goals.

A prayer we say every day is Hu Yiftach Libeinu, God will open our hearts with the wisdom of Torah, and place within us great love and deep concern for others. I know how badly we all want to fully open Adat Shalom, but this prayer says that we must do so with wisdom, compassion, patience, and love.

Every decision I have made and will continue to make is based on the health and safety of all of you, even if that is frustrating and challenging to all of our wishes to reconnect in person. We can substitute different ways of praying. We cannot bring back a life once it is lost. We will reopen with joy and not regret.

I am so grateful to the incredible people I work with, clergy, educators, staff, and our endlessly dedicated lay leaders. They have built an online community in so many creative ways, one that is open spiritually, emotionally, and intellectually. I am pretty sure, though, I will never use the word zoom when this is over, even if I am just trying to describe getting somewhere quickly.

Mostly, I am so grateful for all of you, and wish all of us sweet, happy, and healthy new years for many years to come. May we all be inscribed for life.

FROM RABBI RACHEL SHERE HINDSIGHT IS 20/20

Because the Jewish calendar is set according to the moon, on the darkest night of the lunar cycle our ancestors would gaze at the night sky until they saw a sliver of light and could then declare the beginning of the new month.

We have always been people who are skilled at finding light in even the darkest of places.

In conversation with so many of you, I have been deeply moved by your ability to find wisdom and insight amidst the current darkness. I would like to share a list of some of these most powerful insights:

- ~ Our world can change in an instant. Appreciate everything you have.
- ~ That which is invisible to the eye can profoundly affect our lives.

Adat Shalom Synagogue High Holy Day Services

Spiritually connected, physically distant

The synagogue is the most successful institution in Jewish history. For 2600 years, synagogues have been places of gathering, prayer, learning, celebration and comfort. No other organization in the Jewish world has survived so many different crises and challenges to our people. Adat Shalom Synagogue started in 1943 during the worst crisis in human history, a time where many questioned whether the Jewish people had a future, and whether the world itself had a future. Our founders had faith. We must have faith, too.

We are in the middle of one of the most complicated and difficult moments in recent history. Now, more than ever, we need to connect with each other and stay together as an Adat Shalom community. There are many important institutions in the Jewish world, but the center of them all, the one that assures the future of all aspects of our community, is our synagogue, Adat Shalom!

We look forward to a sweet and happy New Year, one filled with health and joy.

Adat Shalom Israel Bonds Drive

Adat Shalom members have always felt a strong commitment to partner with Israel in the development of the land that represents both our heritage and our future. I (we) pledge to Adat Shalom Synagogue's Yom Kippur Appeal the amount indicated by the tab folded above.

Now more than ever, our Adat Shalom family needs to come together to keep our spiritual home financially secure. Physically distant, we have stayed spiritually connected. Our clergy have inspired us to meet the challenges of maintaining our strong synagogue community during these unprecedented times. We are adjusting to living through a worldwide pandemic. We must continue to learn together, pray together and even argue, lovingly, together, even if it cannot be in person as soon as we would like. We must keep our synagogue strong.

As a result of your generosity we have been able to maintain our home for more than 75 years. This year, this very extraordinary year, we once again ask you to do a special mitzvah on behalf of Adat Shalom. Adat Shalom Synagogue is where we teach our children about Judaism, study together as adults, and celebrate simchas. It is where we come together to safely worship in a meaningful way. It is where we find strength and receive support.

Rabbi Jacob E. Segal z"l and Cantor Larry Vieder z"l identified the synagogue as the home of the Jewish people. Adat Shalom is still, and always will be, a place of light, strength, and hope. We will continue to live our lives with joy and meaning, fulfilling the dreams of those who came before us. Without strong synagogues there will be no Judaism, no Jewish people, no State of Israel.

Your financial support will help us live safe, healthy, and meaningful Jewish lives and create a future for our children and their children and for many generations to come. Help the synagogue meet the challenges of now. Together, we can still make miracles.

