MESSAGES

FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOYCE BERLIN WEINGARTEN

I am often asked how my presidency is going. My answer is always, "Great! I love it. Adat Shalom is thriving and I am really happy to be president." When I took on the presidency almost one year ago, I knew Adat Shalom was moving forward with energy, excitement, and a renewal of our vibrant community coming together again.

I have been enjoying attending services on Shabbat and visiting the MiniMinyan attendees. It warms my heart to see young families and children of all ages enjoying Shabbat together. Our clergy and staff take turns participating in the program after which there are snacks for everyone. The delightful sound of children's voices can be heard all the way down the hall. At the end of services in the main sanctuary, the MiniMinyan children are allowed to run down the aisle to the bimah to receive a piece of candy. It is inspiring to watch how excited they are to receive the sweetness of Shabbat.

When I observe the parents and the children on Shabbat, I am observing the future of Adat Shalom. What better way to get to know your synagogue and clergy than to come here and enjoy all we have to offer starting with Shabbat services.

I have been attending Shabbat services since I was a young girl. I would go with my father of blessed memory. I brought my children to services when they were young. My participation and comfort in synagogue life led to my 30-year journey in leadership at Adat Shalom.

During my first year on the Adat Shalom Board of Trustees, we had a leadership retreat. The keynote speaker, Bob Aronson, had a tremendous influence on my leadership journey. Among the many important lessons he taught was that as a leader the first thing you need to do when taking on a new role is look for your replacement. Developing new leaders is critical to the survival of any institution.

As president of Adat Shalom I want to help develop and inspire new leaders in our congregation. We are grateful to our dear congregants, Dr. David and Carla Forst, who have generously endowed the Pearl and Sidney Forst Leadership Academy. This endowment is in appreciation of the support Dr. Forst received from our clergy, staff, and minyan during the time he said Kaddish for his parents. The opening congregational event will be on Sunday, June 4 and will feature Dr. Barry Franklin who will discuss his book GPS for Success, which will be available at the event. Our clergy have compiled a list of young adults who will be personally invited to attend a "crash course" led by our clergy in leadership, Jewish Ritual, synagogue governance, and building intentional/sacred community.

A verse from Pirkei Avot reads, "It is not your duty to finish the work, but neither are you at liberty to neglect it." It is my hope the participants in our new Leadership Academy will become the future leaders of our congregation.

Jeffrey and I look forward to seeing you and your families on May 5 at our Israel 75th celebration and Shabbat Rocks!

Joyce updating the Board of Trustees at the April meeting.

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

This year is the 75th anniversary of the State of Israel, at which time it will have survived 74 years and 364 days longer than most of the world thought or hoped it would. It is one of the great success stories, not just for the Jewish people, but all of humanity.

A people is forcibly expelled from their land, yet never gives up hope and eventually, against all odds and against all enemies, returns, revives its daily language, and builds a modern democratic state in an area of the world which is not known for embracing freedom and democracy.

This people sees its mission to bring light and redemption to the rest of the world, even if much of that world rejects it. The fact that this happened in the shadow of our greatest tragedy makes Israel today that much more impressive and worthy of celebration.

We cannot take the future for granted. Israel is in the middle of its first crisis that cannot be solved through technology or innovation or defense or surveillance. It is a crisis that can only be resolved through a deep moral reckoning of what it means to be an Israeli and to be a Jewish democratic state. Who best represents Israel to Israel and to the world? What does it mean to be an Ohr LaGoyim, a light to the nations? This conversation is long overdue.

I share with you sections of The Israeli Declaration of Independence that I believe are crucial for framing these discussions.

THE STATE OF ISRAEL will be open for Jewish immigration and for the Ingathering of the Exiles; it will foster the development of the country for the benefit of all its inhabitants; it will be based on freedom, justice and peace as envisaged by the prophets of Israel; it will ensure complete equality of social and political rights to all its inhabitants irrespective of religion, race or sex; it will guarantee freedom of religion, conscience, language, education and culture; it will safeguard the Holy Places of all religions; and it will be faithful to the principles of the Charter of the United Nations.

WE EXTEND our hand to all neighboring states and their peoples in an offer of peace and good neighborliness, and appeal to them to establish bonds of cooperation and mutual help with the sovereign Jewish people settled in its own land. The State of Israel is prepared to do its share in a common effort for the advancement of the entire Middle East.

WE APPEAL to the Jewish people throughout the Diaspora to rally round the Jews of Eretz-Israel in the tasks of immigration and upbuilding and to stand by them in the great struggle for the realization of the age-old dream - the redemption of Israel.

