MESSAGES

FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOAN CHERNOFF EPSTEIN

I look back on the origins of Adat Shalom - even before Rabbi Segal - when our founders sought a more inclusive, open, and transparent approach to Conservative Judaism. Those early members came from all over Detroit and with family origins from many countries.

They brought with them different ideas, customs, and languages, but shared a belief in the power a diverse group can bring to a synagogue for it to thrive, adapt, and grow.

Today, as I speak with members I have known for years, and as I meet so many new members, I see that same wonderfully uniting, inclusive philosophy amongst the congregation. And I see the same commitment to openness. Not only are we open to new ideas and new ways of doing things, but we also welcome members old and new with open arms - figuratively over the last year and a half, but physically too very soon, God willing!

I offer my sincere thanks to those of you who helped us by completing your questionnaires. I am also grateful to the reopening committee who worked in conjunction with the clergy and the board to determine how and when we can be together. With our "yesterdays" behind us, today we have cautiously and slowly begun the process to re-enter the life that we all crave. The CDC, along with national and local governments, has guided us all along this path. With the upmost consideration of a carefully crafted opening, in June we opened our doors for morning minyan and Shabbat, and for meetings and gatherings. We will also continue our beautiful Outdoor Kabbalat Shabbat services on August 6. We are grateful to be planning in-person High Holy Days services and will continue to make services available via Zoom. You can read more about the services and programs being offered in this issue of The Voice. Weekly emails will provide more details throughout the summer.

This pandemic time has been a struggle for me and for you, and I feel a moral responsibility to you to re-open in a responsible way. Events and restrictions seem to change by the minute, but our leadership is committed to ensuring your safety and comfort as we inch our way back to more familiar ways of doing things.

Adat Shalom has been a place where we feel comfortable and where we are comforted. A place where we have had roots planted by those before us, and where we have planted our own roots. Throughout this pandemic we have held out our hands even though we have not been able to touch one another. We have watched and listened and participated from afar.

I feel excitement and gratitude building into a sense of renewal for all of us. We have so much to look forward to this summer: welcoming Rabbi Horwitz and Director of Spiritual Care, Rabbi Nosanwisch and their refreshing approaches to traditional ideas; offering outdoor services and activities to participate in; and seeing one another's smiles emerge from face coverings! I encourage you to read Rabbi Horwitz's article in this Voice, or drop into one of his Lunchtime Learning sessions; and do some learning and cooking with Rabbi Nosanwisch's Pickle Torah, exploring the balance between tradition and progress, while making your own pickles too.

Here we are in the summer of 2021, and we thought we'd be together much sooner. We can all cheer now that the doors are again thrown wide open!

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

As the world starts to reopen it is important for each of us to spend some time thinking about who we are and who we aspire to be. The High Holidays ask important questions: What matters the most and what are we doing about it? The time leading up to the Holidays is an opportunity for us to reevaluate and recalibrate our lives, to make sure that we are living in the best and most meaningful ways possible.

The farewell speech by President Shimon Peres, z"l, from July 2014 resonated very deeply with me. He talked about the greatness of which Israel is capable, but also what the entire Jewish people could be. As you begin your own preparations, I hope these words are a source of inspiration for your own spiritual journey:

Farewell Address to the Knesset by Shimon Peres

Israel, this small country, became a truly great state.

I know of no other country on the face of the earth or throughout history, which amazed and surprised so much.

Gathering in its people. Making its wilderness bloom. Resurrected from the ruins, surviving a terrible Holocaust. Fighting back in seven wars. Bringing a language back to life. Respecting its traditions and adopting modernity.

And at the same building a country which continues to develop. A country which carries values and practices democracy. A country without natural resources, which utilized instead the resourcefulness of its people. Our human resource is far more precious than wells of oil or mines of gold. A country which was established upon a historical core and became an outstanding state in the new scientific world. A country of song. A country of literature. A country which seeks peace day and night.

We are a people that experienced unimaginable agony. And we are a people that reached the lofty heights of human achievement. We made great efforts. We paid a heavy price.

We will never forget our brothers and sisters who perished in the Holocaust. We will remember those who fell in battle, who brought new life to a redeemed people.

