MESSAGES

FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOYCE BERLIN WEINGARTEN

One of many programs offered at our religious school is Better Together. Fifth and sixth grade students pair with our beloved seniors to discuss many life topics, learn together, and create art. They share their feelings and discuss growing up today compared with years ago. The monthly meetings, with delicious food provided for all, in our social hall bring happiness, security, positivity, and relationships between the generations.

The Better to Serve program at our religious school brings teens together with people served by JARC to form relationships, common bonds, and learn about Jewish values of inclusion. Recently they baked together for a candy and bake sale where the teens raised funds for JARC. At Adat Shalom, Better to Serve enables our teens and adults in JARC homes to build community, learn, and grow together.

When we connect meaningfully with others it allows us to work together to achieve our goals and for the common good. It helps us grow as individuals, as family, and as a community.

Family, friends, and communities will soon join together to celebrate Passover and tell the story of the Exodus from Egypt. When the Israelites departed from Egypt they emerged as a community giving each other strength and courage to move on with their lives and experience their newfound freedom together.

We have so many opportunities to come together this spring at Adat Shalom. See what calls to you as you read this issue of the Voice. Maybe you would like to be part of a Lunchtime Learning, an evening Zoom class, Torah study, or yoga on Shabbat morning. Celebrate Purim and Passover with us. Attend our Purim-tastic Annual Fundraiser and Women's Day in support of our synagogue and sisterhood. Come to Adat Shalom and enjoy yourself with your Adat Shalom community.

Rabbi Bergman recently wrote with one of his beautiful paintings, "We all dance together. Happy people embrace that, even when we step on each other's toes."

We are a people who always come together to support each other, and even more so since October 7. As a community we are closer and stronger and have maintained our sense of connection with one another. We come to Adat Shalom to be with our community, to pray, and to gather strength. We may not always know where the world will take us, but together we will get there.

At Adat Shalom we are definitely better together.

Jeffrey and I wish you and your families a joyous Purim and Passover.

Adat Shalom is creating an Immersive Israel Playscape, including an incredible Masada-inspired climbing wall and Judean Hills-inspired smaller climbing features. Stop by and check it out for yourself. Joyce did!

Read more about the Israel Playscape on page 10.

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

The last several months have been among the darkest we have experienced as a people in many decades. The devastating loss of life, the displacement of so many, the rise of antisemitism and a lingering fear that we are not as safe as we have been all lead to a sense of darkness closing in. As Jews, though, we never allow the darkness itself to define us.

In the beginning of the Torah, we see that God creates both darkness and light. The two of them combined, they make a day. A day is not just light. Night is part of the day. Darkness by itself is not bad or destructive.

Why, then, is darkness one of the Ten Plagues that afflict Egypt, and why does it just seem that only the Egyptians were affected? Darkness does not seem to be nearly as destructive as some of the earlier ones. It seems strange that is one of the later plagues, signifying how important and effective it was.

The Japanese philosopher Dogen had an interesting perspective about the difference between light and darkness which helped me understand the power of this plague. He said. "The true nature of reality is the merging of these two sides, with darkness representing unity and light representing clarity. Light represents clarity because when it is bright outside we can see that things have different forms, colors, names, and functions. But when it's completely dark, even though things still exist, we cannot distinguish between them, just as we cannot distinguish between beings when we see them from the viewpoint of unity. So light and darkness are two aspects of one reality, as difference and unity are two aspects of one reality."

Plague of Darkness actually affected everyone, both Egyptian and Hebrews. They were all in the dark. The differences is that the Egyptians turned on each other and the Hebrews turned toward each other. That has always been the key to our people's ability to get through the hardest of times.

Who are you in the darkness of your life? Do you turn toward the people you say you love, toward your community? Do you allow them to turn to you? Do you see that there is always light, even when it feels hidden? That ability to find meaning in life, to find light is always in you already. You just have to allow yourself to see it.

