MESSAGES

FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOAN CHERNOFF EPSTEIN

This month of Adar represents many things: good fortune; strength and power; blessings and fruitfulness. The promise of springtime is in the air, and at Adat Shalom, we are feeling hopeful of renewal, of change, and of progress. So much is happening: March 1, Michael Wolf will step in to fill the very big shoes of Alan Yost following Alan's retirement the end of February. I have no doubt Michael is up to the task! He has done an excellent job in his role as Director of Spirituality and Outreach since 2017, and he is sure to bring his everpresent joy and cheerfulness to the executive director position. Rabbi Nosanwisch will be transitioning from her current Adat Shalom role as Director of Spiritual Care to a full time position of congregational Rabbi as of July 1st. More to come on Rabbi Nosanwisch in my next Voice article.

For those of you who missed my email announcing Michael Wolf's appointment, rest assured he is eminently qualified for this new role. He has experience in both formal and informal Jewish Education, he holds a master's degree in Jewish Communal Service with a concentration in Jewish Education from Brandeis University, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religious Studies with a certificate in Jewish Studies from the University of Pittsburgh. At Adat Shalom, you have seen him at morning and evening minyan, chatting before services, or chanting during services, delivering his minute of learning relating to the Torah portion of the day, and even setting up bonfires for a clever Chanukah celebration. He brings enthusiasm to all that he does. His previous experience included working at the American Friends of Hebrew University, serving as Director of Education and Youth at Congregation Shaarey Zedek, as Director of Camp Ramah in Canada, and Director of Programming at Hillel Day School. He is a good soul and we are all pleased to see him continue within the Adat Shalom family in this new role.

Alan Yost's role at Adat Shalom has been long lasting and Michael is grateful to have Alan as a mentor for the upcoming transition and into the future. I don't even know where to begin to thank Alan for all that he has done for the synagogue! His motto seems to be, "Why wait for things to happen when you can take care of it yourself?" When he saw a problem or an issue or something that needed to be taken care of, he just did it. We are all so greatly appreciative of the dedication, hard work, and commitment that Alan exhibited throughout his 41 years at Adat Shalom, and so very grateful for his unwavering support.

Alan Yost is a jack of all trades at our synagogue. He began his career at Adat Shalom as the youth director, and quickly rose to the executive director position, where he adapted and changed in myriad ways, as the role required. As long as I can remember, Alan has guided our synagogue through construction, fundraisers, membership drives, staff hiring, community relations.... You name anything in the daily operations of Adat Shalom and surely, he has had a very capable hand in its success.

As I sat in the board room next door to Alan's office, I observed him overseeing our budget; overseeing the staff; overseeing the clergy; even overseeing the connection between Adat Shalom's alarm system and the local fire and police department! I can recall Alan saying to me, "Yep! The alarm went off at 2 a.m. and so I had to go check out the synagogue." Recently, he was on the rooftop assessing some leakage issues in the sanctuary. And earlier when we experienced the excessive rain last year, Alan handled the flooded

From Rabbi Aaron Bergman

I have been so fortunate to work with Alan Yost for so many years. There has not been a better executive director, nor a person more committed to the Jewish people and the State of Israel. He has given heart, mind, and soul every day to Adat Shalom, to our local Jewish community, and to Jews around the world.

Alan was an early activist for Soviet Jewry, including going to Russia with his wife Beverly and others from Detroit, to bring in what the refuseniks needed, and to take back their message of hope and freedom to the rest of the world. I loved going to Israel with him on the Adat Shalom trips and just seeing his love of the land and the people, his appreciation for its history and his commitment to its survival.

He helped Adat Shalom through some of its darkest days, and provided great leadership during some of its best. Even Moses only led for forty years. Alan surpassed that.

His motto is Am Yisrael Chai. The Jewish people lives. Alan is a big reason why that motto is true. I wish him and Beverly and his wonderful family, especially his beautiful grandchildren, many years of health, joy, and naches. And of course, Go Blue!

lower level classrooms, and even ventured into our pond to remove an obstruction.

These are just a few of the changes happening now at Adat Shalom. Change can bring apprehension, but have no fear! Take a step back from what is familiar, and then step into transitioning from old to new. Your perspective changes, you feel the energy of things happening, the excitement of a new adventure awaiting. Can't you feel it? Aren't we all lucky we belong to our Adat Shalom family? I know I for one am honored and thrilled with both the community we have built here and with the knowledge that this is where I belong.

On that note, I'll leave you with these inspirational words by the well-known academic Brene Brown:

True Belonging

True belonging is the spiritual practice of believing in and belonging to yourself so deeply that you can share your most authentic self with the world and find sacredness in both being a part of something and standing along in the wilderness.

True belonging doesn't require you to change who you are; it requires you to be who you are.