We returned. We built. We fought. We prayed. Until we began to see contours that even surprised us. We are an ancient people who are getting older. We are a people, first and foremost, that rebuilds itself time and again.

Israel was born as a precedent and created precedents. Despite being small in number among the nations, our people carried a faith as great as any. The first to rebel against prejudice was Moses. A nation that rebelled against Pharaoh. That smashed idols. That shattered illusions. A nation that walked through the desert to reach its home, its destiny.

We climbed the mountains and came down with the tablets, with the Ten Commandments which became the foundations upon which our nation was built and which were adopted by Western civilization.

We continue and will continue with this great legacy. There are still idols to be smashed, slaves to free, lives to save and justice to uphold. There is still a world to fix. Even if we remain the minority among the nations. Even if we serve as a target for evil - we will not deviate from our moral heritage.

MESSAGES

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS
Tu B'Av - Israel's Valentine's Day

According to the Mishna (Tractate Ta'anit), the two most festive days of the year were considered to be Yom Kippur and Tu B'Av. Hard to believe, right? How can Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, be a happy holiday?

According to our sages it was because this holy day symbolized God's forgiveness of Israel for the sin of the golden calf, resulting in the happy occasion of Moses receiving the second set of tablets containing the ten commandments.

I want to focus on the other most festive day mentioned in the Mishna: Tu B'Av. Many people are not even aware that such a holiday exists. Tu B'Av literally means the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Av. Tu is made up of the Hebrew letters tet (U), which represents 9 and vav (I) which represents 6, thus adding up to the number 15. Tu B'Av is one of four holidays that fall in the middle of the month, at the peak of the full moon, the others being Sukkot (15 Tishrei), Tu B'Shvat (15 Shevat), and Pesach (15 Nisan).

The Mishna says that Tu B'Av marked the beginning of the grape harvest and Yom Kippur marked the end of the grape harvest - hence the linking of these two holidays agriculturally. Tu B'Av also marked the wood offering brought to the Temple, a crucial element not only needed for the sacrifices but for the Ner Tamid (eternal light) as well.

Most significantly, Tu B'Av has historically been regarded as a Jewish day of love. The Mishna describes how on Tu B'Av, the unmarried women of Jerusalem would go out and dance in the vineyards and be chosen to be partners in marriage. Moreover, on Tu B'Av, women and men from the different tribes of Israel were allowed to ignore earlier prohibitions against intertribal marriage. Although mostly forgotten for centuries, Tu B'Av in modern Israel today is considered a holiday of romance, much like Valentine's Day, celebrated with dancing, singing, and exchanging of flowers, and is a popular date for weddings.

While we tend to associate the month of Av with sadness because of Tisha B'Av (commemorating the destruction of the Temples), keep in mind that right around the corner is Tu B'Av, a day of utmost happiness. In Jewish tradition, we embrace the concept of moving from darkness to light. The month of Av is the perfect representation of this beautiful and powerful idea.

Israel will uphold social justice and will raise its eyes to the realized dream of its prophets. Israel will continue to be Jewish in its legacy and democratic in its practices. It will safeguard freedom of speech and freedom of research. It will continue to excel in its scientific level on a global scale. It will be a moral country. A country which will practice equality for all its citizens - Jews, Muslims, Christians, Druze, Bedouins, and Circassians. So we promised in our Declaration of Independence. So we proclaimed in our book of laws.

During my visits to the many unique and diverse corners of Israel, I entered each place with an explorer's curiosity and returned with a heart full of pride. I discovered everywhere, and every time, hard-working people, endless talent, wonderful children and surprises which cannot be described.

May this vision of President Peres guide us in the coming year and years to come.

FROM RABBI DANIEL S. HORWITZ
GREETINGS ADAT SHALOM FAMILY!

It's a pleasure to have the chance to share a few words with you via The Voice for the first time.

For so many of us, the HiHos (as I like to call the High Holidays) seem to just appear out of nowhere. We're living our daily lives, and then suddenly it's "Oh my! Rosh Hashanah is only a few days away!" And then, we scramble to menu prep and cook, and maybe pick out a flattering outfit.