May we all have a sweet and joyous Pesach.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS
One Pastry - Many Meanings

All of our Jewish holidays have specific foods associated with them. The culinary preparation for each holiday is often the catalyst that prepares our minds for the various meanings of that holiday. Purim (which falls on March 23-24 this year) is no exception. The triangular, filled pastries known as hamentaschen are unique to Purim. They come in all sorts of sizes and flavors and everyone swears that their own recipe is the best. Did you know that the word hamentasch itself is jam-packed (pun intended!) with different meanings?

The first part of the word hamentasch contains the name of the Purim story's evil antagonist. I've always found it odd that the bad guy would get a tasty treat named after him. Why not Mordechaitasch or Esthertasch? Multiple explanations exist for the origin of the name.

Some common fillings for hamentaschen are jams, chocolate chips, and the most traditional of all and my personal favorite, poppy seed paste. In Europe, the poppy has symbolized fertility for centuries and serves as a powerful culinary symbol of Megillat Esther's message of the existence and resiliency of the Jewish people. The Yiddish word for poppy seed paste is mon (you may have heard it pronounced "mun") which comes from German. The word tasch in Yiddish means pocket. If you add the Hebrew word for "the" — ha — before mon, you get...Haman! These pastries are literally poppy seed pockets! Or, are they Haman's pockets? Some believe the latter as it's been surmised that Haman's pockets symbolize the money that Haman offered King Achashverosh in exchange for permission to destroy the Jews. Moreover, in Hebrew the word tash means "weakened." Therefore, these delicacies can mean the "weakening of Haman."

What about the significance of the triangular shape? You may have heard that it represents Haman's tricornered hat. While there is no reference to this style hat in the Megillah, this legend did give us fodder for the classic Purim children's song, LaKova Sheli Shalosh Pinot ("My hat has three corners"). Another explanation is that the triangle represents the three-way struggle between Achashverosh, Haman, and Esther. There is also a midrash that says that the triangle's three sides represent the legacy of our Patriarchs (Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) that was protected by Esther and Mordechai's valiant efforts. Furthermore, ancient historians have connected the hamentasch's shape to that of triangular dice used in the popular ancient Mesopotamian board game known as the "Royal Game of Ur," thus suggesting that the delicacies symbolize Haman's casting of lots to determine the day to destroy the Jewish people. A more practical explanation for the shape of the pastry is that it was derived from the traditional Central European technique of folding dough for dumplings, and may have migrated from Italy to Germany's Ashkenazi Jews as far back as the 14th century. Hence, kreplach!

Lastly, the Hebrew name for hamentaschen is oznei haman which means Haman's ears. (If you are eating a hamentasch while reading this, you may want to put the pastry down now before continuing.) It's been said that as part of Haman's execution, his ears were either wrenched into a triangular shape or that they were cut off entirely. Not the most appetizing explanation! I like to think that calling them Haman's ears is our way of never forgetting the evil that confronted our people in the Purim story, and, therefore, we never take our lives for granted. Calling them oznei haman is a way for the proverbial Haman to continually hear that the Jewish people are thriving and that we are alive and well. Am Yisrael Chai and Chag Purim Sameach!

(You can resume eating your hamentasch now!)

FROM RABBI BLAIR NOSANWISCH

When I first joined Adat Shalom, one point of pride I heard frequently was that Adat Shalom was unlike other area synagogues because when it was founded, it was not rooted in any particular Jewish community from the past (the synagogue for the Hungarian Jews, for example) but rather, Adat Shalom was always a collection of Jews from many different Jewish backgrounds, coming together to create one loving kehillah.

In my first months serving the community, I met Dr. Harry Maisel. He shared with me that he had an extensive collection of dresses from his late wife Rae Maisel z"l's collection. Rae was a Jew of Bukharan descent. Bukharan Jews are an ethno-religious sub-group of Central Asia that historically spoke Bukharian. The lands comprising what was formerly known as the Central Asian Emirate of Bukhara is now primarily Uzbekistan, and once had a sizable Jewish population. Bukharan Jews are Mizrahi Jews, and the majority have immigrated to Israel or the United States.

Rae Maisel's own story traversed multiple continents. She was born in London in 1933 to parents Hezekiah and Batsheva Elias. They had left Bukhara after the Bolshevik revolution. They made their living from dealing in fur. Some of the family went to Jerusalem. Many of the rabbis who led the Bukharan Jewish community in Israel were Rae's family.