MESSAGES

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS All You Ever Wanted to Know About Chad Gadya

One of the most memorable parts of the Pesach seder while I was growing up was singing the song Chad Gadya (which means "one little goat"). It came at the end of the long night of telling the Pesach story, long after eating the always overfilling festive meal, capping off the song-filled second half of the seder. I loved the song because of its catchy tune, the images that the text would conjure in my mind, and our family's custom of trying to sing each stanza in one breath. On the surface, the song is a simple folk song, with a variety of melodies associated with it. However, exploration of the text shows that there is more to the song than just the playful chain of lyrics.

The form of Chad Gadya is that of a cumulative song, in the same style as "There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly" and "There's a Hole at the Bottom of the Sea." The musicological term for this type of song is a domestic table song. In Hebrew this genre is referred to as Zemirot. Chad Gadya first appeared in print in a Haggadah in the Prague 1590 edition. The first time it was published in musical form was in Leipzig, Germany in 1677.

The original text of Chad Gadya was written mostly in Aramaic (with some Hebrew words) and most modern-day Haggadot contain this version. Many people now sing the song in their own native tongue. My family's custom is to sing everything in English except the two words "chad gadya." While the musical style of the various melodies associated with this song are light-hearted and nursery song-like, the meaning of the text itself is far from childish. It assumes allegorical significance symbolic of periods of oppression and retribution in Jewish history stretching from ancient times to the present.

There are many interpretations of the symbolism of the lone baby goat. The most universally accepted interpretation is that the goat is us, the Children of Israel, the Jewish people. It is also viewed as the scapegoat in the story of Abraham's sacrifice of his son, Isaac. "My father" is universally viewed to be God. "Two zuzim," an ancient currency, has been seen variously to be symbolic of Moses and Aaron, the body and soul, the ancient kingdoms of Israel and Judea. and the two tablets. The list of animals (cat, dog, and ox) and items (stick, fire, and water) are viewed as differing oppressors of the people Israel throughout history, such as the Assyrians, Babylonians, Persians, Macedonians, Romans, and Saracens. The shochet, i.e. the ritual slaughterer, and the Angel of Death can be interpreted to be any of an array of persecutors from the Crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, Russian and Polish pogroms, the Holocaust, and into modern times. HaKadosh Baruch Hu (The Holy One, blessed be He) is again none other than God.

The message of Chad Gadya is captured in the essence of the prophet Isaiah's words, "Utzu etza vetufar; dabru davar velo yakum, ki imanu El" (Isaiah 8:10), meaning "They have devised schemes but they have been foiled; they have made declarations against us, but they will not be fulfilled, because God is with us!" You may recognize Isaiah's Hebrew text as a well-known Purim song, and in a further connection to Pesach, this Purim song's melody is often used during the seder to sing the listing of the Ten Plagues and its associated mnemonic "D'tzach Adash B'achav." Another more contemporary way to summarize Chad Gadya and its essential place in the Pesach seder is in this modern quip: "They tried to kill us, we survived, let's eat!"

Chag Pesach Sameach!

FROM RABBI DANIEL S. HORWITZ

I remember as a child being floored when during the Passover Seder I'd go to open the door for Elijah, and then return to the dining room table to find that his cup – which had been filled with wine – had somehow been emptied. Elijah was magic! Basically, the Jewish Santa Claus. Except instead of obesity issues courtesy of milk and cookies, he more likely has significant liver damage...!

So, as Jerry Seinfeld would say, "What's the deal with Elijah?" Why is there a chair for him at bris ceremonies? Why the wine on Passover? Why do we sing about him at the end of Havdalah each Saturday night?

Well, here's the scoop: Elijah, fleeing for his life, complains to God that the Israelites have abandoned the Covenant (i.e. performing circumcisions), and asks God to punish them. God is upset with him, and says: "whenever there is a circumcision, you will be present, and the mouth which testified that the Jewish people have abandoned my Covenant will testify that they are keeping it." Basically, because Elijah was so down on the Jewish people, God says "I'm going to force you to watch them keep the Covenant from now on so that you'll see just how wrong you are about them." As a result, Elijah is referred to as the "Angel of the Covenant."

Given the number of circumcisions Elijah is forced to witness, it might make more sense why on Passover he might feel the need to have a drink or two! But in all seriousness, partaking of the Paschal Lamb – that is, eating of the lamb specially prepared for Passover (which isn't really a thing we do anymore) – is actually the only Jewish ritual act that an uncircumcised Jewish male is traditionally prohibited from participating in. So, Elijah essentially is coming to the Seder to "testify" that the men eating the Paschal Lamb are indeed circumcised.

Elijah also has an additional tie to Passover, as it's taught that he is the prophet/angel who will announce the Messiah's imminent arrival. Our tradition teaches that in that interim period, between the announcement of the Messiah coming and the Messiah's arrival, Elijah will answer all the halachic (Jewish legal) questions that remain unresolved. One such question is whether there should be 4 or 5 cups of wine consumed at the Passover Seder. It's why cup #5 is referred to as Elijah's cup – because we're unsure as to whether or not it should even be on the table, and we're waiting for him to let us know! (The 5th cup also symbolizes future redemption – you know, the one Elijah is meant to bring the good news of – hence why it makes sense for it to be associated with him).