This must be a time of kindness and compassion, of compromise and humility. Israel has so much that is great about it. It has done so much for the Jewish people and the world. The world needs Israel. I pray for its continuing success and commitment to its deepest values.

Havdallah in Jerusalem.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS

The Detroit Jewish community has many strong and vibrant synagogues across the denominations. There are two organizations that connect the various clergy of these numerous congregations: The Michigan Board of Cantors and The Michigan Board of Rabbis. Each group meets regularly in order for their clergy to connect, learn from one another, stay apprised of each other's happenings, and most importantly, bolster camaraderie.

According to the Michigan Board of Cantors by-laws, the purpose of the organization is to:

- provide a professional association of cantors and full-time cantorial soloists in the state of Michigan, within which the promotion and advancement of the total sphere of the Cantorate be projected and enhanced;

- sustain and elevate the status of the individual and collective image of the cantor as a duly recognized member of the clergy;

- be the umbrella organization regarding Jewish music and prayer, promoting, educating, and creating awareness of its importance in Jewish culture for our congregations and the community;

- and foster a sense of community within the organization and support the professional development of individual members and the entire group.

One of the highlights of the year for the Michigan Board of Cantors is our annual concert. The first concert took place in 2009, just a few months before I moved to the Detroit area. I participated in the second concert, singing both Teyve and Figaro! The pandemic put a damper on our concerts, but we will be returning to the Berman Center for the Performing Arts on May 9 for our 12th annual concert. The concert falls on the eve of Lag BaOmer, hence the title "Lag BaOmer: A Celebration in Song." The evening will feature celebratory songs that highlight aspects of the holiday, such as outdoor campfires and weddings. Tickets for the concert are available via the Berman's website.

I hope to see you there!

Hazzan Gross was one of the seder leaders at a "Freedom Seder" hosted by Governor Whitmer for members of the Coalition for Black and Jewish Unity. Hazzan shared, "one of the highlights was the Governor and Lieutenant Governor singing along to Dayeinu!"

FROM RABBI DANIEL S. HORWITZ Cultivating Leaders

I've been thinking a lot lately about leadership.

This past month, I had the pleasure of hosting an Adat Shalom Book Talk conversation with author Russ Linden, a national thought leader on change management. We discussed his most recent book Loss & Discovery: What The Torah Can Teach Us About Leading Change. In the book, Linden highlights a number of different leadership archetypes represented by various biblical figures, and pays particular attention to the differing styles of Abraham, Moses, and God. Melding biblical narrative with contemporary insights, it was fascinating to see modern-day best practices being modeled thousands of years ago.

That conversation got me thinking about our own synagogue leadership, and how fortunate we are to have folks who give of themselves in service to our shul. Investing their time, talent and treasure, Adat Shalom's leaders drive our community forward, allowing us to achieve our collective goals.

In many Jewish organizations today, there are concerns about who their future leaders are going to be, and where they are going to come from. The simple truth is that leaders don't just magically appear. Rather, they need to be cultivated. So, how are we at Adat Shalom cultivating the next generation of folks who are going to step up and assume leadership roles in our congregation?

We are proud to be launching the Pearl and Sidney Forst Leadership Academy. Utilizing a cohort-based model, this multi-part leadership development series will serve as a catalyst, beginning the cultivation process, and providing a crash course to emerging leaders in synagogue essentials, including governance, budgeting, building sacred communities, ritual skills, and more.

The kickoff event for this cohort will be open to the entire congregation, and will feature Dr. Barry Franklin, who will be presenting about his recent book, GPS For Success: Skills, Strategies, and Secrets of Superachievers. In addition to being a prolific author and incredibly engaging speaker, Dr. Franklin is Director of Preventive Cardiology and Cardiac Rehabilitation at Beaumont Health, and is a professor of Internal Medicine at Oakland University's William Beaumont School of Medicine. He is the perfect presenter to help launch this new initiative, which will hopefully benefit our congregation for many years to come. So, please mark your calendars, join us, and let's learn to lead together!

FROM RABBI BLAIR NOSANWISCH A Shavuot Story

One of the things I am most excited about growing since last Shavuot is our Adat Shalom Chesed committee. Members of our synagogue have been doing acts of chesed, loving kindness, for each other for a long time. For years this was known as Tikkun Adat, where Charlotte Dubin and Charm Levine led myriad opportunities for Adat Shalomniks to care for one another. When I first joined Adat Shalom, we were still in the midst of the pandemic and most of Tikkun Adat's efforts had been kept up by just a few hands. Thanks to the pandemic, the amount of good we could do was limited by the number of hands involved.