After WWII Rae's whole family moved to South Africa. Rae was extremely bright and graduated high school. Her mother only spoke Bukharian. The head of the school told her father that he must send her to college. It was not traditional in the Bukharian community to send girls to college. She was the first girl in her family to do so.

Rae and Harry met the day they were graduating from university. Harry's work brought them to Montreal and then ultimately to Wayne State University in Detroit. They joined Adat Shalom in 1962. Rae was a leader of our synagogue throughout her years here. One notable contribution was that she headed our Ritual Committee and moved the synagogue towards the policy changes that allowed for women to have aliyot.

Over the past two years, Harry has worked to find a place for Rae's extensive Bukharian Textile collection. Ultimately, with the indispensable support of the Jewish Historical Society of Michigan (JHSM) and their Executive Director Dr. Catherine Cangany, a partnership between Adat Shalom and JHSM came about, with Adat Shalom chosen as the ideal home for a permanent exhibit. JHSM is the steward of the collection and will be caring for the textiles and rotating them in our display case, highlighting Bukharian history, and Rae's contributions to our synagogue. Adat Shalom will use the exhibit for education about Rae's legacy, Bukharian, and world Jewry.

The exhibit is likely to open sometime after Pesach. As we sit around our tables for the yearly ritual of teaching about generations of Jewish people, I hope that Rae's story will become part of all our stories. Look near the coat rooms for the future home of our Bukharan Jewish Textile Exhibit, Dedicated by Dr. Harry Maisel in Loving Memory of Rachel Elias Maisel z"l. I leave you with the words of Rabbi Bergman from Rae's eulogy:

The righteous, even when they are not here with us, are still alive in profound ways. Rae's goodness and kindness and strength are eternal, and we are all better for it.

Breakfast following services

Jews commemorate the sparing of the Hebrew first-born sons in the Pesach story by concluding the study of a section of Jewish text the morning of the first Seder (or the previous day if the Seder falls on Shabbat). From the Middle Ages on, prominent rabbis have stated that first-born daughters should attend the siyum as well. At Adat Shalom, all members of your family, whatever their birth order, are invited to join in the siyum.

Bedikat Chametz The Search for Leaven

Bedikat Chametz (The Search for Leaven) will be held this year after nightfall on Sunday, April 21, 2024. By tradition, bread crumbs are placed conspicuously in rooms where food is ordinarily eaten or brought.

Using a candle for illumination, a "search" is made to find the remnants of chametz, which are then collected using a feather as a whisk.

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu Melech ha'olam, asher kidshanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu al biur chametz.

We praise You, O God, Sovereign of the Universe, Who hallows our lives with commandments, Who has commanded us to burn chametz.

"Selling" Your Chametz

The Torah prohibits Jews from owning chametz during Pesach. For those who wish to adhere to this tradition, Adat Shalom will be happy to arrange for the contractual (virtual) sale of your chametz to a non-Jew for the duration of the holiday. According to this contract, your ownership of your chametz will end at 9am on 14 Nisan (April 22) and will be restored at 9:20pm on 22 Nisan (April 30).

You may arrange to sell your chametz beginning Monday, April 8, through 9am on the morning of Monday, April 22.

To do so, complete the form on our website: adatshalom.org/chametz or email Rabbi Nosanwisch at bnosanwisch@adatshalom.org with your name and address to be added to the contract. Please call Rabbi Nosanwisch with any questions.

It is customary, but not necessary, to make a contribution to the synagogue for requesting that we act as the agent for the sale of your chametz. If you wish to do so, we suggest a $20 donation to Adat Shalom's Minyan Breakfast Fund.

Post-Pesach Activities

Restoring your home to "chametz" is a simple matter, consisting mainly of putting away Pesach utensils and bringing back the chametz items to their regular places. Pesach is concluded by Havdalah said over wine. (The blessings over the candle and the spices are reserved for the conclusion of Shabbat).

