FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOAN CHERNOFF EPSTEIN

Welcome to a new year, full of all the promise of new beginnings; but also full of new challenges and transitions— and the changes they all may bring. We are often unprepared for change when it takes place. I remember as a child when my father told our family we'd be moving. I feared what changes our move would bring to my small world: a new home, a new neighborhood, a new school, and new friendships.

The Torah is full of stories of the changes our people endured, and how they coped with loss of their possessions, homes, family and lands. As I reflect on this time of year, I can't believe how time has flown by. It has been 16 years since my youngest son, Brandon, was having his Bar Mitzvah. Brandon's Torah portion was Bo. Moses and Aaron warned Pharaoh of the coming plagues if he did not free the Israelites, yet Pharaoh continued to deny their freedom. When he finally told them to go, can you imagine the changes they endured? Having to pack up their most precious possessions and some rations, then leave everything familiar to go live in a foreign land? Those were some serious hardships they overcame.

Time passes, things change, life throws us curve balls. Yet we adapt and persevere. This past year brought us so many changes we never anticipated, and we adapted and persevered. Our Synagogue has seen many changes: going to services on Zoom; holding remote meetings, programs, social events, and classes; adding new members; and losing congregants to death, moves, divorce or affiliation changes. Yet one thing that is constant is your unwavering support. I am so appreciative of the commitment and generosity of our congregation. I want to personally thank you for responding to the Yom Kippur appeal so openheartedly. This helped us meet the continuing challenges of serving you during a pandemic. I also offer a special thank you to Joyce Weingarten, Jackie Issner, and Alan Yost, who joined me in our special outreach to many congregants.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS THE MOST TRAGIC PROBLEM IS SILENCE

Rabbi Joachim Prinz may not be a household name, but he played an important part in a historic American event. Prinz, a young rabbi in Nazi Germany, immigrated to the United States in 1937 and had firsthand knowledge of the ugly effects of prejudice and discrimination.

In the mid- to late 20th century, Prinz was the rabbi of Temple B'nai Abraham in Newark, New Jersey and served as President of the American Jewish Congress. He represented the Jewish community as one of the organizers of the August 1963 March on Washington, whose focus on bigotry and oppression remains relevant in our own time. Rabbi Prinz had the honored but formidable task of speaking to the crowd of a quarter million people immediately after the great folk singer Odetta and before the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. An excerpt of Rabbi Prinz's stirring speech follows:

When I was the rabbi of the Jewish community in Berlin under the Hitler regime, . . . the most important thing that I learned under those tragic circumstances was that bigotry and hatred are not the most urgent problems. The most urgent, the most disgraceful, the most shameful and the most tragic problem is silence.

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

I am always amazed and impressed by how many of our people risk themselves, either financially or physically, in order to help other people, including those who might hate them for being Jewish. Antisemitism never goes away, but neither does our people's commitment to making things better in the world.

Israel continues to send help all over the world, including nations that do not recognize its right to exist. American Jews help all Americans, even though antisemitism is increasing on the right and the left. So many Jews help other Jews who do not recognize the kind of Judaism they practice.

There might be some benefit to us in doing so; maybe people will think more kindly about us.

That is not the reason that Jews are willing to take a chance to help. It is just the right thing to do. I think that is one of our most powerful qualities, and one that we constantly need to nurture.

This idea is the core of the story of Purim, and why the book of the Tanach that tells that story is called the Book of Esther.

Mordechai learned that the Jewish people in Persia were in danger of being destroyed by Haman. He asked his niece Esther to risk everything by hiding her Jewish identity and marry King Achashverosh. She was to persuade him to save her people, even though she cannot tell him that she herself is Jewish.

She gave up a lot just by marrying him. She saw what happened to the last wife, Vashti. He had a lot of other women in the harem, any of whom could have replaced her. He was no prize himself. He drank a lot and tried to impress his friends, who were all eunuchs, with his romantic successes. He had a bad temper. She could have been killed at any moment.

She did not have to risk her life. She could have stayed where she was, or once she was queen, she did not have to tell Achashverosh anything, and just stay rich and safe in the palace.

She did not do that. She had no reason to think that what she did would work. Haman was a smart and powerful enemy. She risked it all because it was the right thing. She saved the Jewish people. She saved her whole country, because Haman would not have stopped with Jews. Hatred and paranoia doesn't limit itself to just one group.