Charlotte and Charm shared with me that they were looking for the next generation to take over the holy work of Tikkun Adat. Because I spend a lot of time thinking about how the clergy team can do excellent pastoral care, I wanted to see their work carried forth in a way that would allow many members to steadily do good deeds for one another, both increasing our synagogue's capacity to care, as well as increasing the opportunity to do a mitzvah.

My belief is that community is most powerful when we can feel the interconnections between the things we do and the people we do them with. I believe that giving to others should be institutionalized, systematized, and shared. One week we receive a challah because we just got back from the hospital, the next month we deliver a challah for someone else. One year we receive a baby basket, the next year we help deliver a baby basket for a new parent. Hebrew school children come together to help cook and freeze meals along with parents and grandparents who volunteer their time to make it happen. Aging members who are living alone get social calls from members who want to take time to do something kind.

When one of our members, Lauren Acker, shared with me that she was looking to get more involved in the synagogue, I asked if she would go on a journey with me to revitalize Tikkun Adat. She agreed to focus on creating systems that would increase the hands involved in the work of loving kindness. Since re-launching the committee, our challah baker increased the pool of bakers from 1 to 5 baker volunteers! Our pool of delivery people grew from 1 (me) to 6! Lauren and I are working together to look for the next generation of leaders to continue Charm and Charlotte's legacy for years to come, and to expand into our wildest dreams!

So what does all of this have to do with Shavuot? It was last Shavuot that I decided to take a break from the weekly challah delivery myself and start praying for a lay leader who would take this work forward and grow it to its full potential. At shavuot we traditionally eat cheesecake. One of the reasons for doing so is that dairy is associated with the divine attribute of chesed. Just as milk is produced and given freely to nourish a child, so too does Torah nourish and sustains us. The production of milk takes energy to be sustained, and what we have been working to create in the next chapter of Tikkun Adat is the systems and structures that will help sustain our acts of chesed for years and years to come. May we all merit to both provide and receive nourishment in the coming year. If you want to get involved, check out the Chesed section of our Adat Shalom website.

Director of Education
mser@adatshalom.org

In March, I had the privilege to attend the Jewish Educators Assembly's 71st Annual Conference in Uniondale, New York. The theme of this year's conference - our first fully in-person event since our 2020 conference in the same location - was "Tradition, Transition, and Change." Together with colleagues from all over the country, we explored the challenges of returning to a post-pandemic world when our educational landscape has shifted so dramatically. A special thank you to the Board of Trustees and professional team for enabling me to attend professional development throughout the year. Working with my colleagues in the JEA gives me such incredible support and I am able to return to Adat Shalom strengthened and renewed after our conferences.

I am looking forward to implementing some of these explorations as we plan ahead to our 2023-2024 school year. With your help, we will make this next year - my 12th year at Adat Shalom - into an incredible experience for students and families of all ages and backgrounds. One of my summer projects is developing our fourth grade Israel curriculum so that it mirrors the students' secular social studies education. There will be a focus on primary sources and government structure, alongside virtual visits to Israel's Knesset and Supreme Court.

Do you have ideas about what we should keep, tweak, or toss? If you are interested in joining our Parent Committee, please contact Rick Goren at rick.goren@gmail.com, and if you'd like to share your feedback with me directly, send me an email at mser@adatshalom.org or give me a call at 248-626-2153.

We are just about ready to begin the first phase of transforming the Muscle Room into an Immersive Israel Playscape. Shalom Shabbat is our monthly Shabbat service for young families. Each month brings something special to our weekly ritual. In March we made crowns to wear that represented the crown of the Torah, and in April we celebrated Passover and thought a bit about the time of the omer. Without a doubt May will bring something thoughtful and fun - plus there's always the amazing service led by Hazz'n Dan and Rabbi Dan.

In June we will be returning to Shalom Shabbat at the Detroit Zoo! What could be more fun than celebrating Shabbat than doing so with the background noise of lions, monkeys, and tigers (and geese).

Plan on meeting us at the Pierson Lake Picnic Site at 10:30 for a joyful experience. Come early to see the animals and stay to hang out and walk the beautiful grounds! Detroit Zoo members will be able to enter without advance reservations. If you are not a zoo member you'll want to purchase your ticket ahead of time at detroitzoo.org.

Did you know that in Jerusalem there is a Biblical Zoo? While it has lots of animals and even an aquarium, it started out with the focus on native animals that are mentioned in the Tanakh. As you go through the zoo, you'll find plaques that have quotations from the Tanakh about these animals.