But often we don't make the time to spiritually prepare for what can be the peak of our spiritual year. Showing up to High Holiday services (whether in person or virtually) without doing any sort of self-work ahead of time is like showing up to play on Opening Day without having gotten into shape during spring training.

Fortunately, our tradition has a built-in spiritual technology to help prepare us for the HiHos - the month of Elul. Each day of Elul (which this year begins Sunday evening, August 8th) provides an opportunity to do the spiritual "practice" necessary to prepare ourselves.

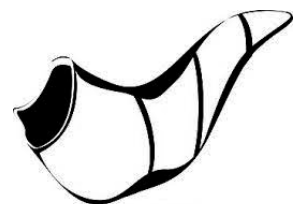

During the month, we traditionally read Psalm 27 twice daily (the first half of which focuses on assurance, and the second half of which entails a desperate search for the Divine, encouraging us to focus on integrating the parts of ourselves which are seeking support with the parts that feel secure so that we can be holistically one heading into the New Year), and we also blow the shofar at the end of minyan each weekday morning, reminding us with its piercing sound that Yom Tru'ah (the Biblical name for Rosh Hashanah which translates as "the day of [shofar] blasting") is approaching.

Thus, it only seemed logical that we organize a shofar-blast-a-day social media campaign that also features a short teaching on Psalm 27, so that those who aren't daily minyan-goers can still hear the shofar and a bit of Psalm 27 each day of Elul online! Keep an eye out for our daily Facebook and Instagram posts each morning beginning August 9th!

With Elul beginning in the coming weeks, I encourage us all to find ways - whether by utilizing the traditional ones mentioned above, or new ones that are personally meaningful - to start getting ourselves ready for the HiHos, so that we'll be ready for our spirits to soar together on the Opening Day of 5782!

Calling All Shofar Blowers

Would like to participate in our shofar-blast-a-day social media campaign? If yes, please create a video of you blowing at least one shofar note. Send the video to Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org by Monday, July 19. Thank you!

MESSAGES

FROM RABBI BLAIR NOSANWISCH
DIRECTOR OF SPIRITUAL CARE

When we encounter destruction, in our personal lives, in the news, in public or in private, how do we react? There is a peculiar story about Rabbi Akiva, a first century sage, who laughed when he saw the destroyed Temple Mount in Jerusalem. His peers wept and despaired at the sight of a fox scampering out of The Holy of Holies, as I imagine I would have, as we are still meant to do this time of year on the ninth of Av. Why did Rabbi Akiva laugh while the others cried? What did he understand about destruction that allowed him to approach it with such levity?

This Torah feels personal to me. I have a different way of dealing with despair and destruction than Rabbi Akiva and his peers. For me, I all too often deal with destruction by trying not to see it. Sometimes I do this by looking instead at my phone, and sometimes I do it by not reading the news, but the basic idea is the same. I manage my own despair by looking away.

Not so for these Talmudic ancestors. Whether laughing or crying, they all looked at the destruction before them - letting themselves feel the feelings of this unimaginable loss.

So, why was Rabbi Akiva able to laugh? The story (Makkot 24b) goes on to explain that he knew of two prophecies. In order for the one to come true, the other first needed to come to pass. When Rabbi Akiva saw a fox prancing across the ruined temple, he remembered the first prophecy: that the Temple would be reduced to rubble and, ostensibly, reforested. But this instantly connected him to a second more hopeful prophecy, later in the chronology of the Torah, which said: עוֹד יִשְׁבוּ זָקֵנִים וְזָקֵנוֹת בְּרִחוּבוֹת יְרוּשָׁלַם "There shall yet be elderly men and elderly women sitting in the streets of Jerusalem" (Zechariah 8:4).

It takes a great deal of strength to stare destruction head on and be able to stay grounded in the bigger picture. But what Rabbi Akiva knows in his bones could be summed up in the old adage, "This too shall pass." This is a spiritual perspective that we can cultivate in relation to our earthly toils. No matter how small, powerless, or overwhelmed we feel, we are always in the middle of a story that has already been and will continue to be told. As we begin to write the story of the next year of our lives, let's cultivate the ability to stand together and look boldly at the world before us, laughing and crying together, as much as we need.

