MESSAGES

FROM THE PRESIDENT, JOYCE BERLIN WEINGARTEN

I often think of my beloved Bubbie Fannie Whiteman, of blessed memory. She was a kind and loving woman who lived to be 102, leaving a legacy for her family and all who knew her. She was born in Horodok and immigrated to America in 1920 with her family. When I spoke at her funeral, I began by describing Bubbie's hands and all the things she created with them her entire life.

Bubbie made strudel, blintzes, and dill pickles, beaded jewelry, and knit scarves. She lit Shabbos candles and took care of her family. She instilled her values of family, education, and Jewish tradition in her children and grandchildren. When I told her many years ago I was going to have an adult Bat Mitzvah and read from the Torah she said, "The vimen (translation: women) are doing it too!" She was there to celebrate with me and I was grateful for her inspiration.

My beloved father Louis Berlin, of blessed memory, was a fine man with a "shem tov," a good name. He promised his grandfather he would lay tefillin and daven Sh'ma every morning and he honored that promise his entire life. I still visualize him davening at our home. I loved sitting at services with my father as a child and an adult. This heartfelt time together inspired me to bring my children to services and have that special time with them also.

As I reflect upon my presidency at Adat Shalom, I think of what our hands have done together to make our congregation a warm, inviting community of peace. My first goal was to invite and encourage all of you to return to the building as COVID restrictions eased and enjoy being together. Collective effervescence returned to our building with your presence.

We gathered together for a magnificent evening of Comedy and Concert celebrating the B'nai Mitzvah of Rabbi Bergman and Hazzan Gross. Thanks to your Yom Kippur appeal generosity we are building an outdoor shelter and renovating our bathrooms. We renewed contracts with all our clergy and have secured endowments to enhance our synagogue.

It has been an honor and privilege to serve as your president. I thank you all for making the past two years enjoyable and rewarding for me. I have learned, laughed, and cried with you and together we have continued to make Adat Shalom the best it can be. We enhance our Adat Shalom community when we are together as a family inspiring each other to be our best selves. When I pass the gavel to Joe Wener, your next president, I know you will be in good hands. You are the heart and soul of Adat Shalom.

Psalm 30 asks that we are shown compassion and establish the work of our hands and that the work be firmly established. May the work of our hands at Adat Shalom continue for many years to come.

Jeffrey and I extend our deepest gratitude to all of you, our Adat Shalom family.

FROM RABBI AARON BERGMAN

During May and June we observe and celebrate so many emotional and powerful days. This is true every year, but even more so this year. As of this writing, the captives are still not home, Israel is fighting on multiple borders and antisemitism is still haunting us and challenging the very soul of the United States. It feels natural to want to hide, to not celebrate publicly, and to just wait for things to be better before we rejoice again.

That is not the Jewish way. We mourn together. We pray together. We celebrate together. It does not matter what is going on in the world. We are together.

In May, on Yom HaZikaron, we remember and mourn all those who gave their lives for Israel. We turn our tears into joy on Yom HaAtzmaut when we celebrate 76 years of Israel being a state and three thousand years of continuous Jewish life in the Holy Land. It is difficult there now, but try to remember how difficult it was to be a Jew in the world before a State of Israel. We are far safer today in 2024 than we were in 1924 or 1824 or any time before. Antisemitism did not begin with Israel, but our ability to fight it and confront it was strengthened so much by its rise.

In June, on Shavuot, we celebrate the giving of the Torah, the moment that created us as a people, and gave us the strength, wisdom, courage, and compassion to survive and flourish to this day. We do not cancel holidays during times of danger and challenge. We celebrate them even more.

These are the words I shared at Adat Shalom last fall, marking 30 days since the hostages were taken by our enemies. I pray for their safe and speedy return. I pray we never forget who we are.

I am so deeply and profoundly grateful to be part of this extraordinary community, this beautiful and eternal people.