Some animals you'll find in both the Detroit Zoo and the Jerusalem Biblical Zoo are lions, chimpanzees, lemurs, and parrots. You'll find the gray wolf, a symbol of the tribe of Benjamin, in both zoos too! There is always something fun happening on Shabbat and in June all the fun will be at the Zoo!

Youth Engagement

While we are looking back at a wonderful programming season, our dedicated team of youth leaders is already planning next year's calendar of community building and fun events.

At Adat Shalom, there are many opportunities for kids and teens to make lasting friendships, be part of an active youth community, contribute to our congregation, and make connections with our educators, youth professionals, and clergy.

Looking ahead to this summer, kids entering 6th to 12th grades are invited to volunteer at the 6th Annual Youth United Interfaith Service Camp from Tuesday, August 1 to Thursday, August 3 at CARES community center in Farmington Hills. Teens will enjoy the variety of hands-on volunteer projects that range from building benches, working in its food pantry, doing art projects, and helping CARES with its annual duck race fundraiser. Adat Shalom is one of the founding community partners of Youth United. Sammi Shapiro and I are part of the planning committee and look forward to volunteering with teens from Adat Shalom and their friends. This summer camp style volunteer experience is free of charge. # OUR ADAT COMMUNITY

SISTERHOOD

Shalom Sisters,

After a three year pause, Sisterhood is thrilled to resume our annual spring fundraiser on Tuesday, May 2, 2023, chaired by Sisterhood member Linda Levy. Its new name is Women's Day @ Adat Shalom, which represents all the women that work so tirelessly throughout the year to make Sisterhood successful. The event committee has been hard at work to bring this exciting day to Adat Shalom members and the community.

Women's Day will begin at 9:30am with registration and boutique shopping. There will be a unique range of vendors which include jewelry, children's items, clothing, and more. While you do your shopping, you will have the opportunity to buy 50/50 raffle tickets and spend time catching up with other women in our community.

We are excited that Judy Gold will be the keynote speaker. Ms. Gold is a stand-up comedian, actor, podcaster, television and theatre writer, author, and producer. A two-time Emmy Award winner known for her edgy wit, sharp timing, and infamous crowd work, she promises to be entertaining and delightful.

Joyce Berlin Weingarten is the Woman of Distinction Honoree. Joyce was scheduled to receive this honor in 2020 when we abruptly had to cancel the event due to COVID-19. Joyce's list of contributions to Adat Shalom over the years is long and diverse. She is very deserving of this honor and we are excited to finally make it happen. You can show your support for Joyce by making a donation to the Tree of Life page that will appear in the program.

We hope you will join us on May 2. This very full day includes boutique shopping, speaker, recognition of our Woman of Distinction, lunch, and raffle. Your presence and contribution will allow Sisterhood to continue providing Shabbat Kiddush, gifts for our b'nai mitzvah, scholarships, and the many programs that are offered throughout the year.

Please visit adatshalom.org/womensday for information, tickets, and Tree of Life tributes.

MEN'S CLUB

I love the spring... I really do! Besides the warmer weather, it's when I transition out of one of the busiest times in my professional year into a (slightly) slower pace. It's also a chance to reflect on some of the great accomplishments of that busier time. Men's Club is no different!

During March, we had two amazing events focusing not on the men of Adat Shalom, but the next generation. We kicked off the month with DIY with Dad, a special program where dads and their kids could work together on a hands-on project. With the assistance and leadership of Jaron Friedman and Joey Lebovic, these father-child teams created planters for the spring. Thank you, Jaron and Joey!

Just two weeks later, it was time for the dads (and, in some cases, granddads) to bring the special young ladies in their families on a memorable "date night" for our annual Daddy Daughter Dance. Whether it was moving around the dance floor, posing in the photo booth, enjoying delicious snacks and dinner, or just hanging out and enjoying being with one another, all who came had a wonderful evening! Thank you for all of the hard work by our event chairs, Jaron Friedman and Mike Weil.

In a month with two of our recurring "signature" events, we also had a first as we presented Mortar and Mixology, a special pre-Passover experience which included learning about charoset making and some creative Pesach-appropriate mixed drinks. A very special thank you to the support from our amazing clergy team for helping to design and deliver this program, and to Phil Arnold for his leadership. (Also, a special shout-out to Wendy Arnold for devoting her time to demonstrate her charoset making!)

Last month, Men's Club came together to commemorate the Holocaust with a special program that featured our own Jeff Cymerint speaking about his father's personal story of survival. Thank you, Jeff, for driving this most important program and for modeling the obligation of later generations to keep the stories and memories alive.