FROM MICHAEL WOLF
DIRECTOR OF SPIRITUALITY AND OUTREACH

I am sharing an example of a 'One Minute Of Fun' teaching we have - every Sunday through Thursday between the afternoon and evening services - hope to see you back in the synagogue soon!

Tu B'Av - the Talmud states that: "There were no holidays so joyous for the Jewish People as the Fifteenth of Av ..." (Ta'anit 26b).

According to the Mishna, Tu B'Av was a joyous holiday in the days of the Temple in Jerusalem, marking the beginning of the grape harvest. Yom Kippur marked the end of the grape harvest. On both dates the unmarried girls of Jerusalem dressed in white garments and went out to dance in the vineyards. Each young lady would be dressed in white clothing borrowed from her neighbor so that those who came from wealthy families would not stand out and none would be embarrassed.

As they danced, the ladies would call out: "Young man, lift your eyes and choose wisely. Don't look only at physical beauty--look rather at the family [values], 'For charm is false, and beauty is deceitful. A God-fearing woman is the one to be praised ...'" (Proverbs 31:30).

Why such joy? Here are some of the reasons the rabbis offer for celebrating:

- It was on the 15th of Av when the prohibition of the rest of the Jewish tribes marrying into the tribe of Benjamin was lifted.
- It was on the 15th of Av when Hoshea ben Elah, the last king of the northern kingdom of Israel, removed the roadblocks set by Jereboam to prevent his subjects from making the pilgrimage to Jerusalem.
- The masses of Jews who were massacred when the Romans conquered the city of Betar in 133 CE were finally buried, on the 15th of Av.
- The 15th of Av was the final day when wood was cut for the Temple. When Ezra and Nehemiah returned to Jerusalem and rebuilt the Temple, they found that the enemies of Israel had cut down most of the trees, a common act for an army at that time. In order to supply wood for the Temple sacrifices, Jews would donate wood, which was desperately needed, and offer a sacrifice at the same time, called the "wood offering." The 15th of Av is considered the end of the sunny season, and it marked the date by which the wood in the Temple needed to be dry. It was a day of celebration for having amassed enough wood for the Temple's needs.

This year Tu B'Av falls on Shabbat Nachamu - July 24th.

Adat Shalom Synagogue High Holy Day Services

We are always delighted to get together with you for the holidays, and never more so than this year, when we can be together in person. We know that the pandemic is not completely over, and that many people will have to continue to take precautions, but it feels like the dark clouds are parting and the light is emerging.

We are grateful to everyone in the incredible Adat Shalom community for staying connected during one of the most challenging times in recent history. It says so much about who we are, and why synagogues are essential to the future of the Jewish people.

As in previous years, there will be two parallel services, one in the sanctuary and the other in the social hall. The services themselves will be largely as they have been, but there will be a few differences. The first, and most important, is that we have added two stellar rabbis to our team, Rabbi Dan Horwitz and Rabbi Blair Nosanwisch, Director of Spiritual Care, both of whom will be facilitating the services. The next difference is that we will have the family services in the afternoon, in order for all the clergy to participate, and for it not to be too crowded in the morning.

We will continue to Zoom services from the sanctuary, in order that members at home will be able to see them and anyone else on Zoom. Anyone participating in the services with an honor, though, will have to be present in the building.

We look forward to a year of health, joy, meaning and happiness!

As we welcome 5782 and re-open our building, we have come to the inevitable conclusion that this is the year Adat Shalom needs a new kippah! With your help, we will begin the process of placing a needed new roof over our heads.

Year after year, you have generously provided the funds needed to support our efforts to maintain our beautiful building and keep our spiritual home financially secure, and we thank you.

Rabbi Jacob E. Segal z"l and Cantor Larry Vieder z"l identified the synagogue as the home of the Jewish people. A new roof over our heads would support that ideal. The funds raised will be directed to this cause. Again we strongly encourage you to be part of our future by making a monetary contribution toward this year's Yom Kippur Appeal.

Your financial support will help us live safe, healthy, and meaningful Jewish lives and create a future for our children and their children and for many generations to come together in our synagogue.