We are the chosen people because:

We have chosen to be a family.

We have chosen to celebrate each other's joy and feel each other's pain.

We have chosen to always remember who we are, where we are going, and how far we have come.

We have chosen to embrace life and never rejoice in anyone's death.

We have chosen to keep our promises to our ancestors and to work every day to keep our promises to the next generations of our people.

We have chosen courage over fear and faith over despair.

We have chosen to be partners with God in making a better world for everyone.

We have chosen to never forget those held captive, and those who wait for them to come safely home.

We have chosen to always stand with our people, wherever they are.

Am Yisrael Chai

Rabbi Bergman moderated a panel discussion at Adat Shalom, Bearing Witness, about Detroit Federation's Leadership Solidarity Mission to Israel.

FROM HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS

Adat Shalom is proud to announce the establishment of the Kaufman Family Cantorial Chair Fund, honoring the matriarch of the family, Lillian Efros Kaufman z”l. This fund will help support music education, programs, and performances at Adat Shalom, and is a very special honor for me as I had a close relationship with Lillian. Music was an integral part of Lillian’s life, providing comfort as well as connecting her to special memories of her past, and I was privileged to share this joy with her on multiple occasions.

Lillian E. Kaufman was born in Detroit on December 1, 1924, to parents Max and Rose Efros. Growing up, Lillian enjoyed singing and participated in the choir and theater at Central High School. She passed on her love of music to her children, Alan, Steven, and Judie z”l, and the three of them sang in choirs and played piano throughout their upbringing. Lillian understood how the study and practice of an instrument taught self-discipline that would help in many other life endeavors.

Adat Shalom held a special place in Lillian’s heart. She was never fond of the inequities that she experienced earlier in more traditional synagogue settings, so she loved attending the egalitarian services at Adat Shalom. Lillian would always arrive early to get her choice of seats for herself and her family. She loved the music at services and understood that the synagogue was a foundational part of the Jewish experience, not only for individuals but for families and the community as well.

Lillian also had a passion for the Yiddish language. She both spoke and taught Yiddish. The songs she enjoyed the most during our time together were those in the mamaloshen (literally, mother tongue). However, Lillian also had an appreciation for many kinds of music throughout her life, including classical, big band, jazz, swing, pop, rock, and rap.

Lillian had tremendous pride, but it was not hubris. Her pride was in her family and her Judaism. She was the embodiment of an eishet chayil – a true woman of valor. She had a joie de vivre, and was an exemplar of kindness, resiliency, commitment, and integrity. Never pretentious, she loved humor and laughter, and had an unparalleled moral compass. In her lifetime, Lillian was very charitable, however, she never sought recognition.

Lillian shepped naches from her family throughout her life. She was blessed with three children, three grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. The Kaufman Family Cantorial Chair Fund is a way for Lillian’s family to pay tribute to this remarkable woman, from whose memory they all now shep naches.

Lillian passed away in January of 2023. Our first concert in her memory will be this coming September. Zichrona Livracha. May her memory be a blessing and inspiration.

Lillian Efros Kaufman z”l

FROM RABBI BLAIR NOSANWISCH

In the wake of October 7, I have been feeling pulled between caring for my people and caring for others to an excruciating degree. The public sphere is highly polarized. In that sphere, if you are standing up for the Jewish people, you have a death wish for everyone else. Conversely, if you are worried about the lives of other people, you must have a death wish for yourself.

For those American Jews for whom both liberalism and Zionism have been guiding values, October 7 was a cataclysm. These two orientations, one focused on civil liberties for all and the other on self-determination for us, are not actually antithetical, but we are swimming in a moral and intellectual universe in which they have been framed as oppositional. The false binary of these values does not exempt us from one for the sake of the other. Neither self-negation nor destruction of the other is in our interest or our values. When we can speak this with one voice against the pressure to choose, we will be living our spiritual purpose as a Jewish people. Zionism needs our liberalism, and liberalism needs our Zionism.