Coming up, we have a few remaining sessions of Thoughtful Thursdays (May 18 and June 15) before we break for the summer. Thank you, as always, to Rabbi Bergman for his leadership of this program, and to Joey Lebovic for coordinating!

Men's Club is looking forward to enjoying the warmer weather of late spring and summer. Be a part of our Men's Club Softball Team; our season of competing against other synagogues in the area is now underway and will continue through August. Please contact George Dickstein at gddoec@gmail.com with questions.

Lastly, please join us for our Annual Meeting and Elections on Sunday, May 7. Open to all members of Men's Club, this will be an opportunity to celebrate our year that is wrapping up and begin to focus on the coming year. We will also elect our board and officers for the coming year.

Thank you to everyone who has helped to make this Men's Club programming year outstanding!

DIY with Dad! This year's creative project was to build beautiful wood planter boxes for spring. Great work everyone!

SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION

LIGHTHOUSE-SOUTH OAKLAND: HOUSING THE HOMELESS June 25 - July 1, 2023

The clients of Lighthouse-South Oakland Shelter are currently living in apartments and will not be returning to Adat Shalom for our scheduled week. A recent census showed that Lighthouse was providing housing for over 60 men and women which included many children. In April, there were 18-20 adults with the balance being 40 children under the age of 18. Lighthouse is the only family shelter in Oakland County.

Although the program will not be based at Adat Shalom the need for meals and personal care items continues to be needed by the participants. Adat Shalom's commitment to easing the struggles of the homeless is unchanged. Our commitment is to provide lunches and dinners during our scheduled week. The program requires that the meal preparation must be done in a commercial restaurant kitchen. The cost of providing meals for over 60 people for a week will be very significant. Please consider supporting this very important program by making a contribution to the Hillel Isaac and Rachel Maisel Memorial Housing the Homeless Fund. In addition to meals, we will collect hotel sized toiletries and personal care items. Volunteers will be needed to deliver meals. Please contact Evva Hepner, 248.798.7673 or Debbie Cohen, 248.755.9940 for more information and to volunteer.

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

On March 12, 2023 Adat Shalom sponsored another successful blood drive. We collected 28 pints of blood. The drive was smaller than we like but everyone had a good experience. The Red Cross staff were excellent and the drive ran seamlessly. Several people were in and out within 45 minutes! We thank all who helped make the drive successful: Marvin Brown for the set up, Beth Bitterman and Marcia Garland for volunteering at the canteen, Ruth Zerin and Marcy Colton who tirelessly helped all day long, and finally, all our blood donors.

Like many regular blood donors, I started donating blood when I was a teen. I keep doing it because I can. I like that I can do something that can help many with just a simple poke and a few minutes of my time. I find this very fulfilling and I am sure that other donors feel the same. I hope that some of you readers will consider giving it a try if you have never donated before. Our next drive is September 10. Look for the information in the Voice or your email from the synagogue. If you want a personal reminder, email me at debbyportney@gmail.com and I will put you on my email list. Also, once the drive is going, I can easily set up appointments for you without you having to navigate the Red Cross site yourself!

Thank you Adat Shalom for continuing to support our efforts with the American Red Cross and a big shout out to all our blood donors - Yasher Koach!!

CHESED COMMITTEE

A serving of loving kindness from Adat Shalom!

"On these three things the world stands. On Torah, on service, and on chesed, acts of loving-kindness." (Pirkei Avot 1:2). We are excited to announce the re-launch of Adat Shalom's Chesed Committee, a volunteer-led committee focused on doing acts of loving-kindness. We are actively looking for volunteers to bake and/or deliver challot on Fridays and build and deliver baby baskets. To learn more, visit the Chesed Committee website: adatshalom.org/chesed and sign up to volunteer! By working together on these acts of chesed, we will collectively strengthen the bonds of our Adat Shalom community.

Book of Remembrance

During the High Holy Days it is an honored tradition at Adat Shalom to recall our beloved relatives and friends who are no longer with us.

Our annual Book of Remembrance is a meaningful way for you to keep the memories of those you love alive through the spirit of tzedakah.

The book is used during the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret, Pesach, and Shavuot, as well as for meditation and prayer in your home.

BOOK OF

A book of remembrance was written before God, for those who revered the Lord and who thought upon God's name.

Adat Shalom's tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set an $18 minimum price for tribute cards. Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please visit our website adatshalom.org/tributes or call the synagogue office at 248.851.5100. We will process your tribute and mail it promptly.