Mordechai may have come up with the plan, but it was only Esther's courage that made it possible. That is why the book is named after her, and not Mordechai.

This is what we have always done as a people, and need to do so in the future. We are not here just save ourselves, nor should we think that we should, but look to save the world, one person, one place at a time, no matter how impossible it seems.

We are living in a world where it seems like everyone is trying just to save themselves or just their family and friends, and do not seem to care about others. This is not the Jewish way. We are in a scary and uncertain time in so many ways, but the way we have gotten through these difficulties is not by being selfish, but by helping all of God's creation, including those we like and those we do not. In the long run, it has helped us survive when other people who only cared about themselves have vanished.

Giving in to fear, hate and despair seems inevitable, especially when we are so tired of trying to deal with an endless number of challenges. This is not who we are. Esther reminds us to always be brave and to take chances on doing good.

FROM JODI GROSS

Director of Adult Learning & Youth Engagement
jgross@adatshalom.org

We've reached the midpoint of our year. Just twelve months ago, COVID-19 was far away and unthreatening. Yet within weeks, we realized we might need to pivot - and we did. Without much training, and with almost no equipment, we rallied through the end of the school year and planned to make 2020-2021 as exciting as we could. The teachers who make this happen on a weekly basis are rock stars who have risen to the occasion, recreated their educational programming, explored and learned new technologies, and continued to engage and connect with their students. As we move into 2021, I could not be more thrilled with the faculty and staff of our educational program!

Kudos to Halli Tarockoff (Pre-K), Shelly Tarockoff (K), Marilyn Wolfe (1), Rivkah Nachlas (2), Ettie Schargorodsky (3), Abbi Emerson (4 and 7), Emily Hollenberg (4), Faith Brasch (5), Ariel Stollman (6), and Sammi Shapiro (Assistant Director and 7). Jodi Gross is doing an extraordinary job training and supervising our teen madrichim (classroom assistants), and they, in turn, are helping to make the online learning platform run smoothly. I enjoy teaching Nosh & Drash on Monday evenings, and though our crew is small, we are exploring history and look forward to sharing our research on Adat Shalom's Holocaust Torah scroll with the congregation. Our Hebrew faculty, along with our classroom teachers, are meeting with students 1:1 to work on Hebrew reading and prayer skills. Cillia Kleiman, Hadass Zaid, Adina Levin, Aron Kaufman, Rochel Nachlas, Debby Stybel (who also makes sure all of our students' learning needs are met), thank you for all you do

I really believe that we have, thus far, been successful, and as I reach out to families regularly, I am so grateful for the feedback we are receiving.

From everything I can hear, our daughter is engaged and enjoying the Hebrew school lessons, and her Hebrew teacher is lovely. She gets very into her Lego creations and apart from all the yelling ("Who is that jumping on my bed!?! Is that you!?!"), Minecraft seems to be going well. - Parent of 4th grader

We couldn't be happier or more grateful for the wonderful programming Adat Shalom is offering. You are honestly doing an amazing job and our son's Hebrew lessons seem to be going well. - Parent of K and 2nd graders.

Our daughter LOVES the photography class. It is her favorite part of the week. She was really nervous being the only person in her class [at first] but she is having a blast and we are really impressed with what she is learning. I just have to say that this class has been a light in this dark time. She loves it! - Parent of 2nd grader.

The Tradition Continues... Congregation-Wide Volunteer Day for Everyone

Together we can spread kindness! Even the smallest acts of generosity can have a big impact. Shimon Hatzadik (the righteous) taught, "By three things the world exists: on the Torah (study), on avodah (worship) and on gemilut hasidim (acts of loving kindness)." (Mishna, Pirkei Avot 1:2). Volunteering and spreading kindness right now are more essential than ever.

The Volunteer Day Planning Committee is continuing the tradition of planning meaningful projects to benefit our special partnerships with organizations improving lives throughout Metro Detroit. This year, we are having VOLUNTEER DAY IN A BOX!!!

Each box will be full of projects that kids, families and adults can easily complete at home. The step-by-step guide on how to complete the projects also includes a variety of additional project ideas (and instructions) you are welcome to choose to do. The Volunteer Day committee will sort and distribute the projects. This annual day of acts of kindness (gemilut hasidim) is possible thanks to a dedicated committee of volunteers from the Learning Community, Youth Department, Tikkun Adat, the Men's Club and the Sisterhood. (see the back cover for more info.)