Some families have a custom of eating a heavily chametz meal, such as pizza, or at least eating some foods that they sorely missed during Passover. For others, the transition back to chametz is a slow one, taking place during the omer period, a transition that goes from the Pesach meals of matzah and meat to the Shavuot meals of dairy foods and leavened bread.

Chametz may be eaten again after 9:14pm on Tuesday, April 30, 2024.

COSMETICS AND TOILETRIES

All varieties of body soaps, shampoos and stick deodorants are permitted for use on Pesach, regardless of ingredients. All types of ointments, creams, nail polish, hand lotions, eyeshadow, eyeliner, mascara, blush, foot and face powders, ink and paint may be used, regardless of their ingredients. Colognes, perfumes, hair spray, shaving lotions, and deodorants that have restorable, denatured alcohol should not be used. This applies only to products in a pure liquid state. Lipstick that contains chametz should not be used.

KITCHEN SINK

A metal sink can be kashered by thoroughly cleaning it, then leaving it unused for 24 hours, and then pouring boiling water into it. A porcelain sink should be cleaned and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

KASHERING OF UTENSILS

The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil (ke-voleo kakh polet). Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat, and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

EARTHENWARE

Earthenware may not be kashered. However, fine translucent chinaware and earthenware which has not been used for more than a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

METAL UTENSILS USED IN FIRE

Metal (wholly made of metal) utensils used in fire (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made hot until it glows. Those used for cooking or eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and not used for 24 hours, then they are completely immersed in boiling water. Metal baking utensils cannot be kashered.

GLASSWARE

There are two different ways of kashering glassware. Glass cookware includes cookware made of modern materials that are non-porous, such as Pyrex®. If you don't have a dishwasher, you may soak the items in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours. The other way requires only that they be put through a clean dishwasher with no other items.

TABLES, CLOSETS, AND COUNTERS

If used with chametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used. Note that the covering material should be made of material that is not easily torn.

CHAMETZ AND NON-PASSOVER UTENSILS

Non-Passover dishes, pots, and chametz whose ownership has been transferred to a non-Jew should be separated, locked up or covered, and marked in order to prevent accidental use.

Since the Torah prohibits the eating of chametz during Pesach, and since many common foods contain some admixture of chametz, guidance is necessary when shopping and preparing for Pesach.

During the eight days of Pesach, chametz cannot lose its identity in an admixture. Therefore the most minute amount of chametz renders the whole admixture chametz, and its use on Pesach is prohibited. However, during the rest of the year, chametz follows the normal rules of admixture, i.e. it loses its identity in an admixture of one part chametz and sixty parts of non-chametz (batel beshishim). This affords us the opportunity to differentiate between foods purchased before and during Pesach.

What follows are some general guidelines. However, our rabbis should be consulted when any doubt arises. Kosher l'Pesach items that do not bear the name of a rabbi or one of the recognized symbols of rabbinic supervision, or which are not integral to the package, should not be used without consulting our rabbis.

Prohibited foods include the following: leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffee with cereal derivatives, wheat, barley, oats, spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol.

Permitted foods that require no kosher l'Pesach label if purchased prior to Pesach include: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee without cereal additives (be aware that coffees produced by General Foods are not kosher for Passover unless marked KP); sugar, pure tea (not herbal tea); salt (not iodized); pepper; natural spices; frozen fruit juices (with no additives); frozen (uncooked) vegetables; milk; butter; cottage cheese; cream cheese; ripened cheeses such as cheddar (hard), muenster (semi-soft) and Camembert (soft); frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives); baking soda.

Permitted foods that require no kosher l'Pesach label if purchased before or during Pesach include: fresh fruits and vegetables, eggs, fresh fish, and fresh meat.

Permitted foods that require a kosher l'Pesach label if purchased prior to Pesach include all baked products (matzah, cakes, matzah flour, farfel, matzah meal, and any products containing matzah); canned or bottled fruit juices; canned tuna; wine; vinegar; liquor; oils; dried fruits; candy; chocolate-flavored milk; ice cream; yogurt, and soda.

Detergents: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher l'pesach label.