All members will receive a Yom Kippur Appeal tab card in the mail. Please remember to bring it with you when you come to services on Yom Kippur Day, Thursday, September 16.

Your Yom Kippur Appeal pledge may also be completed online at adatshalom.org/HHD2021.

ADULT LEARNING

Jodi Gross, Director of Adult Learning

The Art of Welcoming

LUNCHTIME LEARNING

led by Rabbi Horwitz

Seemingly every synagogue promotes that it is "warm and welcoming." What are the key ingredients that truly create a warm and welcoming communal environment for both regulars and newcomers?

We will explore the traditional texts, contemporary literature, and best practices from the field that can inform an intentional approach to welcoming others.

Mondays at Noon on July 19 and 26
at Adat Shalom in the Rosen/Wiener Pavilion*

*Outside on the porch, inside in the Pavilion if it rains

PIRKEI AVOT

with Rabbi Bergman

Fridays at 11:00 am

Starting August 6

Each session is self-contained.

Pirkei Avot is one of the most beloved and wise books of our people. It was written long ago, but is even more relevant today. No matter how often you may have learned it, or whether you have never read it at all, Pirkei Avot will inspire and move you.

Meeting ID: 548 586 566 | Dial in: 312-626-6799

Questions: Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org

What is Judaism for?

led by Rabbi Horwitz

Why does Judaism exist? What is its purpose?
Why is it important that Judaism continues to exist?

We will explore what some of the leading thinkers in the Jewish world, past and present, have to say about these questions and more!

Monday, August 16 at 7:30pm

Introducing a new series

Led by Rabbi Nosanwisch
Director of Spiritual Care

We will explore some of the "how tos" of Judaism during this new series dedicated to learning, thinking abstractly, and discussing in-depth Jewish traditions, prayers, and ideas.

Session #1: "How to Make a Minyan" is happening in the fall

As we each move out of our pandemic realities, let's explore the power of gathering. When making a minyan, a quorum of 10 Jewish adults, there is a spiritual pull that goes beyond how and why we do it.

Questions: Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org

The Real Garden of Eden

led by Rabbi Nosanwisch

Director of Spiritual Care

The Garden of Eden is a mythological treasure trove for thinking about humanity and our relationship to God. Through studying Avot d'Rabbi Natan, an eighth century midrash based on Pirkei Avot, we will explore some early Rabbinic perspectives on Eve's choice to eat the fruit, the role of the snake, and more.

Wednesdays at noon on August 18 and 25
at Adat Shalom in the Rosen/Wiener Pavilion*

248.626.2153

Since beginning at Adat Shalom a decade ago, I have gently shaped and reshaped our Hebrew program. We went from whole-class instruction with some students getting extra 1:1 help to a Hebrew Resource Room for more students to get additional support. Then we shifted toward a small-group based approach, where students received personalized attention as they worked their way through basic Hebrew literacy and then through the prayers of the siddur. It was working for most of our students, especially those who attended twice weekly and were in a smaller group.

Then it was March, 2020. Everything just stopped.

When we re-imagined learning for the 2020-2021 school year, the one area I felt the most strongly about was individualized Hebrew lessons. By shifting from classroom based learning to 1:1 learning at times and days that work for a family, our Hebrew class attendance is at almost 100%. Students have a full 30 minute lesson each week with a dedicated teacher: no changing groups, or remembering what page they were on, or figuring out what to do when one member of the group is absent or late.

I had the opportunity to work with several of our students this past year, and the growth I saw was extraordinary. This is echoed by my faculty, all of whom saw exponential growth and learning in their students this year. It used to take a full two years for a student to work through a Hebrew reading primer (learning the letters and vowels and building fluency). This year, most of our second graders reached a level of fluent or almost fluent reading in just seven months. By working through the texts at their own pace, students also have the opportunity to ask questions, delve into the prayer language and the big ideas of WHY and HOW we pray, and learn vocabulary.

As we move (hopefully, soon) into a post-pandemic world, one thing I am holding on to is individualized learning for Hebrew. Want to know more? Give me a call or send an email, and I'm happy to share data and success metrics.