We also bring Elijah to mind weekly, singing "Eliyahu Hanavi" at the conclusion of Havdalah. Elijah is meant to usher in the Messianic age, so why do we sing about him on Saturday nights specifically? Well, the Talmud says that Elijah won't come on Friday because he doesn't want to interrupt preparing Shabbat preparations, and due to traveling restrictions, he wouldn't be permitted to come on Shabbat (you can't make this stuff up!). So, right when Shabbat ends, we invoke his name to encourage him to come and bring us the good news ASAP!

This year, when we open up the door at our Seders for Elijah, let's remember the magic the moment can create, be ready to "show off" for him our continued commitment to Judaism, and thoughtfully offer to call him a Lyft;)

Next Year in Jerusalem!

-Rabbi Dan

FROM RABBI BLAIR NOSANWISCH DIRECTOR OF SPIRITUAL CARE

Our calendar is a dance between the sun and the moon. Every fall we celebrate Rosh HaShanah, the Head of the Year, in a public communal observance. But every spring we celebrate another renewal in time, Pesach, Chag ha-Aviv, in Nisan, Rosh Chodashim,

Head of the Months. In contrast to the institutional and communal, solar energy of Rosh HaShanah, Pesach is observed in the home, centered around a meal and a story. This more personal, internal facing observance mirrors the energy of the season. While fall is the harvest, spring is the planting. It is when we first emerge from the cocoon of reflection, decomposition, and invisible transformation that defines winter and begin the sudden then slow outward growth of summer. In a word, it is a season of sprouting. We begin this work in the more intimate home-sphere, nourishing ourselves and our stories.

Living Jewish time means we are moved through our years with stories and experiences that mark these transitions in ourselves and in the world around us. Nisan is a time when we are commanded to rid our homes of hametz and se'or. These two products, leavened foods and leaven itself (sourdough starter), are metaphors, real and symbolic, for our human relationships with our environment. Their ferment, their aliveness, is based on their relationship with the world around them — as they make visible and productive the unseen yeasts and bacterias that inhabit the air we breathe. At Pesach-time we rid our homes of these essential elements. We take what has been inside and remove it from our midst. In a radical act of faith, we burn our se'or, we cleanse our homes and ourselves of the ferment of the past year, and we spend a week living only on the raw, the unintegrated, the hastily prepared. We trust that on the other side of Pesach is a fresh start born of God's ever present potential for creation and sustenance, for synthesis. And sure enough, when we set about creating the next year's se'or, it only takes a few days and a fresh glass jar to catch the invisible and once again shape it into our own bubble and froth.

May your spring cleaning this Nisan remind you that nourishing your insides is one of the surest ways to nourish that which is beyond your reach!

FROM MICHAEL WOLF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I am so grateful to all our members who have been so supportive and gracious in welcoming me into my new position. Many have wished me good luck – always followed by the caveat that I'll need said luck because succeeding Alan won't be easy. Roman philosopher Seneca is attributed with the following quote: "Luck is what happens when preparation meets opportunity." I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Alan for all he has done to make Adat Shalom the special place it is and for taking the time to mentor me over the years (starting in 1990 when I first met Alan on the basketball court after moving to Michigan – I've learned it's much better to be on the same team as Alan!).

I have been meeting with our amazing clergy and staff asking them to answer questions which I will share with you in the hope that we can start a dialogue.

- What are the most important things about Adat Shalom that we should be sure to preserve and why?
- What are the top three things we need to change and why?
- What do you most hope I do?
- What are you most concerned I might do?
- What are you concerned I might not do?
- What advice do you have for me?

I'm sure I'll have more but that's a start...

Zoom has been and continues to be a great way for us to stay connected – but I am looking forward to being able to continue to greet people back in our beautiful synagogue, outside when the weather starts to cooperate, or at a coffee shop in the very near future!

Save the date...

The Concluding Study Session with Rabbi Bergman

Breakfast following services

Jews commemorate the sparing of the Hebrew first-born sons in the Pesach story by concluding the study of a section of Jewish text the morning of the first Seder (or the previous day if the Seder falls on Shabbat). From the Middle Ages on, prominent rabbis have stated that first-born daughters should attend the siyum as well. At Adat Shalom, all members of your family, whatever their birth order, are invited to join in the siyum.

What is freedom? It feels like the entire world is trying to answer this question. But while anger, fear, and frustration seem to be the norm of the political landscape, Judaism asks us to tackle the concept of freedom with open minds, hearts, and adaptable interpretation. This year's Through Parted Waters: a Community Pesach Learning, Nuances of Freedom, will seek to reset the table, to bring us back to a dialogue that builds and sustains rather than judges and divides. Passover is the holiday of questioning, so let's ask those questions side by side, hand in hand, as we leave Egypt... together.