Medicine required for health-sustaining therapy may be used on Pesach. If not for health-sustaining therapy, consult one of our rabbis. In all cases, capsules are preferred to pills, with or without chametz binders. Before discontinuing any medication, consult a rabbi and your physician.

Two Centers of Jewish Life

with Rabbi Nosanwisch

Are we living in a time where Jews are scattered or centralized?
What do we make of Haman's antisemitic critique in the Megillah:
"There is a certain people, scattered and dispersed... whose laws

BEARING WITNESS

Panel presentation about Detroit Federation's Leadership Solidarity Mission to Israel

Sunday, March 10 | 9:30am | Adat Shalom
moderated by Rabbi Bergman

The Solidarity Mission was a study in contrasts: joy and sorrow, beauty and destruction, extreme trauma and bravado.

Panelists include:
Leah Trosch, David Schostak, Matt Ran,
Adam Kessler, Ron Sollish, and Randi Sakwa

Kindly RSVP: adatshalom.org/israelpanel

FROM DR. MELISSA SER
Director of Education
mser@adatshalom.org

In our Learning Community, we focus on three major aspects of Israel Education: Eretz Yisrael (the land of Israel), Medinat Yisrael (the modern state of Israel), and Am Yisrael (the Jewish people, both in Israel and in the diaspora). All of these aspects of Israel are complex, and we attempt to think critically from a place of love and respect. For those of us who have been to or lived in Israel, we know that there is a sense of awe and wonder that we feel deeply when we traverse the paths our ancestors explored.

We wondered how we could create that wonder and joy from Farmington Hills, and so Sammi Shapiro and I set out to create a new space in our building. Our "Muscle Room" was outdated, with toys and climbing equipment that had seen better days. We envisioned a space that would engage children from birth through b'nai mitzvah age, with educational content, fine and gross motor skill development, areas for adults, and a theme: Israel.

With a grant from the Hermelin Davidson Fund for Congregation Excellence, an anonymous matching donor, the Epstein Family Foundation, artwork by Ian Mendel, design support from Arica Goldis, and the expertise and muscle of volunteers led by Paul Goldsmith, we are well under way to an anticipated ribbon-cutting before Rosh Hashanah.

What can you do in this Immersive Israel Playscape?

Climb Masada on our traverse climbing wall.

Jump into our foam pit and "float" in the Dead Sea.

Dig through sensory-friendly sand for pottery pieces and more.

Shop in the Shuk (market) and practice using Israeli currency.

Climb on a desert jeep (ages 2-6).

Play soccer, Israel's most popular sport.

Try collaborative building in the kibbutz area: build a fort, create a Lego™ or Duplo™ village, and more.

Explore Jewish values through small-group initiatives that utilize a balance beam, stepping stones, an agility ladder, and more.

Run the kibbutz restaurant: will it be pita, shwarma, falafel, or salads?

Learn to cook Israeli foods (and more) in our brand-new kosher learning kitchen! Cooking classes and demonstrations will be part of our youth, teen, and adult offerings!

Are you excited yet? There are opportunities to support this project in multiple ways, ranging from a simple purchase on our Amazon Playscape wish list to naming opportunities.

Come find me, Michael Wolf, or Paul Goldsmith next time you are in the building and we are happy to give you a tour.

Sometimes just getting outside is really hard and it feels so good to be in the fresh air! All the socks, mittens, rain boots, umbrellas, socks, sunscreen, hats, socks, jackets, sweatshirts, and did I mention socks? Being outside is so important to our kids' development and our own adult well being. So how do we make this happen?

I've partnered with Adamah Detroit to create a new class - Teva Tots - for our community. During this class we will be outside rain, shine, snow, and mud learning all about how we observe our world, what's so amazing about it, and how radical amazement fits into our Jewish traditions.

While we know the balance of inside play, screen time, and outside play are important to our children there are studies that show we can improve team work, social-emotional skills, confidence, independence, and communication* just by committing to learn and be outside!

So gear up and join me and Adamah Detroit for Teva Tots in what is sure to be a refreshing class for children and a grown-up!