All members will receive Israel Bond and Yom Kippur Appeal tab cards in the mail. Please return them to: Adat Shalom Synagogue, 29901 Middlebelt Road, Farmington Hills, MI 48334 or drop them off at the synagogue office. Your Yom Kippur Appeal pledge may be completed online at adatshalom.org/HHD2020. We strongly encourage you to be part of guaranteeing our future by making a meaningful monetary contribution toward this year's Yom Kippur Appeal.

CARING COMMUNITY

SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 8 A.M. - 2 P.M.

We will be having our bi-annual blood drive on Sunday, September 13. One of the last activities at the synagogue before we closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic was our Spring Blood Drive. Many of the organized blood drives in the community had been canceled but the need for blood was as great as ever. Adat Shalom responded and the Red Cross was grateful for our participation. We are very proud that our Adat Shalom family gives so selflessly.

Most of our other Social Action programs continue to be on hold until it is safe to resume a more normal activity schedule. I know that many of you are volunteering in other places where there is a need.

Tikkun Adat:
Sharing more than bricks & mortar

Dear Tikkun Adat reader:

OK, now keep in mind that our esteemed editor of the VOICE set a July 9 deadline for submission of articles for this August-September issue.

At the height of the #%&* virus, one of her writers (me) said that she would have nothing to submit for the Tikkun Adat section inasmuch as preparing meals for the homebound is out these days, dining out is no longer in and movie-going also is out (although that intrepid group is in by exchanging opinions on selected films viewed on their home screens – an amazing advance in escapist technology!).

Most important: Our fine group of volunteers could no longer assemble and deliver welcome home gifts to new babies and their parents if nobody wanted us coming to their doors with those wonderful baskets of goodies! Oy, such a message that #%&* was giving these children in their infancy!

The good news is, there are so many other nice things that Adat Shalom volunteers can do for others. "Sharing more than bricks & mortar" may be the Tikkun Adat motto, but it's pretty universal at Adat Shalom from the top down.

So, if there's something nice and doable that Tikkun Adat can do for you and yours, contact cmd67@mi.rr.com, or Charm Levine at 248.737.8948.

Meanwhile, be well, y'all. And have a shanah tovah!

Our youth are volunteering at Adat Shalom and in the community through our B'nai Mitzvah program and the Teen Volunteer Corps. For more information about these opportunities, contact Jodi Gross, Director of Adult Learning and Youth Engagement, jgross@adatshalom.org

Collecting the Dream

Israel, the Jewish state, that Theodor Herzl envisioned exists, so why is Herzl still important? Herzl's magic is that he was not just a dreamer, he was a doer. Herzl's actions ultimately led to the birth of the State of Israel 44 years after his death. We all have the capacity to be a little like Herzl: to have big impossible dreams and to make them come true.

MEN'S CLUB

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS... BY LON ZABACK

Thirty-two years ago, I joined the Adat Shalom family after graduating college. Synagogue membership and participation in the Jewish community was important to me then and remains so now. I was married at Adat Shalom and over the years we've celebrated four Bar Mitzvahs and many simchas. When our children attended religious school, we benefited from the Men's Club volunteers who played an important role in school, synagogue, and community events. I chose to give back by volunteering and serving on the Men's Club board. As incoming President, I am honored and humbled to accept leadership of this outstanding club.

Programming during COVID-19 has been challenging, but the club has adapted and continued to offer meaningful programs. I'd like to thank our immediate past president, Joey Lebovic, for his leadership over the past two years - he's handed off the club in great shape. I also thank the executive board and trustees for working creatively to continue to offer programs. A shout out to Jaron Friedman, for organizing two virtual Daddy Daughter Dances and an at home craft activity for father-child bonding. We're proud to have provided homebound families with fun and meaningful moments.

Thanks to Rabbi Bergman for making our Thoughtful Thursdays Zoom series such a success and for helping us to maintain men's social connections virtually. Thoughtful Thursday events continue through August and will start up again in October. We're also excited to have Adat Shalom participate in the inter-congregational men's club softball league. COVID-19 safe rules were put in place to allow this to happen. Please contact Michael Betman at 248-470-8617 for information about the league.