Registration is open at adatshalom.org/registration.

6th to 12th graders are invited to volunteer at the 4th Annual Youth United Interfaith Service Camp benefiting CARES community center in Farmington Hills from Tuesday, August 3 to Thursday, August 5.

In the late morning teens will gather via Zoom, which will include meeting special guest speakers who are making a positive impact and improving lives throughout Metro Detroit. In the afternoon, teens will work on volunteer projects either on their own or in person at CARES. Adat Shalom is a proud community partner of Youth United.

I am also looking for college students and adults to volunteer to chaperone the in-person projects at CARE. If you are interested in joining me, please contact jgross@adatshalom.org or 248-851-5100.

There is no fee to attend. Advance registration is required, bit.ly/youthunited21

DONATIONS NEEDED

In preparation for Youth United's in-person volunteer projects, the planning committee is asking each community partner to collect the following items. Collection bins will be outside the Learning Community office until July 28. Thank you for donating.

- jig saw puzzles, coloring pages/book, paint by numbers kits, crayons or color pencils, bubbles, etc.
- clean bottle caps (soda, water, milk, juice, etc.)
- non-perishable food items
- clean plastic bottles (water, soda, juice, milk)
- hygiene products, feminine hygiene products, tissue packages, hand sanitizers
- new socks (adults and kids)
- clean adult size t-shirts

For more information about Youth United, contact Jodi Gross or Sammi Shapiro at 248-626-2153.

Haley's Garden This flower garden on our playground in memory of Haley Nathan z"l continues to grow thanks to Melissa Ser and the teens who weeded and planted it this spring.

Eleven years ago, friends of Haley's designed and planted this vibrant garden. A few years ago, Adat Shalom students repainted the rocks and Jared Perlman (current college student) made the benches near the garden as part of his Eagle Scout project. It is a special garden that continues to attract bees and butterflies. We invite you to stop by and check it out.

Let's talk about love.

On July 24 we celebrate Tu B'Av, a minor holiday on the fifteenth of Av, which is a celebration of love. Tu B'Av celebrations are becoming more popular in Israel and around the world. Love can be seen in different lights. We can show love through our actions and our words. How do you show love? How do your children show love?

Cut out and color this page about Love and Tu B'Av. You can also download a copy of this page at: bit.ly/adatcolor

The winner of the Better 2 Write essay contest is Mallory Columbus. She wrote:

Everyone has memories and they last forever, no matter how old you are. After hearing about my elders' memories, it made me think about some of my own with my grandparents. My family is very close and we have so many wonderful memories, especially with my grandparents. My papa paints so many beautiful paintings and he has now taught me that I have a passion for painting too. I have made special memories with him while doing something that I love to do. Holidays are also a very special time for me, whether we are wearing matching Hanukkah pajamas with my cousins or looking for the afikomen.

The Better Together program is good for both the students and the elders as we shared stories, memories and laughter together. During COVID-19, many seniors have been sad and unable to see their grandchildren. The program was a great way for the elders to meet us online and spend time with young people that they miss so much. I can't wait to share my memories with my grandchildren one day.

OUR ADAT COMMUNITY

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood has a past, present, and an exciting future coming soon! It will be filled with more opportunities for the women of Adat Shalom to get involved and continue the 75+ year-old traditions and create new traditions of our own. With the support of members and participants in the Sisterhood Informational Meetings via Zoom during this past year and the survey results, the Leadership for 2021-2022 will be confidentially turned over to an Advisory Board and Committee Chairpersons. The Committees for 2021-2022 will be:

- Membership
- Programming
- Fund Raising
- Communications and Correspondence
- Kiddush & Kitchen
- Gift Shop
- Scholarship

Here is where we need membership support! Consider becoming a member of the Advisory Board, a chairperson/co-chairperson, or a member of a committee(s). Have some extra time? Fill it with volunteering to help plan an event, by working in the Gift Shop, or becoming a part of the phone squad. There are so many opportunities to lend a hand. By so doing, you will be taking an active role in the planning and facilitating of the educational, religious, and cultural programs we do to support our membership and the "heart and soul" of our synagogue community.