Remember: There's no bad weather, only bad clothing (Norwegian saying)

Spreading Kindness during our 10th Annual Volunteer Day

Thanks to the dedicated planning committee, project leaders, and volunteers (adults, teens, and kids) Volunteer Day was a huge success. I am also grateful for our partnerships with amazing organizations improving lives in Metro Detroit and Israel. Together we spread kindness in more ways than we could have ever imagined. If you would like to learn more about the organizations and projects, visit <https://bit.ly/volunteerdayprojects>

Volunteer Day 2024 by number:

- 180 bags of dry ingredients to make soup were assembled and then distributed by Metro Food Rescue. Metro Food Rescue also donated the soup ingredients and food for other projects.
- 47 meaningful messages were written and decorated for Magen David Adom in Israel.
- 81 decorated notebooks will cheer up patients at Henry Ford Hospital West Bloomfield.
- 3 boxes of baby products and large toiletries, 50 decorated paper grocery bags, and 41 reusable t-shirt bags were donated to CARES of Farmington Hills.
- Over 100 decorated lunch bags filled with good food and 100 cheese sandwiches were made along with 123 bags of toiletries were packed for Hope Hospitality and Warming Center in Pontiac.
- 2 Baby Baskets were packed and 10 quarts of soup were made for Adat Shalom's Chesed (kindness) Committee.
- 100 SnackPax were decorated and filled with treats and 30+ balls of plastic yarn (plarn) were donated to Song and Spirit Institute of Peace. The balls will be crocheted into sleeping mats for people who are experiencing homelessness.
- 80 colorful fleece scarves will keep clients of Project Healthy Community warmer this winter.
- 85 bookmarks were decorated and donated to Pasteur Elementary in partnership with Friends of Pasteur School Detroit.
- Many Israeli flag pins were made as a make and take project.
- 143 fleece cat and dog toys made with fleece donated by National Council of Jewish Women's "Wrapped in Love" project and a box of items were donated to Michigan Animal Rescue League.
- 30 tissue flower bouquets were made for residents living at Fairmont Senior Living in Northville.

Our weekend of kindness continued during the MLK Jr. Tikkun Olam day for families. It was a partnership between Hillel Day School's PTO and Adat Shalom. Volunteers made 180 reusable t-shirt satchels and 160 meal kits for clients of CARES of Farmington Hills.

Keep volunteering!

SISTERHOOD

Besides beautiful weather and gorgeous flowers, we are excited that May will bring our Sisterhood spring event, Women's Day @ Adat Shalom. If you haven't already done so, please mark your calendars for May 9 and plan on joining us for a spectacular day. We are thrilled to be presenting Irin Carmon as our keynote speaker. Ms. Carmon is an Israeli-American journalist, a CNN contributor, and the author of Notorious RBG: The Life and Times of Ruth Bader Ginsburg. In addition to this wonderful speaker, we are proud to be honoring our very own Joan Chernoff-Epstein as Sisterhood's Woman of Distinction. Joan is the immediate Past President of Adat Shalom and is a well respected community leader. Please join us in honoring Joan by adding your name to the Tree of Life, which will appear in the Women's Day program. Your donation can be made at adatshalom.org/womensday/ or by mailing a check to the synagogue with a minimum donation of $36, payable to Adat Shalom Sisterhood by Monday, April 29. The day will be filled with unique boutique shopping, the speaker, an award presentation, and a delicious catered lunch. In addition to honoring Joan, please consider becoming a patron of the event. You will have an opportunity to choose a patron level when you receive your invitation. When selecting a level of patronage, please know that the funds received go to support all of our meaningful work. If you are interested in the many Women's Day volunteer opportunities please contact event chair Linda Levy at likol@aol.com.

Purim and Passover are just around the corner. The Sisterhood Gift Shop has beautiful and fun items to help you celebrate the holiday. You can find unique products that are not sold in other stores, many from Israel, and you will also be supporting Sisterhood. Our next Sisterhood Book Club is in-person at Adat Shalom on Thursday, March 7. Our book selection is I Want You To Know We're Still Here by Esther Safran Foer and we are fortunate to have Ruth Bergman as our facilitator. It is not too late to join our Book Club. If you would like to participate, please find the information in the advertisement on page 13. If you have not joined Sisterhood this year, we encourage you to join and support our efforts in bringing you programming and events throughout the year. Please see the Adat Shalom website at adatshalom.org to join today!