Please watch your weekly Adat Shalom emails for more information.

"Selling" Your Chametz

The Torah prohibits Jews from owning chametz during Pesach. For those who wish to adhere to this tradition, Adat Shalom will be happy to arrange for the contractual (virtual) sale of your chametz to a non-Jew for the duration of the holiday. According to this contract, your ownership of your chametz will end at 9 a.m. on 14 Nisan (April 15) and will be restored at 9:10 p.m. on 22 Nisan (April 23).

You may arrange to sell your chametz beginning Monday, March 28, through 9 a.m. on the morning of Friday, April 15.

To do so, complete the form on our website:

adatshalom.org/chametz or email Rabbi Nosanwisch at bnosanwisch@adatshalom.org with your name and address to be added to the contract. Please call Rabbi Nosanwisch with any questions.

It is customary, but not necessary, to make a contribution to the synagogue for requesting that we act as the agent for the sale of your chametz. If you wish to do so, we suggest a $20 donation to Adat Shalom's Minyan Breakfast Fund.

PREPARING FOR PASSOVER

COSMETICS AND TOILETRIES

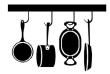

All varieties of body soaps, shampoos and stick deodorants are permitted for use on Pesach, regardless of ingredients. All types of ointments, creams, nail polish, hand lotions, eyeshadow, eyeliner, mascara, blush, foot and face powders, ink and paint may be used, regardless of their ingredients. Colognes, perfumes, hair spray, shaving lotions, and deodorants that have restorable, denatured alcohol should not be used. This applies only to products in a pure liquid state. Lipstick that contains chametz should not be used.

KITCHEN SINK

A metal sink can be kashered by thoroughly cleaning it, then leaving it unused for 24 hours, and then pouring boiling water into it. A porcelain sink should be cleaned and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

KASHERING OF UTENSILS

The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil (ke-voleo kakh poleto). Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat, and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

EARTHENWARE

Earthenware may not be kashered. However, fine translucent chinaware and earthenware which has not been used for more than a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

Bedikat Chametz The Search for Leaven

Bedikat Chametz (The Search for Leaven) will be held this year after nightfall on Thursday, April 14, 2022. By tradition, bread crumbs are placed conspicuously in rooms where food is ordinarily eaten or brought.

Using a candle for illumination, a "search" is made to find the remnants of chametz, which are then collected using a feather as a whisk.

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu Melech ha'olam, asher kidshanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu al biur chametz.

We praise You, O God, Sovereign of the Universe, Who hallows our lives with commandments, Who has commanded us to burn chametz.

METAL UTENSILS USED IN FIRE

Metal (wholly made of metal) utensils used in fire (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made hot until it glows. Those used for cooking or eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and not used for 24 hours, then they are completely immersed in boiling water. Metal baking utensils cannot be kashered.

GLASSWARE

There are two different ways of kashering glassware. Glass cookware includes cookware made of modern materials that are non-porous, such as Pyrex®. If you don't have a dishwasher, you may soak the items in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours. The other way requires only that they be put through a clean dishwasher with no other items.

TABLES, CLOSETS, AND COUNTERS

If used with chametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used. Note that the covering material should be made of material that is not easily torn.

CHAMETZ AND NON-PASSOVER UTENSILS

Non-Passover dishes, pots, and chametz whose ownership has been transferred to a non-Jew should be separated, locked up or covered, and marked in order to prevent accidental use.

Post-Pesach Activities

Restoring your home to "chametz" is a simple matter, consisting mainly of putting away Pesach utensils and bringing back the chametz items to their regular places. Pesach is concluded by havdalah said over wine. (The blessings over the candle and the spices are reserved for the conclusion of Shabbat).

Some families have a custom of eating a heavily chametz meal, such as pizza, or at least eating some foods that they sorely missed during Passover. For others, the transition back to chametz is a slow one, taking place during the omer period, a transition that goes from the Pesach meals of matzah and meat to the Shavuot meals of dairy foods and leavened bread.

Chametz may be eaten again after 9:15 p.m. on Saturday, April 23, 2022.

Adat Shalom's clergy, staff, and leadership wish you and yours a happy, healthy, and kosher Pesach!

Since the Torah prohibits the eating of chametz during Pesach, and since many common foods contain some admixture of chametz, guidance is necessary when shopping and preparing for Pesach.

During the eight days of Pesach, chametz cannot lose its identity in an admixture. Therefore the most minute amount of chametz renders the whole admixture chametz, and its use on Pesach is prohibited. However, during the rest of the year, chametz follows the normal rules of admixture, i.e. it loses its identity in an admixture of one part chametz and sixty parts of non-chametz (batel beshishim). This affords us the opportunity to differentiate between foods purchased before and during Pesach.