Steps:

1. Sign up to receive a Volunteer Day in a Box. Advance sign up required.
2. On Sunday, January 17 between 1:00-3:00 pm come to our drive-thru box pick up at Adat Shalom.
3. You will have two weeks to complete the projects.
4. On Sunday, January 31 between 1:00 - 3:00 pm, drop-off your completed projects, unused supplies from the box, and additional completed projects and/or donations.

The deadline to reserve your box of projects is Wednesday, January 6. www.adatshalom.org/volunteerday2021.

This month we celebrate Rosh Chodesh for the start of the new month, Shevat. You probably guessed that Tu B'shevat (the celebration of the New Year of the trees) will occur this month. While the chilly Michigan winter only has us dreaming of springtime and the regrowth of our flora, in Israel, the rainy winter is readying the earth for regrowth. Here are some activities your family can do to celebrate trees:

GROW PARSLEY

1. Decorate a pot
2. Fill with potting soil
3. Plant parsley seeds
4. Watch it grow
5. Enjoy on Pesach

PLANT A TREE IN ISRAEL

<https://usa.jnf.org/jnf-tree-planting-center/>

MAKE A FAMILY TREE

1. On a large piece of poster board draw/paint the trunk and branches of a tree
2. Add leaves (painted, drawn, dried)
3. Add family photos

For an interesting discussion ask: how are our families like trees? What are some things that make your family/tree unique?

DIRECTOR OF SPIRITUALITY AND OUTREACH

We read the following in Parashat Va'era: "I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and I will give it to you for a MORASHA (heritage), I the Lord." (Exodus 6:8)

MORASHA – Heritage; literally, property (particularly land) transmitted by inheritance.

In the song we sing while marching with the Torah - Torah, Torah, Torah, Torah, Torah Torah, Torah Tzivah lanu Moshe, Morasha K'helat Ya'acov... "And when Moses charged us with the Teaching as the heritage of the congregation of Jacob." (Devarim 33:4), Morasha is a metaphor for a spiritual possession, connoting something vital and cherished.

Thursday, January 14 is Rosh Chodesh Shevat. It was on the first day of Shevat that Moses began to deliver his final address to Israel. For thirty-seven days, Moses spoke to all Israel concluding on the seventh of Adar, the day of his death. It is for this reason that the Rabbis said that Rosh Chodesh Shevat is comparable to the sixth of Sivan, Shavuot, the day on which the Torah was given to Israel at Sinai. The Rabbis teach that the first of Shevat is well suited for renewed inspiration in the study of Torah!

Pirkei Avot, Chapter 2 Mishnah 12: "Rabbi Yosse said: Let the property of your fellow be as precious to you as your own; and make yourself fit for the study of Torah, for it is not yours by inheritance..." In the second part, Rabbi Yosse is teaching us that Torah study is hard work. The Torah does not pass genetically from parent to child and no one acquires it without the necessary mental exertion...I hope you will take time for yourself to get more physically fit and more spiritually fit - come visit us on zoom - let's learn together!

OUR ADAT COMMUNITY

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood is at a crossroad, and the direction we choose to take is up to you! Initially we made a two-year commitment to help guide our Sisterhood membership. We have since agreed to extend our leadership one more year while we work as a group on how best to proceed. We know that the pandemic has taken the focus away from business as usual, but we cannot continue as we are at the present. We need to look toward the future.

The time has come to examine and to re-structure Sisterhood. Our suggestion is that we start to form committees to discuss Sisterhood's direction and long-term focus. We need to address how we build our membership, how we want to proceed with programming, and how we increase involvement in the Sisterhood of Adat Shalom and the larger community as a whole. We encourage you to become active and let's get to work.

We would like to hear your thoughts and recommendations. Please feel free to contact us. Thank you for all your support.

THE TORAH FUND theme for 2020-2021 is B'Yachad, which means, 'Together'. It signifies the joy of Sisterhood members working together year-round to make important contributions to the Jewish community through their volunteer efforts at synagogues across the United States and Canada. Together, since 1942, the modest contributions of thousands of individuals to Torah Fund have helped to educate and train each generation of rabbis, cantors, scholars, educators, summer camp directors, chaplains, campus Jewish life staff, and committed lay leaders.

"Reel" Women in Film!