As we enter the month of May, and the Hebrew month of Iyar, we are entering the season of the Israeli national holidays, known as “the Yoms.” Yom HaShoah, Yom HaZikaron, and Yom HaAtzmaut. Holocaust Memorial Day, Memorial Day for soldiers and victims of terror, and Israeli Independence Day. The architecture of these holidays is designed to reenact the transformation from degradation to redemption, from disempowerment to autonomy that are central to the Jewish story from Torah to today.

We are taught in Pirkei Avot, “if I am not for myself, who will be for me? And if I am only for myself, what am I?” This tension is captured in Israel’s own declaration of independence—that the state of the Jews would also be a liberal democracy for all its citizens. As we observe the Yoms together this year, let us keep in mind that we are better Jews when we remember the stranger, and we are better liberals when we have agency and power and are willing to stand up for ourselves. Our ancestors may have hoped in ’48 that we were finally exiting from the story of degradation and redemption, but what I have learned is that we will have to struggle for redemption in every generation. This year, let us weep over what has been lost on Yom HaShoah and Yom HaZikaron, and let us not only celebrate but also stand up for the essential value of democracy that we stand for on Yom HaAtzmaut.

Annually, Adat Shalom welcomes students from Bloomfield Hills Middle Schools to visit our synagogue and learn from our clergy.

FROM DR. MELISSA SER

Director of Education

mser@adatshalom.org

As we bring our academic year to a close this month, I am grateful to all who have worked so hard to get to this point! I am blessed to work with an incredible team of clergy, educators, professionals, lay leaders, teachers, parents, committee members, and madrichim who show up for our students - and for each other - regularly.

We will be celebrating together on May 5 with our end-of-year picnic, co-sponsored by the Men's Club, and we are already looking ahead to what next year will bring our way. Our much-awaited Israel Playscape should be done by Rosh Hashanah, and we cannot wait to do a community ribbon-cutting!

We have had a year full of chesed feasts, making challah and delicious food with our students and their families. Our students have learned about Israel from our shinshinit, Ofri, and have engaged in difficult questions amid challenging circumstances.

Registration for 2024-25, along with opportunities for 8th graders and high school students, should be available by the end of May.

History of Prayers for Israel and Hatikvah

with Rabbi Bergman

Thursday, May 16, 7pm | Zoom

Every Shabbat we include a prayer for Israel. Hatikvah ("The Hope"), written in 1878 as a poem by poet Naphtali Herz Imber, originally spoke to the Jewish desire to be free in our homeland. Today every verse represents the realization of that hope.

Assistant Director of Education & Youth Engagement
sshapiro@adatshalom.org

Earlier in March, Jodi and I attended a community wide educator training led by M<sup>2</sup> about their 18x18 Framework in partnership with the J and Federation. This framework is based on their 18 dimensions and are centered on the question, "What are the things that a Jewish person should know, care about, and be able to do?"

The dimensions are:

- The Jewish People in its Diversity - Jewish Friendships - Jewish Role Models - Jewish History, Memory, and Tradition - Jewish Community - Judaism's Relevance to Life's Questions - God, Spirituality, and Prayer - Rituals and Holidays - Justice and Tzedakah - Mitzvot and Customs - Holiness of Nature and the Environment - Expression of God's Creation - Jewish Texts, Torah, and Core Narratives - Israel and its People - Hebrew and Jewish Terminology - Jewish Culinary Traditions - Jewish Arts and Culture - Issues Facing Contemporary Jewry

Throughout this workshop Jodi and I had the opportunity to think critically about how we apply these dimensions to the classes and programs we offer at Adat Shalom. As you read through this list please think about what dimensions are important to you and which do you feel need more attention.

How can I, and the education department, help focus our attention in an area that is meaningful to our families?