What follows are some general guidelines. However, our rabbis should be consulted when any doubt arises. Kosher l'Pesach items that do not bear the name of a rabbi or one of the recognized symbols of rabbinic supervision, or which are not integral to the package, should not be used without consulting our rabbis.

Prohibited foods include the following: leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffee with cereal derivatives, wheat, barley, oats, spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol.

Permitted foods that require no kosher l'Pesach label if purchased prior to Pesach include: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee without cereal additives (be aware that coffees produced by General Foods are not kosher for Passover unless marked KP); sugar, pure tea (not herbal tea); salt (not iodized); pepper; natural spices; frozen fruit juices (with no additives); frozen (uncooked) vegetables; milk; butter; cottage cheese; cream cheese; ripened cheeses such as cheddar (hard), muenster (semi-soft) and Camembert (soft); frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives); baking soda.

Permitted foods that require no kosher l'Pesach label if purchased before or during Pesach include: fresh fruits and vegetables, eggs, fresh fish, and fresh meat.

Permitted foods that require a kosher l'Pesach label if purchased prior to Pesach include all baked products (matzah, cakes, matzah flour, farfel, matzah meal, and any products containing matzah); canned or bottled fruit juices; canned tuna; wine; vinegar; liquor; oils; dried fruits; candy; chocolate-flavored milk; ice cream; yogurt, and soda.

Detergents - If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher l'pesach label.

Medicine required for health-sustaining therapy may be used on Pesach. If not for health-sustaining therapy, consult one of our rabbis. In all cases, capsules are preferred to pills, with or without chametz binders. Before discontinuing any medication, consult a rabbi and your physician.

Information on these pages has been adapted from guides prepared for the Rabbinical Assembly Committee on Jewish Law and Standards. If you have further questions, please contact our clergy.

"How to Prepare"

Monday, March 21 at 7:30 p.m.

Pesach sits half way around the calendar from the High Holidays. In the fall, we spend the whole month of Elul preparing for these holy days. We will consider how the practice of Mikuah can be a means of preparing the self for both important ritual moments, as well as life's personal moments

"How to Tell"

Monday, April 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Maimonides teaches that at the seder, we should each tell our own personal storu of revelation. We will explore his idea, asking how, and why, we might want to incorporate it into our own seder.

Zoom link will be provided after registration

Kindly RSVP to Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org | 248-851-5100

Reading Women Reading Talmud with Rabbi Bergman

Fridays, 11 a.m. on Zoom

No class on April 8 and 15

The Talmud is the central document of Judaism, but it is written in mostly the voices of men. We will read together the writings of great contemporary Talmud scholars such as Rabbi Dr. Judith Hauptman and Dr. Ruth Calderon to gain insight into how these texts can still create meaning for all of us today.

All texts are available free of charge at www.sefaria.org

No prior knowledge of Talmud is necessary.

THE LEARNING COMMUNITY

FROM DR. MELISSA SER

Director of Education mser@adatshalom.org

FROM SAMMI SHAPIRO

Assistant Director of Education & Youth Engagement sshapiro@adatshalom.org

We know that kids love to ask questions and so the Passover seder is a natural fit for teaching our kids (and maybe some adults) how to ask questions and have a meaningful conversation.

How do we create these opportunities for engagement within our seder? Let's start with the skills needed. One of the first skills needed is to "listen." We need to listen to the text and what is being said about the text. We can do this through reading and asking questions:

> -What does the author of the text want us to know? -What is the text trying to tell us?

At many points in the seder we have the opportunity to interact with the story and the text in front of us. What does this interaction look like? As you read and listen, think about what you notice and wonder. Use the story and text from your haggadah to help answer the questions. Where does the text support your question or answer? Does the text offer another explanation? Could one person have a different perspective from the same text?

Here's an excerpt from the Hagaddah that you and your family can try to dive into during your seder: Ha Lachma Anya (the beginning of the Magid section)/ translation from sefaria.org

This is the bread of destitution that our ancestors ate in the land of Egypt. Anyone who is famished should come and eat, anyone who is in need should come and partake of the Pesach sacrifice. Now we are here, next year we will be in the land of Israel; this year we are slaves, next year we will be free people.

Begin line by line. Does anything jump out at you? Are there words you don't understand? Is there anything that needs clarification? Who is this text talking to or about?