We remain dedicated to offering fulfilling programming in the coming year. Our annual Sports Night featuring Bernie Smilovitz will be held in September on Zoom, and we are planning a Sunday in the Sukkah event with details to follow. To become a member of Men's Club and enjoy the benefits of being included in notifications and member events, please sign up on our website or return the form below. This year's dues are optional with a suggested payment of $36 appreciated. Your contributions continue to help to support activities, religious school scholarships, and synagogue initiatives.

Please consult the Men's Club website and calendar www.adatshalom.org/mensclub for up to date plans and please contact me at lonzaback@gmail.com if you have any questions about the Men's Club. A warm welcome to our new Men's Club board, and a wish to all our Men's Club members and the Adat Shalom community for a safe, happy, and healthy new year. L'Shanah Tova.

At Adat Shalom, our foremost concern is for the safety and well-being of each of you and your families. We all know that this year may continue to be different, but our synagogue will continue to keep us connected. This year during the High Holidays, we may not be seated in our usual seats in the sanctuary or social hall... and the dinners that we look forward to with family and friends may be virtual too. But, we will still have the opportunity to demonstrate the resilience and strength that the Adat Shalom community has shown throughout the years by being together in new ways. We are still able to participate in synagogue services and many other programs and events that enrich all of our lives. And I am confident that our clergy and staff will continue to provide us with even more ways to stay connected.

Our clergy and staff will lead us in meaningful prayer and provide beautiful music to lift our spirits. While it will not be quite the same as worshipping in our magnificent sanctuary, this year Adat Shalom will continue to provide us with the unique sense of spirituality and community that makes Adat Shalom so special. In the future, let's all reflect on what kept us together.

Now, let's venture one step further. If you continue counting the number of words of the aforementioned congregational response and add to it the number of words from the following paragraph that contains the phrase l'eila min kol (not counting the final two words v'imru amen) there are a total of twenty-eight words. When the liturgy was codified, the Sages realized the importance of keeping the total number of words within the Kaddish intact. Therefore, when the second l'eila was added for the High Holidays, the two following words had to be contracted (min kol to mikol) to keep the word count the same.

So what is so special about the number twenty-eight? In gematria, the word associated with this number is koach, which can mean power, strength, energy, ability, force, and authority. By keeping the number of words at twenty-eight, it is our way of showing the multifaceted essence that this powerful prayer maintains within our liturgy and within our lives. I pray that God continues to give us koach as we embrace a High Holiday season unlike any other that we have ever experienced. May the year 5781 be a year of health, peace and happiness.

From Michael Wolf

Director of Spirituality and Outreach

The Shabbat following Tisha B'Av (the ninth of the Hebrew month of Av) is called Shabbat Nachamu, the Shabbat of Consolation, referring to the opening words of the weekly reading from the Prophets. It is the first of seven haftarot noted for their theme of consolation. Shabbat Nachamu is always paired with Parashat Va'etchanan in which we read the Shema and the 10 Commandments.

In the first verse of the Torah portion, Moshe recalls how hard he prayed to be let into Eretz Yisrael. What he did was no ordinary praying. He must have concentrated his entire being and essence on that one request. That is why he uses the word – Va'etchanan – a word that means not just “I prayed,” but “I pleaded.” Despite his wonderful prayer, God denied Moshe's request. This denial teaches us something important about the purpose of prayer. Getting what you want is not the point of prayer. You might get what you request, but the fact that you don't does not mean that your prayer was a failure. On the contrary, your prayer has allowed you to concentrate your emotions on something very important to you. So even if you don't get what you want, your prayer is a good one, even a great one. Always remember that even Moshe Rabbeinu, greater than all the prophets, did not get what he wanted when he prayed.

- ~ Physical distancing and social distancing are very different from each other.
- ~ Teachers are amazing. Period.
- ~ We are all more capable of adjusting to change than we ever could have imagined.
- ~ God works through the hands, heads, and hearts of our fellow human beings.
- ~ Every single person can do something to be of service to another.
- ~ We are only as strong as the weakest amongst us.
- ~ Solutions take time. We must be patient.
- ~ Family means everything.