MEN'S CLUB

"Daddy, I love this song!" "Let's do the spinning pictures together!" "Can I get some more cotton candy?" "This is soooooo much fun!!!" These are just some of the soundbites heard from the many kids at our 20th annual - and largest ever - Daddy Daughter Dance. This staple of the Men's Club calendar continues to improve year over year, and is such a great opportunity for the dads (and granddads) in our congregation to have a fun, special time with their young dates - who dressed to impress and showed us all how much they like to party. Thank you to all of the volunteers who made this special night possible, in particular chairs Jaron Friedman and Mike Weil. (It was particularly special to honor Mike and his daughter, Zoe, who were at the first Dance and have been at virtually all since then!!)

By the time this issue of the Voice comes out, Passover will have just ended. Hopefully many of the Men's Club families enjoyed Seder enhancements learned at our pre-Passover event, Not Your Zeide's Seder. Thank you to Larry Kirshner for spearheading this program (including arranging the wine tasting), and our amazing clergy team for their assistance in developing and delivering meaningful content.

We are so excited that Men's Club (with many guests!) will be hitting the road later this month as we venture to Cleveland to visit the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. For those who will be joining us, you'll be in for a special treat as our own Gary Graff, a highly accomplished music journalist, will be joining us as an expert docent. We might have room for late registrations, so if you haven't signed up but want to join us on Sunday, May 19, please reach out to mensclub@adatshalom.org as soon as possible.

This is also a period of transition for us. On May 5, Men's Club will be holding its annual meeting and elections. I am so grateful to the entire board of trustees and executive committee for their collective leadership and for supporting me throughout my presidency. Congratulations to all who have been nominated as officers and board members for the 2024-25 year; I have so much confidence in what you will all accomplish and look forward to seeing how Men's Club will continue to grow.

Lastly... while our programming year is coming to an end, it's never too early to renew membership (or initially join) for next year!

Thank you for the privilege of leading Men's Club for these past 2 years!!

B'Shalom,
Alan

SOCIAL ACTION

SPRING BLOOD DRIVE

The March Blood Drive was a success thanks again to the many wonderful blood donors who came and waited patiently as we strove to run a timely and smooth drive. Although the Red Cross arrived late and was short some staff, with the hard work of the remaining Red Cross team, we had a great drive, collecting 26 pints of well-needed blood.

Thanks to Marcy Colton (and hubby Tom), and Ruth Zerin, our loyal team who volunteered tirelessly all day long. We couldn't have done it without the help of Beth Bitterman, Marcia Garland, and Kathy Halliburton, who staffed the canteen. Thanks to the Adat Shalom staff for setting up. We very much appreciated the efforts of the Red Cross team, who worked very hard to keep up the flow.

I was thankful for the wonderful group of blood donors who participate in our drives. The phlebotomist who took my donation commented on how nice and polite our group was - the best he'd worked with! In all, it was a very fun day and we helped heal the world (tikkun olam), one drop at a time.

Debby Portney

YAD EZRA DELIVERIES

We helped deliver Yad Ezra groceries to people that are unable to come to the warehouse to pick up their food. Thank you to Enid and Rick Waller for delivering on Sunday, March 24.

There are many opportunities to help at Yad Ezra. They depend on countless hours of dedicated volunteers giving their time to assist the vulnerable in our community. If you are interested, contact Ruth Nadler, 248.548.3663 or yadezra.org

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

We will schedule an upcoming Sunday night, summer date to make and serve dinner at the Ronald McDonald House in Detroit. The families that are staying there spend long hours in the hospital with their children that are ill. The warmth of a meal provides much comfort during difficult times. Watch for the date.

LIGHTHOUSE - SOUTH OAKLAND HOMELESS SHELTER, June 23-30

Although the program no longer rotates through Oakland County, we continue to provide meals at their current location. This residence provides families a more stable environment without having to move every week to a different place. The participants continue to need support for meals. If you can help, please contact Evva Hepner, 248.798.7673.