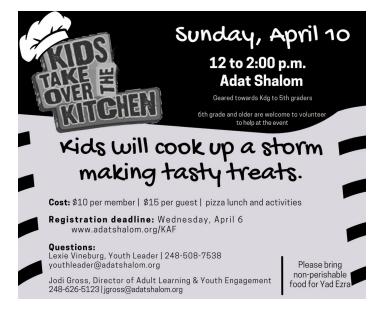

Use the Pedagogy of Partnership speech prompts. Cut these out and give one card to each person. Challenge that person to use the card

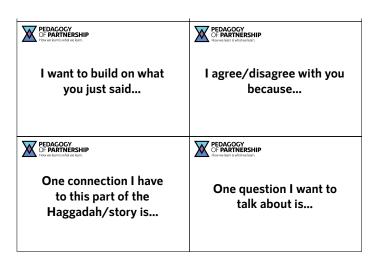

By adding this element into our seders we provide the opportunity for everyone, no matter their age, to engage and interact with the text, tradition, and each other.

I wonder what questions or discussions will arise from your seder?

Spreading Kindness: Volunteer Day in a Box review

Volunteer Day in a Box was a HUGE SUCCESS thanks to the volunteer day planning committee, volunteers (adults, teens and kids) who helped with box assembly, pick up, drop off, and sorting, and organizing projects. Over 1,000 volunteer projects will help ten organizations improve lives in Metro Detroit. It was also exciting how volunteer day has evolved into a multigenerational project for many. Together we spread kindness in more ways than we could have ever imagined.

Volunteers shared:

Our kids were really excited for Volunteer Day 2022! We explained what each project was and who the recipients were. Their favorites were making scarves, dog treats, and birthday party bags. Actually, discussing the kids who will receive the projects was pretty emotional for them. It turned into such a beautiful teachable moment for us as a family. Their hearts are so big and we are so proud of them! They want to do more Mitzvot, so we are going to make sure we continue to do so. Thank you Adat Shalom for this wonderful experience. - Ashley and Ben Shayne

Thanks for creating a wonderful volunteer day experience. My grandkids, Maya and Jake Wohl, ages 7 and 6, really enjoyed it. They really enjoyed making things for other people and shared that Jews have to help other people. We are all one big family. They especially liked making dog tug toys and got a kick out of the sock ball!! Thanks. Looking forward to doing more grandparent/grandkids activities. - Renee Wohl

Our family had so much fun and are grateful that we had the opportunity to be a part of this worthwhile experience. Moishe (23 months old) was the task leader. He kept us all on task, did most of the work, and truly enjoyed every second of it. Moishe loved choosing items to donate to Yad Ezra. He was a bit overzealous and tried to donate a whole cabinet of food including essential parts of our dinner that night. His willingness to give, should be an inspiration to us all. Ariel (4 years old), was very inquisitive throughout the whole project. A lot of "Why's" were asked and I know that he soaked up a lot of information. He was also very proud to share with his siblings what tzedekah and tikkun olam mean and gave explanations from school and home. Golda, the baby, might be small but she had some crucial tasks. She was part of our assembly line. She also allowed tummy / roll over time to be project time and was very intrigued by all of the colors of the fleece for the dog tug toys and scarves. Malka, our dog, was a great taste tester for the dog treats. I'm sorry to say that she ate about half! At least we know they are dog approved. We were blown away by the organization, instructions, and diversity in the projects. Thank you for letting us be a part of it. - Jordan and Ryan Fishman

Volunteer day by numbers:

- 120 Volunteer Day boxes were assembled and full of projects that were donated!
- 132 stress balls were donated to Jewish Family and Children Service counseling center.
- 180 fleece scarves will keep clients of Project Healthy Community stay warm this winter.
- 265 dog tug toys, and 9 dozen DIY dog biscuits, and over 20 pet items (food, harnesses, beds, blankets, etc.,) were donated to Michigan Animal Rescue League.
- 85 decorated notebooks will cheer up patients at Henry Ford Hospital West Bloomfield.
- Over 180 caring cards, and 10 kindness rocks were donated to Jewish Senior Life of Michigan.
- 8 birthday party bags, 10 activity bags for kids, 65 bags of toiletries, and 2 boxes of food were donated to CARES of Farmington Hills.
- Over 130 lunch bags were decorated and filled with good food, along with 1 box of toiletries and 1 box of socks for clients at Hope Warming Center.
- 224 snack bags were decorated and filled with treats, 20 balls and 1 box of strands of plarn (plastic yarn), as well as 2 plarn mats were donated to Song and Spirit Institute of Peace. The balls will be crocheted into sleeping mats for people who are experiencing homelessness.
- 8 bags of food, 100 colorful Happy Purim cards, and 3 boxes of toiletries were donated to Yad Ezra.
- 330 bookmarks and 6 boxes of children and adult books were donated to Eden Garden Community neighborhood.
- Hundreds of fleece pieces in different sizes were donated by the National Council of Jewish Women, Michigan "Wrapped in Love" project and were upcycled to make the dog tug toys and chain scarves.
- Filled 2 entire refrigerators with fresh food for The Detroit Community Fridge with the help of Repair the World Detroit.

It takes a community to plan, implement, and do all of the projects during Volunteer Day!

SISTERHOOD

Hi Sisters!