We look forward to seeing you on Shabbat and at future Sisterhood events.

MEN'S CLUB

Last month was one of my favorite days on our annual Men's Club calendar... our Shabbat service and retreat. While each of our programs reinforces the wonderful sense of the community that is Men's Club, that sense is amplified tremendously over the 8 hours that we prayed, learned, and just kibbitzed with each other. We began with the club "taking over the bimah" to lead and participate in all aspects of the morning service. Thank you, so much, to everyone who took on a role during the morning and added to the beauty and meaning of our service: Adam Arnold, Sam Arnold, Michael Betman, Alan Chandross, Jacob Cymerint, Jeff Cymerint, George Dickstein, Ike Engelbaum, David Flaisher, Josh Flanders, Paul Goldsmith, Rick Goren, Gary Graff, Larry Kirshner, Joey Lebovic, Neal Lepsetz, Stuart Logan, Paul Magy, Aaron Perlman, Dennis Phillips, Steve Rotenberg, Lee Schostak, David Strauss, Jeff Tackel, Fred Waller, Mike Weil, Jeffrey Weingarten, Brian Wolf, Michael Wolf, and Lon Zaback. Thank you, as well, to our amazing clergy team for supporting us all in putting this service together! (During the service, I spoke from the bima about the strength of Men's Club... a recording of that talk is on the Men's Club page of the Adat Shalom website.)

Our afternoon retreat gave us the opportunity to think through how to process and respond to the post-October 7 world that we are living in. Our day included a presentation on community security by Gary Sikorski (from the director of community security for the Jewish Federation), text studies and discussions facilitated by Rabbis Bergman and Nosanwisch, talking about practical approaches to responding to antisemitism led by Melissa Ser, and experiencing a closer connection with ourselves and G-d through a drum circle led by Hazzan Gross. Thank you so much to this outstanding team for delivering engaging content and helping us to grow as a community, and a special thank you to Jeff Cymerint, Jaron Friedman, Larry Kirshner, Andy Pass, and Dan Weberman, for all that you collectively did to organize the day for us!

As we move into March, while I know many of us (myself included) will be focusing heavily on college basketball, and gearing up for the upcoming start of the baseball season, Men's Club continues to offer a range of programs designed to meet the varied interest of our members. We start on March 3 with our 20th Annual Daddy Daughter Dance. Whether you come as a dad or a grandfather... or just as a volunteer to help make the day that much more enjoyable, we hope to see you there!

Passover will be here before we know it... join us on April 11 for our Men's Club Passover Program to help us get in the mindset for the holiday, think through ways to enhance our seders, and just enjoy some more time together.

Lastly, I want to highlight two important Sundays in May: On May 5, please join us for our Men's Club Annual Meeting (and breakfast!) at which we will elect the next board and officers for the coming year. And just two weeks later, Men's Club will be hitting the road on May 19 for a day-long Road Trip to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. Join us for a day of fun and camaraderie, facilitated by our own resident rock-docent, Gary Graff, and chaired by Larry Kirshner. This will be a day not to be missed!!

For those who have been participating in Men's Club programming, we look forward to your continued involvement. And as for the rest of you, it's never too late to join... and we welcome you!

B'Shalom,
Alan

YAD EZRA DELIVERIES - SUNDAY, MARCH 24, 2024, 11am-1pm

It is long-time tradition to have community synagogues and temples volunteer to make deliveries to Yad Ezra clients on Sundays. Adat Shalom has been an important part of this act of tikkun olam. The clients depend on these deliveries because they are unable to get to Yad Ezra independently. Yad Ezra makes the deliveries very easy. Arrive at Yad Ezra (11 Mile between Greenfield and Coolidge) at 11am. The groceries are packed and labeled for you. Included is a routing slip. There are usually about 3-4 deliveries all in the same geographic location. Take the groceries to the clients' door. This is an activity in which everyone in the family can participate.