Please give this some thought. If you are interested in being on the Board, chairing/co-chairing a committee, or working on a committee, please let us know. Nominations for the Advisory Board will be accepted up through July 15. Watch your email, especially Sister Talk, in the coming days for more information about Sisterhood's new look.

As always, please feel free to contact us with any ideas, suggestions, or concerns you have about Sisterhood. Have a safe and joyful summer!

MEN'S CLUB MUSINGS...BY LON ZABACK

The Men's Club held its annual general membership and elections meeting on May 2. Elected to the 2021-2022 Executive Board are Lon Zaback, Alan Gallatin, Jaron Friedman, Marty Kaye, Aaron Perlman, Joey Lebovic, Jeff Cymerint, and David Flaisher. Elected to the Board of Trustees are Ike Englebaum, Michael Feldman, Steven Goldsmith, Aaron Greenspon, Larry Kaplan, David Shevrin, Dan Webberman, and Steven Woronoff. Congratulations to all our elected board members and thank you for your service to the Men's Club, the synagogue, and our community.

The Men's Club and Rabbi Bergman will continue to host on-line Thoughtful Thursday events throughout the summer. Recent topics included a lively discussion on Jewish Pop culture and meaningful ways to defend Israel when discussing current events. Summer dates are June 10 & 24, July 15, and August 26. Look for email invites with web links prior to each event.

Please see the accompanying photos from our Father & Kid DIY craft activity in April where we restored the benches at the Adat Shalom bonfire. They weren't quite done in April but are now beautifully finished. Many thanks to our volunteers and a Yasher Koach to Jaron Friedman and Aaron Perlman for chairing this event. Please stop by the site to see the completed dramatic update.

There were many happy (and ice cream covered) faces of children, parents, and grandparents at our Annual Daddy Daughter Dance in May. This community wide event was again held in person and reimagined as an outdoor 'drive-in' party. Many thanks to Jaron Friedman, Bret Hopman, and Mike Weil for making this event a success. Please see the accompanying photos.

The Adat Shalom teams continue to play in the Intercongregational Men's Club Softball league through the summer. We'll look forward to celebrating their successes at our annual Sports Night in the fall. We're hopeful this will be an in-person event. Please stay tuned.

The Adat Shalom Men's Club takes pride in providing engaging social, spiritual, and Tikkun Olam opportunities for men of all ages. This is your Men's Club and you belong here. Participating, volunteering, and sharing with others enriches lives. Please feel free to reach out for more information.

Wishing you a safe, fun, and healthy summer!

Lighthouse South Oakland Shelter - Housing the Homeless

Due to the pandemic, and for the safety of the participants and volunteers, the program has been housed in a local motel. Although the program was not at Adat Shalom this summer, the food needs of the participants had to be met. And of course, we made sure that the participants received lunch and dinner for the week. We volunteered June 20 - June 27 and want to thank everyone who helped to make and deliver the meals.

Over the past year, many people have lost their jobs or are working reduced hours. Did you know that the average age of a homeless person in our Oakland County community is just nine years old? The fallout from COVID-19 has hit our Oakland County community particularly hard.

Please consider a donation to the Hillel Isaac and Rachel Maisel Memorial Housing the Homeless Fund to offset the cost of the meals. Look for more details in the next VOICE.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tributes

Adat Shalom's tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set an $18 minimum price for tribute cards.

We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes marking lifecycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support. Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please visit our website www.adatshalom.org/tributes or call the synagogue office at 248.851.5100. We will process your tribute and mail it promptly.

Tributes received by the 1st of the month will appear in the following month's VOICE.

For information about how to establish a fund, please contact Executive Director Alan Yost.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

During the High Holy Days it is an honored tradition at Adat Shalom to recall our beloved relatives and friends who are no longer with us. Our annual Book of Remembrance is a meaningful way for you to keep the memories of those you love alive through the spirit of tzedakah. The book is used during the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret, Passover, and Shavuot, as well as for meditation and prayer in your home.

To honor our past generations and help secure our future, please complete the form on our website at: adatshalom.org/BookofRemembrance, call the synagogue office, or complete and return the form that was mailed to your home.