We have been very busy planning Sisterhood events and ways to engage the women of Adat Shalom. During the last two years, because of COVID, many of us have felt isolated as we were not able to gather or have in-person programs. We are hoping to change that and get back to being with each other (safely).

Fortunately our Book Club has not missed a beat. Thanks to the dedication and hard work of Sue Lutz and Marianne Pesick it has been meeting regularly via Zoom with thoughtful discussions and meaningful interactions. There is still time to join and be a part of this excellent group.

We continue to have Rosh Chodesh celebrations planned and executed by Rochelle Lieberman. The previous Rosh Chodesh led by Rabbi Nosanwisch was interesting and very well attended. Watch for "What's Happening at Adat Shalom" for the next Rosh Chodesh study session on May 2.

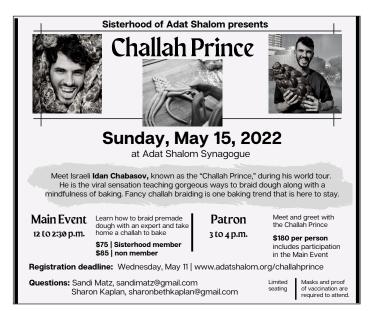

Speaking of being able to see each other, we will have an informative Sisterhood meeting on Wednesday, March 30 at 7 p.m. We will meet in the Rosen/Wiener Pavilion and we will practice all of the Adat Shalom safety guidelines (social distancing and masks will be required). Please join us even if you are not yet a member of Sisterhood. We have a lot to discuss as we plan for this coming year.

Plans: We are very excited that The Challah Prince will be coming to Adat Shalom on Sunday, May 15. This will be a wonderful Sisterhood program. Space is limited. Watch your email for more details.

Unfortunately, because of COVID, the Sisterhood annual Donor Day will not happen this year. We are hopeful that May, 2023 we will once again be able to enjoy a large group event and invite the community at large to celebrate with us.

We are looking forward to seeing you on March 30th.

MEN'S CLUB

It was wonderful to see so many men connect spiritually during our Men's Club Shabbat in January. Yasher Koach to Alan Gallatin for chairing and organizing the event. Many thanks to all of our Daveners and Torah readers and a shout out to Michael Wolf for his assistance.

In February we had a terrific turn out for our Annual Men's Health Awareness Breakfast. Dr. Kyle Bronsteen spoke to the group about exercise and diet. Our thanks to Bobby Blum for arranging our speaker and to Marty Kaye and Joey Lebovic for organizing the event

The Men's Club welcomes Spring with two popular community events. We are proud to offer the DIY with Dad event on March 6. Bring your children to make their very own wooden grogger for Purim that can be used this Purim and for years to come. The event is directly following religious school and lunch is included.

Our ever popular, community Daddy Daughter Dance returns on March 20th. Join us for a special night for Dads and Daughters. The event will be in the Social Hall at Adat Shalom. Please see flyers for both events on the attached pages and sign up on the Adat Shalom website events page.

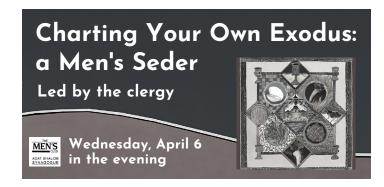

Thoughtful Thursdays continue with dates in March and April. Please join us online for an engaging discussion hosted by the Men's Club and featuring Rabbi Bergman. Recent topics included a very relevant discussion about Security in our community and the Jewish world. Please see the attached flyer and look for an email with Zoom link information prior to each Thoughtful Thursday event.

Please save the date for our annual Men's Passover Seder program on April 6th with the Adat Shalom Clergy. This meaningful event will provide you with ideas that you can use during your own home seders. We will also be sponsoring Shabbat Kiddush during Passover on April 23. Please watch your email and the Adat Shalom website for more information.

This is your Men's Club and you belong here. Participating, volunteering, and sharing with others enriches lives. Please reach out to me if you would like to volunteer, have questions or comments, or would like more information.

Hello Adat Shalom movie attendees, viewers, aficionados etc.

Our group has been active and viewing first rate movies for discussion (via zoom) during these times.

We are happy to note the addition of new couples to our group and look forward to more members joining us.

Our last movie was "Don't Look Up," which elicited a plethora of commentary and discussion.

Our next movie will be "The Power of the Dog" March 6, 2022, 4-5 p.m. Please mark your calendars and if not already on our list please contact us to be added.

SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION

American Red Cross Blood Drive: Sunday, March 6, 8 a.m.-2 p.m.

Adat Shalom is sponsoring a much needed blood drive on Sunday, March 6 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Red Cross is facing a national blood crisis - it's the worst blood shortage in over a decade, posing a concerning risk to patient care. Blood donations are critically needed to help prevent further delays in vital medical treatments. If you would like to schedule an appointment, please contact Debby Portney at debbyportney@gmail.com or Ruth Zerin at dreidelmom@aol.com and they will arrange an appointment for you. Additionally, we need volunteers to supervise the canteen.