Sometimes it takes the darkest night to appreciate the blessing of light. One day, when we look back on this moment in time, I believe we will truly understand the meaning of the phrase, “hindsight is 20/20.”

LEARNING COMMUNITY

FROM DR. MELISSA SER

Director of Education
mser@adatshalom.org

Adat Shalom-Beth Achim Learning Plan 2020-2021

We have spent this summer confronting the unique challenges that COVID-19 presents to our learning community. As Jewish educators, we are motivated by the Talmudic statement in Shabbat 119b that “the world only exists because of the learning of schoolchildren.” But as Jews, and as your friends and neighbors, we are always bound to make pikuach nefesh, the preservation of life and health, our top priority. After many hours of consultations with medical advisors, health and safety authorities for local public schools, colleagues across the country, and parents of our students, we have concluded that holding classes in person in our building at this time is not in the best interests of our students, staff, and community.

But every challenge is also an opportunity. Through much thought and energy, we have come up with a plan that provides our students with a meaningful, productive, and safe path forward during these times. The program outlined below balances the needs of families and teachers and provides quality learning that meets our educational philosophy: teach each child according to their needs, so that they will flourish. Until it is safe to return to our building, students will learn online with their teachers and friends, in both group classes and one-on-one sessions. But online doesn't mean boring or disengaged. There will be cooking competitions, trivia and games, escape room activities, virtual tours, and more. We have made massive efforts to design and train our teachers for this program, and even though the changes entail added costs, we have decided not to pass those costs on to you, but to keep tuition as it has been. And while this new remote learning plan is exciting in its own right, we are also prepared to return to in-person classes in our building, as soon as it is safe to do so. As things continue to evolve, we will evaluate our program and make changes as necessary.

Ikar: Core Learning

All of our students learn about Torah, Jewish values, life cycle events, the Jewish year, culture, Israel, history, and more. Wednesdays are dedicated to a focus on Israel, making sure our students have the background they will need as they grow. Ikar sessions also include games to get children moving around, and activities to build and maintain friendships.

K'riah u'Tefillah: Hebrew & Prayer

Every student in grades 2-7 will have a 30 minute weekly Hebrew lesson, one-on-one, with the same teacher. Students will continue to master the liturgy by reading, chanting, and understanding core vocabulary and prayer concepts. Students learn at their own pace with a dedicated teacher.

B'chirah: Choose Your Own Path

When students have choices, they are more engaged. Students will explore topics they are interested in, during two different sessions each week. These topics will include: Israel Exploration with our Shinshinim, Maker Space Challenge, Drumming, Tikkun Olam, Art Exploration, Torah Lego, Cooking by Parashah, Modern Hebrew Speaking, You be the Judge Debates, God and Prayer, and Hebrew reading practice in small groups. We are planning for three rotations, so students can experience up to six different topics throughout the year.

Guided Independent Study

Does your family want to learn something together? Is your child fascinated by a topic that's not part of our Core Curriculum? This is your opportunity to have a guided independent study online with a faculty member or one of our clergy.

Of course, in true Nosh & Drash fashion, we will be doing this by creating our own Escape Rooms and Kahoots, going on virtual field trips, and having guest presenters from around the world. We will be reducing tuition for Nosh & Drash to $200 for the year, as we will not be providing dinners.

Our classes will take place via Zoom using Eastern Michigan University's Canvas platform. Registration closes in mid-August; if your 9th-12th grader is interested in taking Hebrew this year, please be in touch with me directly!

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

Teens Make a Big Impact During Youth United Interfaith Service Camp

In August, our teens will be participating in the 3rd Annual Youth United Interfaith Service Camp to benefit C.A.R.E.S of Farmington Hills. This year it has been adapted to a virtual platform. Teens will gather online together daily during the program and then complete projects on their own designed by the planning committee. Many of the volunteer projects directly benefit clients of C.A.R.E.S. The mission of C.A.R.E.S. is to offer comprehensive support services for individuals and their families in and around the Farmington Hills area that are in need of or have limited access to everyday necessities due to insufficient financial resources or family instability. C.A.R.E.S. offers needed support in the areas of food, clothing, job education and training as well as access to other community and county support services – all on one campus. To learn more about C.A.R.E.S., caresfh.org/.