If you can commit to making deliveries on March 24, please contact Evva Hepner, 248.798.7673. Thank you for being an integral role in feeding those in need. We could not help the most vulnerable in our community without you.

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE, SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 4pm-7pm

We will be preparing and serving dinner at the Ronald McDonald House in Detroit. This is a residential facility for families to stay while their children are hospitalized. This is a challenging time for these families. They spend long days with their children in the hospital and the warmth of a hot cooked meal is greatly appreciated. The facility requires that all food must be prepared in their kitchen or purchased from a restaurant.

If you can help, please call Evva Hepner, 248.798.7673.

HOPE HOSPITALITY AND WARMING CENTER

On Volunteer Day, Sunday, January 14, an enthusiastic group made and packed over 100 sandwiches. We decorated the lunch bags and included positive affirmations. Additionally, we made toiletry kits and sent socks for the residents of the center. All of this was greatly appreciated! Thanks to everyone who participated.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Intends To Celebrate Tu B'shevat All Year Long !

Adat Shalom Synagogue is proud to share our 2024 Climate Action Plan (CAP), which both reflects on our successes and challenges in terms of achieving our climate priorities to date and articulates goals for the year ahead that will both broaden and deepen our climate work. To request a copy of the Adat Shalom Climate Action Plan, please email Rabbi Nisanwisch at bnosanwisch@adatshalom.org

We're not alone. Adat Shalom Synagogue is part of the Jewish Climate Leadership Coalition. We are recent members of Adamah, a national Jewish organization helping Jewish communities combat climate change. Learn more here: <https://adamah.org/>

Stepping onto the sustainability path can be both daunting and exhilarating. While we will be challenged to reach the highest levels of a sustainable community, doing nothing is NOT an option. Your Adat Shalom Green Team needs all the support we can garner, as we intend to make 2024 a transitional year in making our campus and synagogue community more sustainable and resilient for the good of our global community. Help us move forward as we go from strength to strength. Todah Rabah!

FRIENDS'

Some years ago, various FRIENDS groups at Adat Shalom Synagogue were organized with the goal of providing interest groups for congregants. These groups established avenues for making new friends within the congregation.

Two FRIENDS groups have been active since the beginning and continue to gather - The Movie Group and Day Trippers. Initially the Music/Concert and Dinner Groups were active as well, and then there was COVID.

This issue of the Voice will highlight new FRIENDS activities including a tour of the Irwin Alterman Haggadah Collection in Ann Arbor. The movie group is planning future film discussions.

As we gather in person at the synagogue, the joy of community is enhanced by seeing old and new friends. Some of these friendships are established within the FRIENDS groups. You are welcome to join us!

On Friday, June 21, 2024, the Bessie Spector Oldest Jewish Americans Celebration will honor those 95 and older at a festive brunch featuring a fun and exciting circus atmosphere.

Please join in shining a spotlight on the Greatest Generation by helping identify the older adults who built our wonderful Detroit Jewish community. Register honorees at jslmi.org/oab or contact Beth Robinson at 248.592.5062. All nominees aged 95 and older as of December 31, 2024 will be invited. Invitations will be mailed in May 2024.

This special event is generously sponsored by the family of Bessie Spector and other community supporters. It is presented through a partnership with Jewish Senior Life, Jewish Family Service, the J, the Jewish Federation of Detroit, and Geshar Human Services.

Become a part of JCC Maccabi

The JCC Maccabi Games® is the largest Jewish youth event in the world. From July 28 to August 2, 2024, our Detroit community will welcome 1,200 Jewish teens from across the globe. The Games involve thousands of members from our community: 400 host families, 1,000 volunteers, and 200 local athletes.

Tributes recieved as of January 31, 2024

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tribute Funds

Adat Shalom's tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation. We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes marking lifecycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support.

To arrange for a tribute, please visit our website adatshalom.org/tributes or call the synagogue office at 248.851.5100. We have set an $18 minimum price for tribute cards.

For information to establish a fund, please contact Executive Director Michael Wolf.