Yad Ezra: Sunday, April 3, 11-1 p.m.

Volunteers are needed to deliver groceries to the homes of those receiving Yad Ezra services. They serve an average of 1,200 families (2,500 individuals) with food, healthy care items, and household goods each month. Because of COVID-19, the warehouse is closed to clients and all groceries are delivered.

The packed bags are picked up at the Yad Ezra warehouse in Oak Park and directions to each home are provided. Each volunteer usually gets 2-3 stops. The groceries are left on the porch to ensure the safety of the volunteer and client. The recipients are so grateful for the service. If you can participate in this mitzyah of maakhal revi'im, feeding the hungry, contact Evva at evva.hepner@gmail.com.

"To be kind is more important than to be right. Many times what people need is not a brilliant mind that speaks but a special heart that listens." - Rabbi Menachem Mendel

The Red Cross has a full set of protocols in place to make the process of giving blood safe.

WE ARE PLEASED TO LET YOU KNOW...

Danny Kaufman, Kevin Sack, and Zack Slabotsky, and Ilana Woronoff were recognized by the Detroit Jewish News as part of the outstanding "36 under 36." The issue highlighted "the go-getters, entrepreneurs, and community organizers whose lives make an impact on those around them and our community at large."

Dr. Melissa Ser was elected as the Vice President for Membership at the The Jewish Educators Assembly conference, ending her two years as VP for Conference and Professional Development. Ettie Schargorodsky was recognized at this year's conference as our synagogue's honoree for outstanding teacher.

Adat Shalom members Sophie Klisman and Sylvia Starkman are being celebrated by Jewish Senior Life's Eight Over Eighty, as distinguished leaders in our community who have demonstrated a lifetime of dedication to the Jewish value of Tikkun Olam.

Our Volunteer Day efforts were appreciated...

Dear Jodi, On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff at Project Healthy Community, I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your generous donation of 200 fleece scarves. They are beautiful, handmade and will bring such smiles and warmth to the families in the community that we serve. Karen Rubenfire, LMSW, Chief Operating Officer

Summer scholarships offered by Adat Shalom

Matthew Scott Doren z"I Memorial Jewish Summer Program Scholarship, established by Naomi and Martin Doren z"I in memory of their beloved son Matthew.

This annual scholarship in the amount of $1,000 is open to students entering 7th through 12th grades. The scholarship can be used for attendance at any approved Jewish summer experience program for camping, travel to Israel or study in Israel. The scholarship will be awarded based on financial need. Applicants must submit an essay on "Why a Jewish summer experience would be personally meaningful and rewarding." The winner of the scholarship will be determined by a committee consisting of Naomi Doren, her daughter Cheryl Copley, and members of the Adat Shalom Clergy.

Interested applicants from the Detroit Metropolitan Jewish community should forward their essays for consideration to Executive Director Michael Wolf. Essays are due Monday, April 25.

The Jay Yoskowitz z"I Israel Scholarship Fund will provide a scholarship of $1500 for a semester of study at a recognized Israeli university or at the Conservative Yeshiva.

Applications for the scholarship for the 2022-2023 school year are now available. To apply, please contact Kellie Yost or at 248.851.5100, ext. 246. Applications are due Monday, April 25.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tribute

Adat Shalom's tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set an $18 minimum price for tribute cards.

We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes marking lifecycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support.

Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please visit our website www.adatshalom.org/tributes or call the synagogue office at 248.851.5100.

We will process your tribute and mail it promptly. Tributes received by the 1st of the month will appear in the following month's VOICE.

For information about how to establish a fund, please contact Executive Director Michael Wolf.

ADAT SHALOM MEMORIAL PARK

For information about the purchase of cemetery plots

please call Steven Goldsmith, 248.798.9995 or Denise Gallagher, 248.851.5100

The cemetery is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday - Friday, closed on Shabbat and Jewish holidays.

What's THE STORY

Let's explore our synagogue. In the coming issues of The Voice, we will discover the history behind some of the wonderful artwork, Judaica, and building features of our synagogue that surround us, teach us, intrigue us, and always welcome us at Adat Shalom.

THE LADDER AND THE LEGACY

In 1973 when Adat Shalom Synagogue made the move to our new home here in Farmington Hills, Rabbi Jacob E. Segal z"I had a vision for the Ark covering in the main sanctuary.

We are told Rabbi Segal wanted a tapestry that depicted Jacob's Dream as it is described in Genesis, where the link between ourselves and God is preeminent as we strive to build a legacy for the Adat Shalom generations who will follow us.

This is beautifully illustrated in the dramatic weaving, which shows a ladder connecting earth and heaven.

What's the answer?

The magnificent tapestry in the main sanctuary symbolizes Jacob's Ladder, in which we know that God is always with us.