This is a huge multifaceted service program. Melissa Ser, Sammi Shapiro and I had the pleasure of working with professionals and volunteers from other communities of faith to implement and lead along with teen leaders throughout Youth United. We look forward to continuing the relationships we created with our neighbors and new friends. It was an impactful program on so many levels.

Melissa Ser and Sammi Shapiro held a physically distant school planning meeting.

August 21 is the first day of the month of Elul. This is the month leading up to Tishrei which includes: Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret, and Simchat Torah. That's a lot of holidays! Elul is traditionally used as a time to prepare for these holidays. There are a lot of ways to prepare. During this time, we should ask ourselves questions. What is something I struggled with this past year? What is a challenge I faced? How did I help others? Did I take care of myself?

This Elul I challenge families to reflect together and as individuals. Maybe the whole family can dedicate 10 minutes a day to journal and answer these questions. Try making a Reflective Paper Chain for your Sukkah. Each day every family member can write or draw their response to a question on a strip of paper. Keep adding on to your chain and you will have a beautiful (and long) chain to put in your Sukkah. Oh, you don't build a Sukkah? We can help with that or you can put it up around your house.

I'd love to see all the chains you make during our family holiday programming. Take pictures, use it as your background on the next Zoom call. Make a chain and notice how we build off of each other and support each other even during challenging times but especially take note that even if you don't always do something well, your family and community are there to help you grow.

Nosh & Drash

MONDAY NIGHT SCHOOL

8-12 graders gather every Monday night to eat, chat, learn, and explore Jewish topics of interest to them.

Led by Education Director Dr. Melissa Ser, CJE, along with clergy and other educators, Nosh & Drash is where teens go to have fun while learning to "adult" Jewishly.

Thank you for letting us know..

Subject: A message from Rabbi Bergman for our neighbors in pain

Rabbi...this time

Thank you for putting into exact words... that all of us should be thinking of....no!.... not just thinking of.. but taking an active action to finally bring about needed civil change. I was on the streets of Detroit in 1967 and again when MLK's rights and life were taken from him. This more than saddens my heart it scares me back to my memories

I'm not sure what the form of that my involvement will be. The world is working at hyper speed to eradicate COVID19....but how do we create a "vaccine" to eradicate "racism??? Thank you so much for your inspiration during this period of history affecting all of mankind.

- Paul Goldsmith

Subject: Adult B'nai Mitzvah

You (Rabbi Shere) are so thoughtful to send me the picture of the plaques!! Their light hopefully shines within me and within all my kids! Honestly, a day doesn't go by when I don't get a text from one of my kids that says something they did or saw that reminds them of my mom or dad!

I loved the whole process of learning to become a bat mitzvah! I enjoyed the classes and learning with Rabbi Bergman, Hazzan and Michael. I always felt something was missing when I went to shul but now that I've learned the tropes I feel very complete in a prayer setting.

Honestly, I am so thankful to all of you at Adat Shalom for bringing in services on Zoom. It has been so wonderful to participate so that the days in lockdown don't blend together. I feel now more than ever to really make that distinction between Shabbat and the rest of the week! The classes are so stimulating and I feel so inspired from all the learning! I couldn't get through this epidemic without my synagogue and faith at this time!

Thank you for all your kind words today. It was a wonderful experience!
 - Joyce Sherman

Each month we list birthdays and anniversaries of those congregants who have given us the dates of their "special occasions." If you would like to be listed in this column, please notify Susie Steinberg at ssteinberg@adatshalom.org

If your family has celebrated a birth or a wedding, or if you have received a special honor, please let us know that as well.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tribute Contribution

ADAT SHALOM'S tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set a $18 minimum price for tribute cards.

We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes, marking life cycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support. Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please visit our website adatshalom.org/donate or call the office at 248.851.5100.

Tributes received by the 1st of the month will appear in the following month's VOICE.

If you would like information about how to establish a fund, please contact Executive Director Alan Yost.