From Fanny Brice to Wonder Woman

Guest speaker, Mara Reinstein

Film critic for Us Weekly and SiriusXM Volume and a Top Critic on Rotten Tomatoes

Thursday, January 21 at 7:00 pm

Fanny Brice, Thelma, Louise, Wonder Woman... are some of the heroines that have helped shape the modern woman experience in film. These characters — and the fierce, non-conformist actresses who played them—shattered stereotypes, stirred our emotions and changed the way we think. Who are these groundbreakers and why are their movies more relevant than ever?

OUR ADAT COMMUNITY

SISTERHOOD/SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

Although we haven't been able to meet in person since February, the Knitting Circle has been very productive!

We knitted 34 hats for Israeli soldiers and sent them to Camp Gamla North/military headquarters, an Israeli Defense Force army base in the Golan Heights. This is the base that Adat Shalom members visited as part of the 2018 Israel trip.

We donated scarves, hats, blankets and mittens that our group made to several organizations that serve those less fortunate. These organizations are:

Say Detroit, founded by Mitch Albom to improve the lives of Detroit's neediest citizens

Heart to Hart, an organization dedicated to helping Detroit's homeless population

Blessings in a Backpack, which supports at risk students in our community (thank you note is in the thing on your office door)

Haven of Oakland County, which provides shelter and support services for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault

As a result of Adat Shalom members generously donating yarn for these projects, our bins were overflowing. In early November we moved the bins outside so that knitters could drive up and take yarn that will keep them busy during the long stay at home winter, replenishing our scarf and hat supply.

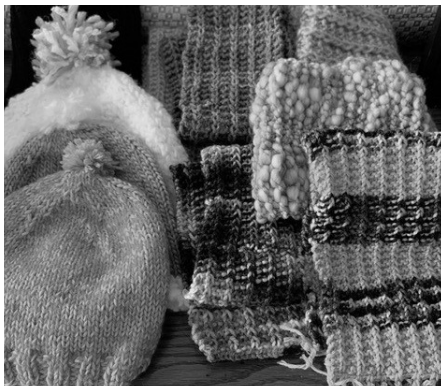

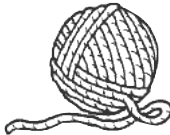

Thank you to Beryl Levin for spearheading the Israeli soldier hat project, Debby Portney, and Marilyn Rudick for distributing scarves, Beverly Yost and Sharon Moss Lebovic for sorting yarn and staffing the drive by yarn pickup, synagogue members who donated yarn, and all of the knitters for their creations, which will make a difference in the lives of many. Kol haKavod!

If you would like more information, or to participate in the knitting project, please contact Beverly Yost at bevvieby@gmail.com, or Debby Portney at debbyportney@gmail.com.

A note of appreciation:

We are so grateful to you for sharing your talents and your love with our Blessings in a Backpack children! They will feel your warmth around their necks each day they wear your beautiful scarves! May this "Season of the Heart" bring you much happiness and good health. Best wishes for a wonderful 2021 year!

Yours,
Kathy Sheiko, Chairperson
Blessings in a Backpack, West Bloomfield/Keego Harbor

SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION

LIGHTHOUSE - SOUTH OAKLAND SHELTER

On Saturday, November 21, Lighthouse - South Oakland Shelter, had their annual Dancing with the Stars fundraiser. Rabbi Rachel Shere was one of the celebrity dancers. Although we were not able to support their clients at Adat Shalom this summer due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we were able to make a very generous contribution to this event to support their mission. Thank you to Dr. Harry Maisel and the Hillel Isaac and Rachel Maisel Memorial Housing the Homeless Fund for making this possible.

It is our hope that we will be able to have the guests from SOS back in our house this summer. This will be our 25th year of partnering with SOS in providing a safe and welcoming environment for the men, women and children experiencing homelessness.

YAD EZRA

Yad Ezra is making plans for 2021! Currently, they are only delivering groceries and there is no direct contact with the clients. We will continue to support their efforts in making sure that no one in the community is in need of food. If you would like to help deliver groceries, contact Darlene Roth at 248.548.3663 or darlene@yadezra.org.

VOLUNTEER DAY, SUNDAY, JANUARY 17

As with everything else this year, Volunteer Day will look different but will continue to do great things for the community.

One of the agencies that will benefit from the activities is Hope Hospitality and Warming Center and Hope Recuperative Center. Pre-COVID, Hope was dependent on groups to prepare and serve dinners every night of the year. Adat Shalom made dinner for four nights in December. Currently they are receiving food from community agencies and donations that are dropped off. To support their food needs, our families can make sandwiches, and bring individually packaged snacks and drinks to give to the clients for lunch. They are also in need of hotel sized toiletries.

Hope Restorative Center, for those who are homeless and have medical needs, is in need of fleece blankets. The materials needed to complete a blanket will also be available on Volunteer Day.

Stay well and safe!

Thank you to everyone who donated shoes and boots.

Your donations will be sent to people in need in Africa through a large shoe drive at Mary Helen Guest Elementary School in Walled Lake Consolidated Schools. Special thanks to Hillary Glaser, Adat Shalom member and PTA President of Mary Helen Guest, for coordinating this huge shoe collection project.

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS...BY LON ZABACK

The crisp November air was warmed with clergy, friends, and a bonfire at the Men's Club annual 'Chill'n with the Clergy' event. The bonfire was a 'Plan B' proposal as a way to get men together without going to a restaurant. The positive feedback from this outside and in-person event raised it to an 'A-list' that we're sure to do again. A Yasher Koach to Jaron Freidman and Allen Weiss for making this event a success.

We have booked more opportunities for you to participate in 'Thoughtful Thursdays' programming with Rabbi Bergman through February. In November we explored America and Israel's role in the world and the contrasting views about what Israelis want and need from American Jews and what American Jews want and need from Israelis. It was enlightening to learn about how Israelis view diaspora Jewry and to come away with new perspectives. Join us on January 14, and 28, and on February 11, for more thought-provoking topics and discussions.

You may have noticed the updated calendar and that we have moved our Men's Retreat with Rabbi Bergman to the Spring in hopes that we can meet in person. In its place, and to maintain our spiritual connection, we have added a Men's Club Shabbat on Saturday, February 13. We're excited that Men's Club members will share leadership of the service on that day. Please contact Alan Gallatin at amg@pobox.com for more information or to volunteer.

We're looking forward to our Annual Health Awareness Breakfast on February 21. Its BYOB (bring your own breakfast) on Zoom this year. We promise a captivating speaker that will serve up healthy ideas for your body and soul. Please look for details for this and other events in upcoming emails, synagogue announcements, and on our web page.

The Adat Shalom Men's Club takes pride in being able to engage men of all ages in social and spiritual events and provide Tikkun Olam opportunities. Please reach out to me for more information.

Even with all the changes we have endured, there is comfort in the familiarity of what the changing months and seasons bring. Now in Tevet and Shevat, we in Michigan face cold temperatures and snow, while in Israel there is hope for rain to water the newly planted trees during Tu Bishvat. I enjoy the thought of the beauty those trees will bring when they are nourished by the rains and blossom in the springtime. Change can be good; it can bring growth. A few months ago, I watched on Zoom as many congregations came together for a community Havdalah. Rabbis from around the area participated. Our Rabbi Bergman said, in part, "may we as Jews find joy in spite of what is happening around us."

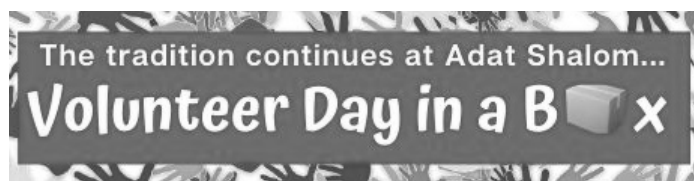

Let us find joy in small blessings around us. I am still apprehensive about changes to my now much larger world, but am comforted to know that I have the strength of our ancestors to persevere. May we all take a breath—actually several breaths—for ourselves, our families, and our friends, and help one another restore and revive.

A great people which had created a great civilization had become a nation of silent onlookers. They remained silent in the face of hate, in the face of brutality and in the face of mass murder.

America must not become a nation of onlookers. America must not remain silent. Not merely black America, but all of America. It must speak up and act from the President down to the humblest of us, and . . . not for the sake of the black community but for the sake of the image, the dream, the idea and the aspiration of America itself.

While this country has made some progress in the battle against racism, there is still much work to be done. The current resurgence of public acts of hatred needs to be countered with positive action and love. As we observe Martin Luther King Jr. Day on January 18 and Black History Month in February, let us never forget the words of Dr. King: "The ultimate tragedy is not the oppression and cruelty by the bad people but the silence over that by the good people."

Supplies that we will be assembling to support organizations throughout Metro Detroit.
